

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, - - - - - Woburn, Mass.

Sale receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS. Good Fur Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,

148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice Stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut; Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

A Railway Enterprise.

[Special Dispatch to the Boston Advertiser.]

LAWRENCE, March 24.—According to the statement of a Haverhill gentleman who was in the city today, the capitalists of that city have on foot a scheme of much greater magnitude than the Haverhill &amp; Lawrence Railroad would imply. The corporations of this city have all along opposed that Haverhill-Lawrence Railroad coming into this city, alleging as a reason that the route laid out along Canal street is impracticable. The stockholders of the canal, however, have decided that the Canal street route is the only feasible way of getting into the city. But a compromise has been made between the corporations of the two railroads, in so far as they have agreed upon the route. It is to decide whether the Canal street route is or is not feasible. If found to be practicable, the board of aldermen will grant the new road an entrance.

Recent events, however, seem to show that Haverhill capitalists have given up in view beyond controlling a line to Lawrence. The gentleman above referred to, who is a heavy stockholder in the proposed Haverhill &amp; Lawrence Railroad, said that he was determined to determine the line of the line. When asked whether the leading of the Boston &amp; Lowell to the Boston &amp; Maine might not deter them he replied that it would not.

"In answer," he said, "we shall build the line through Haverhill &amp; Lawrence. Further than that we are going to have a line of our own to Boston. This is not a new idea. We shall run our road from Lawrence to Andover, passing near Smith &amp; Dove's mill, and then go on to the granite quarries. Near the Boston &amp; Maine station in Woburn we shall strike the roadbed of the Mystic Valley Railroad, built about 10 years ago; Nathan P. Pratt of Reading was the originator of it. It was not entirely completed, but the roadbed, and part of the rails laid. But though the construction went to pieces and lost its charter, the roadbed still remains and is in good condition. About 100 feet of this we propose to use, that is, as far as Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $2.00 and $3.50, S, M, F, F, W, wide. Smith's American Kid, $2.50. Phelan's Kid and Goat boots, C, D, E, $2.00.

All kinds of REPAIRS done at Moderate prices: from and back stays stitched on Ladies fine Kid Boots: also New goring put into all kinds of shoes.

AT LEATHEER's buy your shoes for all kinds of weather; in leather, full grain from solid solid leather; Rememb'r Main is the street; Buy your shoes there and you'll never get beat.

WINCHESTER.

Mrs. E. Bangs of this place will have charge of a table at the Homeopathic festival to be given in Boston soon. A "high tea" is to be a prominent feature of the affair.

Some of our people act just as though they would like to "rig a purchase" to expel every manufacturing establishment in town and to keep them all out. Perhaps it would be a good plan to let them have their way, and then see the town down to grass.

The West Siders are picking up their ears over the report we hear about the Haverhill railroad that intends to build a line from Haverhill via Lawrence, Woburn, and Belmont, thence by connections to the Fitchburg road into Boston. This would give Winchester another railroad just where she most needs and wants it. I understand the old bed of the Mystic Valley road will be used to this place when it will leave it for Arlington. The building of this line would be a big thing for the West Side of Winchester, and the general impression is it will be built. For I hope so for personal reasons.

BURLINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Edgerly have been engaged to take charge of the almshouse, another year.

Mrs. M. E. S. Curtis spoke on "Woman Suffrage and the Home" at the annual meeting of the National Woman Suffrage Association of Massachusetts, in Boston, March 24.

The performance of "Casto" by members of the Literary Union, on Wednesday evening of last week, was well attended and gave good satisfaction. The Woburn Orchestra furnished excellent music.

MEETINGS FOR NEXT WEEK.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL.—No preaching on April 3 and 10.

UNION.—Preaching at 10:30 a. m. by Rev. William R. Agar of Boston.

BAPTIST.—Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m.; Communion service at 2:30 p. m.; young people's meeting at 6 p. m.; Preaching followed by baptism at 7 p. m.; Prayer meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:30 p. m.

MEETING.—St. John's.—Pastor at 10:30 a. m.; Sacrament at 2:30 p. m.; young people's meeting at 6 p. m.; general prayer service at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Class meeting Friday evening at 7:30.

CONGREGATIONAL.—The pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m.; Young people's meeting at 6 p. m.; Monthly Communion service at 7 p. m.; meetings of the Association, which is to be held in the room of the Society of Friends, at 7:30. Meetings on Wednesday evening at 7:30. Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and Friday evening at 7:30.

1887.*Artistic Dress and Suit Making*AT THE*Dry Goods and Millinery House of A. Cummings,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN ST., WOBURN, MASS.

RE-OPENING OF OUR ROOMS FOR SPRING ORDERS.

We invite your special attention to our styles and workmanship, which is of a superior order. We are very grateful to all who have favored us heretofore, and invite further investigation of what we have to offer in this line. Our DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT will be of great advantage to you in determining what is suitable to wear.

Respectfully,

A. CUMMINGS.

BRINE

—AND—

NORCROSS,

Successors to John Harrington &amp; Co.

17 and 18 Tremont Row,

70 and 72 Tremont Street,

660 and 662 Washington St.

TIDE

SPRIT OF COMPETITION.

TIDE

A UNION FAIR*FINE WATCH REPAIRING*DODGE'S JEWELRY STORE.*PRICES REASONABLE.

142 MAIN STREET,

WOBURN.

BARGAINS*Suits and Overcoats,*C. R. GAGE & CO.'S, Merchant Tailors.

171 Main Street, Woburn.

A UNION*Sufferers*Severe Coughs

WEAK LUNGS, SPITTING OF BLOOD, and the early stage of CONSUMPTION should use

Adamson's Botanic Balsam.

It has astonished most of the skilled Physicians. White it cures the Cough it strengthens the system and purifies the blood.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers. Price 10 c, 35 c, and 75 c.

WOBURN

Skating Academy,

Montvale Avenue.

Friday Evening, April 1.

N. E. League Game of Polo. WOBURN vs. PAWTUCKET.

Saturday Evening, April 2.

N. E. League Game of Polo. WOBURN vs. BOSTON.

Wednesday Evening, April 6.

N. E. League Game of Polo. WOBURN vs. NEW BEDFORD.

Admission, 10 cents. Reserved Seats, 10 cents. Doors open at 7 P. M. Starting 7:30.

Reserved Seats for Polo nights for sale News Depot, 1st Main Street.

Box Seats, $1.00. Box Seats for all polo games, $1.00 sharp.

Band Stand for Music and Reporters only. Music, Ring Bands. W. E. CARTER, Proprietor.

PURE

MILK.

I am engaged in sale and delivery of PURE MILK to the public. Call at my farm on Cambridge street, and especially when a share is wanted.

Orders left at Buckman &amp; White's Grocery Store, 209 Main Street, Woburn, will be promptly attended to.

P. G. HANSON,

Woburn, Jan. 18, 1886.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, 55.

PROBATE COURT.

To the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, late of Woburn, in said County, deceased, intestate:

WHEREAS, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of Margaret Gallagher, late of Woburn, in the County of Middlesex, Boston, Massachusetts, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which the same will be held, for three successive weeks, in the name of the next of kin, executors, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Margaret Gallagher, deceased, to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of ascertaining, against granting the same.

And the said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice of the time and place of holding such a meeting, in the newspaper, in which

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1887.

THE JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparks, Barton, 105 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 108 Main Street, John Cummings, 53, Cummingsville, Samm E. Wyman, W. A. Hawson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as to o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

A GOOD DAY'S WORK.

It is safe to say that the Board of Selectmen elected last Monday is the best, taken all in all, that this town has had to transact its public business for more than half a dozen years. The voters did a good stroke of work that day and have reason to congratulate themselves on what they accomplished in the way of better town government for one year to say the least. The gratifying results of the somewhat fierce contest for the mastery were due to the exercise of good judgment, forbearance, honest regard for the best interests of the town, and a joining of hands on the part of respectable voters for the accomplishment of a worthy purpose. On the side of those who wanted and were willing to work for a change in our town affairs all party considerations were thrust one side and Republicans, Democrats, Prohibitionists and Non-Englishmen worked shoulder to shoulder to accomplish the same end. The exact line pointed out by the JOURNAL several weeks since and afterward insisted on was followed out and the best Board of Selectmen that Woburn has had for years, so everyone says, was elected.

The victory of Monday shows plainly enough what the better element of the town can bring about by means of the ballot-box when they please to stand together and work for the accomplishment of the same thing. There is no need of the town being longer ruled by the element that has held sway for the last seven or eight years unless it likes that way best. The men who want a clean, honest, intelligent local government can have it by simply saying the word, and a very different administration of our affairs may prevail as easily. Representatives of all political parties worked together last Monday, as they had previously in preparing for the fight, and in this way they won a very gratifying and valuable success. That is the way to do it every time—drop party politics and go in for good town government.

The ticket elected was an excellent one from top to bottom. Nearly all its members have had experience in town affairs and proved their quality. Grammer, Skinner, Ferguson, Kenney, Golden, Cottle and Salmon, have each served one or more terms and occupied influential positions on the Board, and it is safe to say they will give the town a good administration the current year.

NO LICENSE.

Last Monday Woburn fell into line with the better part of the Massachusetts towns and cities that have voted this spring on the question and declared herself most emphatically for prohibition. In a poll of 1963 ballots the majority against license was 169 which exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine and filled the hearts of the friends of sobriety and good order with joy and gladness. To a great many the brilliant victory was unexpected although not unheralded, but to the liquor dealers it was a blow square between the eyes that stunned square. They were saying all along that the town would vote by a large majority to grant licenses this year to sell rum and beer and fully believed what they were talking about, but the vote on Monday upset their calculations in the most amazing manner and threw them entirely out of their reckoning.

To the good women of the town and especially to the persistent endeavors of the W. C. T. U. who have been working and praying all the year for this glorious result was due much of the credit for bringing it about. The outcome also proves the value of personal work as against the brass band style of campaigning and shows what it is possible to accomplish with people by getting right down close to where they live and showing them that you are their best friends. The ladies have done nobly. So have the men, and both can show for their earnest work a triumph over the rain element that any decently inclined community might well feel proud of.

The Republicans of Chicago, aided by law and order Democrats, won a decisive victory at the polls last Tuesday. Up to the opening of the ballot-boxes the anachists loudly proclaimed their ability to overwhelmingly carry the charter election under the red flag, but when the vote was counted at night it was found they had cast just half the number of ballots which they boasted of being perfectly sure of and furthermore that the Republicans had whipped them by over 20,000 majority. That puts a quietus on anarchy and the red flag business in Chicago.

In Germany, till the reign of Charlemagne at the close of the eighth century, there were no towns except a few that had been erected on the Rhine and Danube by the Romans. Lubeck was the first on the Baltic, being founded A. D. 1140.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
Advertisers—Lost, T. L. Reed—Hams, V. C. Evans—Piano, W. A. Davis—Wanted, E. F. Johnson—Citation, J. G. Maguire—Citation, J. W. Johnson—Citation, E. W. Parker—Entertainment, Dr. T. R. Blackstone—Dentist, Miss E. H. Bush—Kindergarten, Mrs. C. A. Pierce—Special Bargains.

See advertisement of keys lost.

Adjourned Town Meeting at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Read the card of Mrs. C. A. Pierce in another column.

Those who use T. L. Reed's Burlington Hams will use no others.

We have had some real winter weather this week. This spring knocks them all.

Attention is called to the card of W. A. Davis, 31 Park street, Boston, in this paper.

Josiah Leath has a fine stock of spring and summer shoes, which he sells at low prices.

The Woburn Workers, a society of busy little people, will resume work on Saturday afternoon, April 16.

Try one of T. L. Reed's Burlington Hams. They make a fine relish.

At the annual meeting of the Unitarian Parish held last Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the year to come, viz: Clerk, John Warren Johnson; Treasurer, Winthrop Hammond; Auditor, Robert J. W. Phinney; Parish Committee, Griffin John Warren Johnson, Winthrop Hammond, Mrs. C. A. Simonds, Mrs. S. E. Goddard.

Day after to-morrow is Easter Sunday, the end of Lent and beginning of a period of rejoicing and flowers. It is expected the churches in town will be beautifully decorated, that the music will be exceptionally sweet, and the other services particularly appropriate to the occasion. The Sunday Schools will also be seen and heard from—some of them at least.

We call attention to the notice of a Banquet Sociable to be held in the Baptist church on Thursday evening, April 14 instant. It will be a novel kind of entertainment in which there is any amount of real fun. The best of it will be in the banquet-holders finding their mates for the supper in the room. It is a good thing and don't cost much to attend it.

If your eyes blur consult Dodge, the optician at Dodge's jewelry store, 142 Main street. His glasses are a sure relief.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the Unitarian Church parlor, on Monday, April 11, at 3 P. M.

O. J. Stough, Esq., of Chicago will please accept our thanks for packages of Western papers, and for remembrances.

Leeds has been improving his pleasant drugstore corner of Main street and Montvale Avenue preparatory to spring business.

Mr. R. S. Spaulding has put on a nice public carriage for depot and about town service. It is a good turnout and prices are low.

Mr. Buffington, special agent for the Government Bureau of Labor, has been getting facts concerning the labor question here this week.

There was an alarm of fire from box 62 last Tuesday evening which was caused by a threatened blaze in Hovey street. It amounted to but little.

Capt. O. J. Hart has moved into the fine residence on Main street recently built by Mrs. Winn. It is a neat, commodious and pleasant residence.

Buckman & White are selling choice family groceries, fresh and clean, cheap. Try their "Star" creamery butter if you get something very nice indeed.

There is a good deal of guessing and surmising and shouldn't-wondering about the appointees of the new Board of Selectmen. It will all come out in due season.

A postponed meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. will be held in the parlors of the Congregational church at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 9th—tomorrow.

Miss Ruth M. Leath, executrix, has given notice to the Trustees of the Woburn Home for Aged Women of a legacy of $2,000 left to it by Mrs. Mary L. Keyes, lately deceased.

The School Board met at their rooms on Tuesday evening and organized as follows: Chairman, Dr. George P. Bartlett; Auditor, S. Frank Trull; Superintendent, Frank B. Richardson.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture entitled, "The Perils of the Republic," before the Woman's Club in the Unitarian Church, on April 15, at 3 P. M. Don't fail to hear her.

When Mrs. Davis, who lives on Pond street, was crossing the railroad track at Main street, about 7:30 o'clock last Tuesday evening, she fell and broke one of her legs. She was taken home and a doctor sent for.

The Shareholders of the Woburn Co-operative Bank should remember that the monthly payments are due on or before the second Thursday in each month. The pass-books are now ready and will be exchanged for vouchers given.

The Stoneham Street Railroad Co. have petitioned the Selectmen of Woburn for the privilege of keeping 50 to 100 horses in a frame building to be erected on the southerly side of Salen street 1000 feet from Main street.

M. Ellis & Co. have begun operations on the Cummings house, corner of Pleasant and Abbott streets looking to its removal to Wm street. The lot will soon be vacant, when work on the new bank building will begin in good earnest.

In common with every friend to good local government the JOURNAL is highly pleased with the outcome of last Monday's town election. A ticket admirable in every particular was elected, from whose labors this year the very best results may be confidently expected.

Dr. T. R. Blackstone of Boston has opened dental rooms at 172 Main street, over Mr. Buss's drugstore, where he will be glad to meet the citizens of this town and to secure a portion of their patronage. He comes to Woburn with good recommendations and we have no doubt he understands all about the profession. The Dr. has secured pleasant rooms to which our people will receive a cordial welcome whenever they please to call.

Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor of the Methodist church, preached at the union meeting at the Unitarian church yesterday. There were religious services by Dr. March at the Congregational church in the afternoon. In a secular line but little was going on. It was a bright day, but not sultry.

We call especial attention to the announcement in another column of a dramatic entertainment to be given at the Unitarian Church on Wednesday evening April 13. The piece to be presented is "Rebecca's Triumph" which is a good one, and the entertainment will please the audience we make no doubt.

The Stoneham Street Railroad Co. have given the contract for building the line from Woburn to Stoneham to the same Boston firm that built the No. Woburn to Winchester line last year. The contract for building the house, stable and blacksmith-shop has also been let out. The work will begin shortly on these contracts.

Mr. E. B. Blanchard, President of the Mishawum Club, entertained about forty of its members very handsomely at his pleasant residence on Summer street, one evening last week. Nothing was left undone by the host and his lady to render the evening an agreeable one to the guests and they succeeded admirably in making them all happy.

At the annual meeting of the Unitarian Parish held last Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the year to come, viz: Clerk, John Warren Johnson; Treasurer, Winthrop Hammond; Auditor, Robert J. W. Phinney; Parish Committee, Griffin John Warren Johnson, Winthrop Hammond, Mrs. C. A. Simonds, Mrs. S. E. Goddard.

Day after to-morrow is Easter Sunday, the end of Lent and beginning of a period of rejoicing and flowers. It is expected the churches in town will be beautifully decorated, that the music will be exceptionally sweet, and the other services particularly appropriate to the occasion. The Sunday Schools will also be seen and heard from—some of them at least.

We call attention to the notice of a Banquet Sociable to be held in the Baptist church on Thursday evening, April 14 instant. It will be a novel kind of entertainment in which there is any amount of real fun. The best of it will be in the banquet-holders finding their mates for the supper in the room. It is a good thing and don't cost much to attend it.

Leeds has been improving his pleasant drugstore corner of Main street and Montvale Avenue preparatory to spring business.

Mr. R. S. Spaulding has put on a nice public carriage for depot and about town service. It is a good turnout and prices are low.

Mr. Buffington, special agent for the Government Bureau of Labor, has been getting facts concerning the labor question here this week.

There was an alarm of fire from box 62 last Tuesday evening which was caused by a threatened blaze in Hovey street. It amounted to but little.

Capt. O. J. Hart has moved into the fine residence on Main street recently built by Mrs. Winn. It is a neat, commodious and pleasant residence.

Buckman & White are selling choice family groceries, fresh and clean, cheap. Try their "Star" creamery butter if you get something very nice indeed.

The Congregational church Sunday school will give an Easter concert in the church proper at 7 o'clock on next Sunday evening under the direction of Superintendent Pollard and Assistant Superintendent Lyford, for which preparations have been made. Mr. Buck will play some Easter pieces on the organ and besides music by a chorus choir the children will sing several hymns and sacred songs. They will also give recitations, etc., and thus make the concert an interesting one.

Miss Ruth M. Leath, executrix, has given notice to the Trustees of the Woburn Home for Aged Women of a legacy of $2,000 left to it by Mrs. Mary L. Keyes, lately deceased.

The School Board met at their rooms on Tuesday evening and organized as follows: Chairman, Dr. George P. Bartlett; Auditor, S. Frank Trull; Superintendent, Frank B. Richardson.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture entitled, "The Perils of the Republic," before the Woman's Club in the Unitarian Church, on April 15, at 3 P. M. Don't fail to hear her.

When Mrs. Davis, who lives on Pond street, was crossing the railroad track at Main street, about 7:30 o'clock last Tuesday evening, she fell and broke one of her legs. She was taken home and a doctor sent for.

The Shareholders of the Woburn Co-operative Bank should remember that the monthly payments are due on or before the second Thursday in each month. The pass-books are now ready and will be exchanged for vouchers given.

The Stoneham Street Railroad Co. have petitioned the Selectmen of Woburn for the privilege of keeping 50 to 100 horses in a frame building to be erected on the southerly side of Salen street 1000 feet from Main street.

M. Ellis & Co. have begun operations on the Cummings house, corner of Pleasant and Abbott streets looking to its removal to Wm street. The lot will soon be vacant, when work on the new bank building will begin in good earnest.

In common with every friend to good local government the JOURNAL is highly pleased with the outcome of last Monday's town election. A ticket admirable in every particular was elected, from whose labors this year the very best results may be confidently expected.

Dr. T. R. Blackstone of Boston has opened dental rooms at 172 Main street, over Mr. Buss's drugstore, where he will be glad to meet the citizens of this town and to secure a portion of their patronage. He comes to Woburn with good recommendations and we have no doubt he understands all about the profession. The Dr. has secured pleasant rooms to which our people will receive a cordial welcome whenever they please to call.

narrative of such absorbing interest by one of the principal actors in it, and if our people had been previously aware of the real character of Mr. Leach's lecture no doubt the rooms would have been crowded.

The Tanners tanned the hides of the pet Boston last Monday evening at Winslow's Backbay rink in grand style. There has been a good deal of bragging by the Bostonians and their friends, but the Tanners have got so now that they can take the buckram out of them at every pull. The Woburn lads are slowly but surely creeping to the top of the ladder and if the JOURNAL is not far off in its calculations they'll capture the League colors by several lengths.

— We call especial attention to the announcement in another column of a dramatic entertainment to be given at the Unitarian Church on Wednesday evening April 13. The piece to be presented is "Rebecca's Triumph" which is a good one, and the entertainment will please the audience we make no doubt.

The Stoneham Street Railroad Co. have given the contract for building the line from Woburn to Stoneham to the same Boston firm that built the No. Woburn to Winchester line last year. The contract for building the house, stable and blacksmith-shop has also been let out. The work will begin shortly on these contracts.

— At the annual meeting of the Unitarian Parish held last Tuesday evening the following officers were elected for the year to come, viz: Clerk, John Warren Johnson; Treasurer, Winthrop Hammond; Auditor, Robert J. W. Phinney; Parish Committee, Griffin John Warren Johnson, Winthrop Hammond, Mrs. C. A. Simonds, Mrs. S. E. Goddard.

— The day after to-morrow is Easter Sunday, the end of Lent and beginning of a period of rejoicing and flowers. It is expected the churches in town will be beautifully decorated, that the music will be exceptionally sweet, and the other services particularly appropriate to the occasion. The Sunday Schools will also be seen and heard from—some of them at least.

— The Woburn Equal Suffrage League met in the reading room of the Baptist church last Monday evening. There was a goodly attendance of members and the meeting was especially interesting. An account of the month's progress compiled by Miss H. R. Hudson, was read by Miss Johnson. Mrs. Martha Sewall Curtis spoke on "The Present Political Status of Women in the United States." The President Mrs. Emma P. Kelley, then read a part of the Constitution of the United States and gave an interesting explanation of the difficult points. A committee was appointed to canvas the town for the purpose of obtaining women voters and securing signatures to the suffrage petition.

— The Ladies Charitable Society of the Unitarian church can a little short of beans at their monthly supper last week, the reason of which was that a Salem street gentleman dropped a pot of beans on them on Main street sidewalk. He knew a great deal better how to carry a pot of beans than his wife did so instead of putting it into a hand-basket and taking the delicious edibles to the meeting house in good shape he insisted on trying a string around it and carrying it in that way. This would save a good deal of time and trouble, but he knew all about it and was grieved to say that the beans were far from being reliable guides in such weighty matters.

— The booths for the sale of goods were built close to the walls on two sides of Lyceum Hall, and in a variety of decoration looked well. An Art Table presided over by Mrs. Benjamin Champney drew crowds of people and a good many purchasers. It contained handsome oil paintings, etchings, hand-decorated china, brie-a-brac, etc., and was an attractive feature of the hall. The Peanut Stand in the corner ably conducted by a young lady, and the popcorn stand at which two bright little girls presided, were popular resorts all through the Fair and earned much money for it. A beautifully arranged and filled Confectionary Table was the rallying point of a great many visitors, and kitchen wares, household furnishings, fine needle work, and other booths were crowded with interested and purchasing visitors nearly all the time. The Dolls' Reception was a jolly nice thing and coined mints of money.

— The Ladies Charitable Society of this town will hold a convention in the Y. M. C. A. Hall April 8, 9, and 10. Ministers of the Gospel from near and abroad are expected to be present. The meetings are to be held as follows: Friday, 7 P. M.; Saturday, 11:30 A. M., 2:30 and 7 P. M.; Sunday, 10:30 A. M., 3:30, and 6 P. M. All are invited to come.

— The Scandinavian Evangelical Society of this town will hold a convention in the Y. M. C. A. Hall April 8, 9, and 10. Ministers of the Gospel from near and abroad are expected to be present. The meetings are to be held as follows: Friday, 7 P. M.; Saturday, 11:30 A. M., 2:30 and 7 P. M.; Sunday, 10:30 A. M., 3:30, and 6 P. M. All are invited to come.

— The Ladies Charitable Society of the Unitarian church can a little short of beans at their monthly supper last week, the reason of which was that a Salem street gentleman dropped a pot of beans on them on Main street sidewalk. He knew a great deal better how to carry a pot of beans than his wife did so instead of putting it into a hand-basket and taking the delicious edibles to the meeting house in good shape he insisted on trying a string around it and carrying it in that way. This would save a good deal of time and trouble, but he knew all about it and was grieved to say that the beans were far from being reliable guides in such weighty matters.

— The booths for the sale of goods were built close to the walls on two sides of Lyceum Hall, and in a variety of decoration looked well. An Art Table presided over by Mrs. Benjamin Champney drew crowds of people and a good many purchasers. It contained handsome oil paintings,

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS. Good Fur Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,

148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

BURLINGTON.

Mr. Edwin A. Bennett lost a valuable cow this week.

News has just reached us of the death of Mr. George Bennet, at his home, Wednesday morning.

The Literary Union will give an entertainment, in the Town Hall next Wednesday evening. The gentlemen will present a burlesque of "The Merchant of Venice." Supper will be served by the ladies. Admission 15 cents, supper tickets, 25 cents. Proceeds for street lamps.

Best $2.50 MEN'S CALF shoes in the market, 4, 5, 6, 7 wide—Button, Congress and Laces.

Same in Boys sizes at $2.00. Splendid Variety of Men's fine VEAL CALF shoes, 4, 5, 6 wide; Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toe and plain, and various styles in men's boots, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50. S. M. F. E. W. wide, Smith's American Kid, $2.50. Phelan's Kid and Goat boots, C, D, E, $2.00.

All kinds of REPAIRS done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on Ladies fine Kid Boots: also New goring and stitching in every part, $2.00.

WOBURN: DOUGLAS, JOHNSON, WHITE, MAN, KEystone, FRANKLIN, WALK, ENPHAST, in 4 widths—3, 4, 5, 6 wide.

Mr. George Skelton gives an interesting account of the first cultivated strawberries produced in this town which were raised by his father, the Rev. Mr. Wyman Skelton. These berries carefully hulled and packed in boxes, with a grape leaf at the top and one at the bottom, were often sold for sixty-two cents and sometimes for seventy-five cents a box. The variety was the "Pineapple."

BOSTON & MAINE

(From the Boston Record.)

THE WOMEN JOURNAL strongly endorses the idea of constructing a new railroad from Haverhill to Boston by the way of Woburn and the old Mystic Valley route. The Journal suggests that the Fitchburg Railroad is bound to the movement, and it is not at all improbable. It looks now like the Fitchburg and the Boston &amp; Maine, in which the Fitchburg will be fighting for its independence and the Boston &amp; Maine will be trying to force the Fitchburg into its combination.

(From the Boston Globe.)

It is a straight tip that the Fitchburg will not be drawn into any Boston &amp; Maine net.

Disagreements between these companies may be made useful to Woburn if due advantage is taken of them.

(Special Dispatch to the Boston Herald.)

LAWRENCE, April 4, 1887. A prominent stockholder in the new Haverhill &amp; Lawrence railroad, passing through here today, narrated a proposed deal between the Concord and Haverhill &amp; Lawrence made imperative by the consolidation of the Lowell and the Maine. By the proposed plan the Concord is to secure a terminus in Boston, and the Haverhill &amp; Lawrence and some others. It worked like a charm and aided the reform tickets just so much.

But no matter about details: Reform won the day all along the line, and our town will have a better government this year than it had had for a long time back. Read the following names and figures and see if you don't think we are right:

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN ST., WOBURN, MASS.

Unusually large stock of New Styles in DRESS GOODS and STRIPED VELVETS.

All the new styles in HATS, BONNETS and MILLINERY at the Old and Reliable Millinery Stand.

WINDOW CURTAINS ready for use at 35 and 50 cents.

The Election.

Under Art. 1 of the Warrant Col. W. T. Grammer was chosen Moderator. Under Art. 2 the salary of Collector of taxes was fixed at $900 per annum, and the Water Commissioners at $100 each. Voted to authorize under Art. 3. Under Art. 4 a committee of 15, consisting of T. H. Hill, J. M. Harlow, J. W. Johnson, P. McKinrick, L. Thompson, A. G. Ham, P. E. Tenney, L. W. Fowler, James Brad, C. Littlefield, R. Terrett, Benj. Hinckley, T. Morris, S. D. Samson, G. F. Jones, to consider the recommendations for appropriations and matters contained in Art. 9, 12, 13, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28. Voted that when the meeting shall adjourn it shall be to 7.30 o'clock p. m. April 12.

Below is given the result of the balloting last Monday for Woburn Town Officers. The vote was unusually heavy. A deep interest had been working the people up to a fighting pitch for some time, to which fact was largely attributable the uncommon size of the poll. It was union affair on one side, that is to say, a union of members of all political parties against a clique which had ruled the town for several years and never to its advantage. The taxpayers had put up with a condition of things for which they felt there was no hope of relief until patience had ceased to be a virtue and it was determined by them to make a strike for liberty this year. Agreeing with the idea of the JOURNAL, politics was eschewed and a combination organized which seemed to favor success. Republican, Democrat, Prohibitionists were taboo words in the councils of the friends of a reform movement and in naming candidates politics cut no figure. The advocates of honest and capable home government were in earnest and therefore not ciphers when it came to naming choice of candidates. By making concessions on all sides it was not so hard a task as one might at first blush think it to be to agree on a ticket that tax-payers and decent men could support, and two such tickets, with simply a change of one or two names, were put into the field on Monday morning.

The friends of municipal reform all worked in one direction and these in turn had the moral support of the women, and so substantially but one ticket was in the field opposed to the regular Democracy and the ring that has for some years been running the town into the ground. Not all the Democrats by a long way favored the Municipal Building cabal, but a great many of them voted for reform. Leaving William C. Kenney's name off the Democratic ticket weekend it by more than 75 votes, which was the plan two or three shrewd figures laid to kill off Hill, McDonald, Moreland and some others. It worked like a charm and aided the reform tickets just so much.

But no matter about details: Reform won the day all along the line, and our town will have a better government this year than it had had for a long time back. Read the following names and figures and see if you don't think we are right:

TOWN CLERK.

Montressor S. Seeley, 1,996

William P. Symonds, 67

Scattering, 5

TOWN TREASURER.

Edward F. Johnson, 1,071

James N. Dow, 948

Theo. G. Bouteille, 56

Scattering, 2

SELECTMEN.

James Skinner, 1,689

William C. Kenney, 1,533

William T. Grammer, 1,161

John W. Waters, 992

Thomas Salmon, 1,244

Michael Golden, 1,032

Hugh D. Murray, 1,062

Edmund C. Cottle, 1,028

P. Frank Kimball, 1,025

William Moreland, 980

David F. Moreland, 960

Jacob A. Ham, 916

John A. Doherty, 867

John K. Murdoch, 788

Charles McDonald, 774

Wm. R. Putnam, 68

H. Allen, 68

Phineas G. Hanson, 598

John H. Parker, 62

Patrick Donahue, 51

John P. Crane, 43

Leonard Thompson, 20

Scattering, 27

SINKING FUND COMMISSIONER, 3 YEARS.

Edward W. Hildon, 2,056

Scattering, 3

WATER COMMISSIONER, 3 YEARS.

John C. MacLean, 1,030

John C. MacLean, 743

Anna Pettingill, 419

Chas. B. Leath, 48

Rufus Pickering, 48

Thomas E. Kelley, 15

Scattering, 9

TRUSTEE, PUBLIC LIBRARY, 3 YEARS.

Oliver F. Bryant, 1,091

Matthew F. McDonnell, 897

Chas. B. Bryant, 80

Scattering, 9

AUDITORS.

John H. Rogers, 1,256

Frederick J. Brown, 1,092

Walter W. Noyes, 931

Edward F. Cassidy, 896

John A. Walsh, 619

George H. Brown, 135

Edward C. Leslie, 38

Chas. E. Rosenquist, 36

James T. Crosby, 35

Scattering, 9

SEASON.

Charles E. Tripp, 1,217

Edward E. Lynch, 861

COLLECTOR OF TAXES.

John G. Maguire, 2,050

Scattering, 9

CONSTABLES.

Edward Simonds, 1,864

Thomas Mulkeen, 1,329

John W. Waters, 1,156

John W. Powers, 962

Philip McKenna, 910

James O'Brien, 880

Hartley J. Tarr, 689

Edward E. Carney, 667

John C. Connelly, 656

John H. Nason, 63

Wilmot D. Nelson, 55

Wm. Breslin, 38

Eliphas Prior, 38

Chas. W. Dorr, 37

Scattering, 28

LICENSING.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Daniel W. Bond, 1,304

George P. Bartlett, 1,293

Cyrus T. Lang, 1,176

Jennie K. Adams, 1,064

Julia F. Ramsell, 1,059

James H. Conway, 916

Scattering, 4

MEETINGS FOR NEXT WEEK.

CONGREGATIONAL.

The pastor will preach at 10:30 a.m.

P.S. Sunday School Easter Concert at 7:30 p.m.

The usual meeting Wednesday evening.

Choir Practice.

Harter, Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a.m.

Young people's meeting at 6 p.m.

Hartley, sermon followed by prayer meeting at 7 p.m.

WEDNESDAY.

When a firm that has earned a reputation for honesty and fair dealing, announces that it will do certain things, no matter how extravagant their statements may seem to be, it is but just that before deciding that they are not to be believed, you investigate thoroughly the affairs of that firm, and if possible, do so in the case of B. A. Atkinson &amp; Co., and you will be convinced that not only are their statements true, but that your best interests are to patronize them.

THE ORGANIZATION.

The new Board of Selectmen met on Monday afternoon for the purpose of organizing.

Mr. John Ferguson called the meeting to order, which proceeded to business at once.

Woman's Column.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Col. Higginson, in his speech at the State House, the other day, said that "much of the indifference of women concerning school suffrage was due to the practical difficulties created by the law. All his own political duties did not give him as much trouble as the effort to keep his wife's name on the voting list, and he failed about every other year in that." Here is the secret of the indifference which is enlarged upon with so muchunction. Col. Higginson's experience is worth volumes of theories. If a woman with a husband to defend and assist her has so much difficulty in keeping her name on the voting list, what can be said of hundreds of women who have no male representative? Who is to blame in this matter? Nothing could be more absurd than this twaddle about the indifference of women, when every step has been made not only difficult but humiliating. When we know that two-thirds of all the church members in this country are women, while four-fifths of all the criminals are men, is it the merest nonsense to talk about "the influence of women in politics?" When we know, also, that nearly all of our charitable organizations are largely managed by women, is it absurd to say that "women are not interested in public affairs?" The majority of women do not wish to vote. Very well. Wen tell Phillips said that "the history of the world was a history of minorities." If so, why should we deny the ballot to the women who do wish to use it for the good of society? Why should we make a pretence of being generous, by giving them a right to vote on school matters, and then environ the right with difficulties which would deter any man from exercising it?—Boston Globe.

WOMANLY INFLUENCE.

It is often said that women would "lose their influence" if they were allowed to vote. But what is it that gives influence? Beauty, goodness, tact, talent, money, pleasing manners, social position—a hundred things, not one of which would be destroyed by the right to vote. Then, in addition, the right to vote itself carries influence, even when the voter has neither character nor brains. The tastes and prejudices of the most ignorant man are considered and deferred to by political managers, for the sake of their votes, while the wishes of the most intelligent women often pass unregarded, because they are not voters.

It is said "A woman can exert more influence by talking with her husband and friends, and teaching her children than she can by voting," as if it would be impossible for her to do both. After suffrage is granted, women will still be able to talk with their friends, and to teach their children; every avenue of influence they now have will still be open to them, and another very important one in addition. Nor is it likely that the opinions of women on public questions would be regarded with less respect by men than they are now, merely because the law had removed women from their present category with children, lunatics and other persons whose political opinions are considered not worth counting.

There is really no sense in what is often said about indirect influence being greater than direct influence, as if the two were incompatible. Every good man exerts both. He has an indirect power for good, by his character and personal influence, and a direct power for good by his vote. The latter never interferes with the former. There is an old story about a prisoner who had been shut up for years in a dungeon, receiving light only through a chink in the wall. His mind became weakened by long captivity, and when his friends proposed to tear down the wall and let him out, he protested. He said that if the wall were destroyed, the chink through which all his light came would be destroyed, too, and he would be left in total darkness. The fear that women would "lose their influence" if they had votes, is just as irrational. All the means of influence they have now, they would still, and one more besides. Whatever amount of influence and respect women now possess, they possess in spite of their political disabilities, not because of them.—Alice Stone Blackwell.

Twenty-seven years ago, Henry Ward Beecher, in a powerful lecture on woman suffrage, predicted that one of the first good results of the reform would be the removal of the polling places to more respectable quarters, and the increased order and civility of elections. The Republican Convention, which met at Topeka, Kansas, on March 7, expressed a cordial welcome to the newly enfranchised ladies, and adopted a series of resolutions, entitled "For the new voters," favoring safety and convenience of voters at the polls, and recommending their removal to more respectable locations. They also declare that no woman whose political duties call her on the street on election day shall be subjected to any inconvenience, or have any ticket thrust into her hand, unless she asks for it. The Boston Traveler says:

"This view of what is really the practical effect of the advocates of political enfranchisement for women will be more mortal if mortal that can refrain from a sense of triumph in this fulfillment of their long prophecies as to the better state of affairs when women go to the polls."

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "I have received so much benefit from Dr. W. H. Hill, that it is my duty to let suffering humanity know it." He has a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead three bottles of Electric Bitters and three bottles Buckler's Aronica Salve, and my leg is now as good as new. The amputations are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Buckler's Aronica Salve at 25c. per box by Wm. W. Hill.

A woman of Moitiers, in the canton of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, confesses to having caused a great many fires which have occurred in the canton during a long series of years, and that when only 18 years of age she strangled her husband, to whom she had been married about eleven months, simply because she was tired of him.

AN EXCESS OF BOREDOM.
A MILLIONAIRE TIRED OF LIFE FINDS A NEW KILLER.

A famous millionaire sat on the edge of a table in the Casino at Newport one night and stared at his boots in dismay. "Yawn!" he yawned, in an excess of boredom, as he raised his eyebrows and rammed his hands deep into his pockets. "It's slow; monotonously slow."

Two men in foppish attire smoked near a window, others sprawled in languid desperation in the deep armchairs, and an eminent stock speculator added drowsiness to it all by snoring with subtle but penetrating regularity in the corner. It was a sultry night, and the negro waiters mopped their black faces as they whispered to each other. The great millionaire could almost hear the lapping of the water in the harbor, against the sides of his beautiful steam yacht. His horses moved uneasily in the heat without rattling the big pole chain impatiently.

It was nearly midnight in the quiet of America, when nothing was going on! The millionaire kicked his horse pell-mell against the table and motioned to one of the waiters. They all scrambled forward in such haste that the oldest one slipped and almost fell. The great man smiled, whereat a wave of joy passed over the dusky group, and all three retired with teeth in full review. Who is unhappy when a millionaire smiles?

"Is the champagne well aged?" asked the man of means, good naturally.

"It is indeed, sah. Deh's bot le wuz froze dead hard."

"Bring me some."

With a smile, he poured it out, it was so cold that it dripped slowly into the glass and sent up a milk white mist almost as thick as the foam that raced to the top of the glass, while the dew gathered in beads on the bottle. The millionaire smiled gently as he gazed at the champagne, and then he glanced at the waiter. "Would you like to shiver, Thomas?" he asked solemnly.

"Oh, yes, there is." "Squise me, but I'm roasting, I am, I, I don't b'lieve I'll evah be col' again."

"I'll make you shiver in two minutes by the watch or I'll give you $50."

"Go ahead, sah!"

Without more ado, the millionaire took the champagne bottle and, in the other's hand, the waiter's cap, and, while the champagne dripped gently down the waiter's spine, then, watch in hand, he waited, while the loungers sat up and the waiters stood from the corridors with their eyes fairly starting from their heads.

"Don't you shiver, you fool, you'll get a cold!" he whispered to Thomas. "Fy! do I! I'll kick yo' head offen' y' body, shuh. Yo' got a chance ter pay me dem sev'ln dolahs now, an' if y' miss it I'll lam y'—I will for a fac'."

Meanwhile the writer stood there with pursed lips, staring eyes and clenched teeth, while the waiter's legs spread apart, while his breath came in mighty snorts. The loungers were crowding around with their watches in their hands making bets rapidly while the time was slowly away. Presently the millionaire shouted:

"One minute!" "Oh, Lordy!" moaned Thomas in a voice so powerful, so cavern, cavern by the sea. "I'm a goin', I'm a goin'!" "Remember dem sev'ln dolahs?"

There was an awful hush, the sound of the grinding of African teeth, a wild "Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by helpless chattering, and Thomas, still shaking from the effects of those Western words for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

"I would not live always, unless I could get J. C. Davis' Old Soap.—Peter Cooper.

Give me J. C. Davis' Old Soap or give me the string of beads."

"Huh-wu-whoo!" followed by the sound of me for me, but if you have a bar of J. C. Davis' Old Soap handy, I will take it home to Lucy—R. R. Hayes.

J. C. Davis' Old Soap forever.—Michael Donahue.

You can get her by J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1887.

The JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 190 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John Cummings, 24, Cummingsville, Samson E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be made in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

The Board of Commissioners as well as the railroads are meeting with many and serious obstacles in the way of executing the interstate commerce law, the provisions of which appear to be susceptible of as many different interpretations as there are interests affected by it. The first snag struck was the long and short haul feature of it, the operation of which the Board suspended for thirty or sixty days in order to find out its meaning if possible and see if it is capable of being enforced. After this other obstacles were met with and others still are coming up at nearly every step, and so many and great are the difficulties that will attend its execution that many business men have expressed the opinion that the law will fail to pieces and come to nothing.

It would be a good thing if the Massachusetts Legislature could be induced to hurry up and finish the bill which when enacted into law will limit the number of licenses to sell intoxicating liquors in towns and cities which vote to grant them to one to every 500 inhabitants so that it may receive the Governor's approving signature before the 1st of May, when old licenses expire and new ones are granted. Although this town could not be affected one way or the other this year by such a law there are many others that would be and they should not be deprived of its beneficial provisions any longer than is necessary. But the Massachusetts Legislature is a slow old coach and there is no telling when or if any other bill will be passed by it, if ever.

For some weeks past everything has been so quiet on Beacon Hill and the papers have been so silent about it that if one lacked positive knowledge on the subject it would be thought no Legislature was in session at the present time in Boston. It is not easy to call to mind a Legislature that has attracted so little attention and called forth less talk, which is complimentary to it or not just according to the point of view from which it is looked at. Different people will entertain different opinions respecting the character of our present law-makers, but it is probable that quite a majority will decide that they are not a body of very great men.

THE Record is making a gallant fight almost single-handed and alone against corruption in high official places in Boston. It is not a giant in physical stature, but it has never been whipped so they say, and the idea prevails that it can't be by any of the dishonest gang of Boston officials when it gets after them good and hot. It is just now giving them particular jesse on water metres, with a large stock of other kinds of metres and things in reserve for future use.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

T. L. Reed—Hans.
W. E. Carter—Piano.
T. H. C. ———
Pinafore Co.—Piano.
Z. W. Atwood—Found.
J. D. H. ——
E. F. Johnson—Station.
S. H. ——
L. H. Allen—Eggs & Sale.
C. E. Marion—P's for Sale.
G. A. R. ——
Mrs. J. H. Park—r—Opening.
Bd. of Trade—Annual Meeting.
P. O. H. ——
J. C. Buck—Old Folks Concert.
T. H. ——
Town of Woburn—Dog Licenses.
Bd. of Trade—Change in Constitution.
Town of Woburn—Dog License.
Winchester Savings Bank—Annual Meeting.

See notice of Shepherd dog found.

Mr. C. E. Marion of Burlington has paid a fine.

Col. and S. A. Grammer offer manure for sale.

Last Monday the Woburn public schools resumed work.

Those who use Reed's Burlington burns prefer them to any other.

"M" of No. Woburn wants to sell a cottage in that village. See ad.

The Winchester Savings Bank has a notice for annual meeting in this paper.

Mr. Houghton Allen offers hens' eggs for hatching—best breeds at low prices.

Particular attention is directed to the card of Mrs. C. A. Pierce in this paper.

Pinafore is to be given in Lyceum Hall next Monday evening and every body ought to go.

Mr. Charles H. Barnes, 512 Washington street, Boston, makes a change in his advertisement this week.

Pussy-willows have blossomed out on our streets in all their glory. Another harbinger of gentle spring.

Try one of Reed's Burlington burns. They make a fine relish.

For downright disagreeable weather and backwardness modern history can't show a parallel to this spring of 1887.

Young men should not fail to look over the stylish suits and overcoats displayed at Hammond's clothing house.

Mr. J. M. Ford has opened a hotel on Bennett street and named it the Woburn Hotel where he will be glad to receive a fair share of the public travel.

Messrs. John Connally & Son, boot and shoe dealers on Main street, have sold their business to some Boston parties.

Mr. Ex-Secretary Wilmot of the Woburn Y. M. C. A. has been spending a week or two here among his many good friends.

At the last meeting of the First Woburn C. L. S. C., Rev. Mr. Wright gave a very interesting address on the manufacture of paper.

Take time by the forelock and send your Manilla hat to Hammond's clothing house and have it put in stylish shape, ready for hot weather.

The Business Committee of the Board of Trade has been called to attend an important meeting this evening at its Chairman, Mr. F. H. Lewis.

G. F. Barton of Montvale offers some carriages and a bicycle for sale in our business column to-day. Some firstclass bargains can be had of him.

The infant found in Horn Pond last week was murdered before being thrown into the water. Investigation results in finding no clew to the murderer.

Miss Nellie E. Platts is preparing to give a piano concert next month assisted by a Boston singer of note probably, and Mr. F. H. Lewis on the piano.

It is important that everybody should bear in mind that next Tuesday is the 112th anniversary of the Battle of Lexington. Let the American flag float that day.

"The Musical Herald" for April is well filled with new music, fresh editorials, sparkling musical gossip and views. It is published by the Musical Herald Co., Boston.

Hugh Billingsley committed suicide by drowning in Frog Pond on the east side last week. He was of unsound mind having attempted suicide by taking poison last week.

The most stirring address delivered before the Reform Club for Sundays was that by the Rev. M. E. Wright of Woburn last Sunday afternoon—Winchester Star.

C. A. Smith & Son are enjoying an excellent trade in carpets this spring. People have found out that they can do just as well at Smith's as in Boston, and better in some lines.

The sober people of Stoneham are very well pleased with the Woburn vote on the license question. That nuisance near their cemetery will not have to be endured this year.

Last week the Board of Cemetery Commissioners organized for the year in the following manner: for Chairman, Judge P. L. Converse; Secretary, John Ferguson; Superintendent, L. L. Whitney.

Capt. George M. Buchanan and family have moved to Revere where they have secured a pleasant home and are nicely situated. The Captain moved there because it is harder to his business in Boston.

At a meeting of the Board of Selectmen held last Wednesday evening the bond of Edward F. Johnson, Town Treasurer, and those of Thomas Mullen and Edward Simonds, as Constables, were duly approved.

The next meeting of the Barbunk Relief Corps, No. 84, will be held in G. A. R. Hall next Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock. It is a very flourishing Corps, and has a large presentation of silver at their last meeting.

The Board of Selectmen will make a beginning on the more important official appointments next Tuesday evening, and only a beginning because the meeting will probably have to give way to the adjourned Town Meeting.

Mrs. Parker gives notice of a spring millinery opening in this issue of the JOURNAL. She always has something very nice and stylish to show the ladies in the line of bonnets, hats, trimmings, etc. at these semi-annual openings.

On Monday a burning chimney sent the firemen down Main street and they hadn't much more than back to quarters before an alarm at Montvale summoned them over there to put out a brush blaze. No particular damage was done in either case.

Mr. Harry Gould was thrown from his carriage while riding in Malden last week and considerably hurt. The wheels of his carriage caught in a rail of the street railroad which resulted in wrecking the vehicle and injuring Mr. Gould so much that he had to be fetched home in a hack.

Mr. Richard Terrett will learn early next week, by keeping his ear close to the ground, that it is very unsafe to put his trust in princes. He can't begin to make connections on the Chief of Police's berth promised him. A man of an entirely different complexion is going to have that "fat take."

Last Monday morning Mrs. T. Converse and her daughter Bertha of Sherman Place sent the editor a box of genuine 1887 maple sugar which was made at West Campion, N. H., where they spent last Summer so pleasantly. It was very nice—not much like "store" sugar—for which we return our thanks.

Last Wednesday evening Carter's stalwart Tanners beat the Witches of their own boots at Carter's popular Academy. The Tanners can secure third place in the League just as easy as eating custard pie. Now go in to win, boys. Will Col. O. J. Hart please to see it to that the boys go in to win and greatly oblige, etc. etc.

All the ladies in New England will be interested in the announcement that the subject of "moving house" will be treated on by Mr. James W. Clarke in the next Boston Sunday Globe. It will be illustrated and full of bright hits. The Boston Sunday Globe is still gaining and leads the Boston Sunday Herald by 30,000.

Baseball enthusiasts are filling the air with praises of the splendid reports of the Boston's games which the Boston Globe is giving. The Globe was the only paper in the country which sent a special reporter with the team on its Southern trip. Lovers of the national game cannot afford to miss the Boston Daily and Sunday Globe.

Mr. J. M. Ford has opened a hotel on Bennett street and named it the Woburn Hotel where he will be glad to receive a fair share of the public travel.

THE WOBURN JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1887.

One of the most generous and praiseworthy things about the great Fair for the Home of Aged Women last week was the present to the Congregational table of a check for $50 by Mr. William M. Miller. The hand some present was gratefully received and duly appreciated by the people of the Fair and for it Mr. Miller received, as he well deserved, hearty thanks.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any others in the League. Although they missed the pennant the Tanmers have been doing excellent work of late, and shown that they have skill and muscle. In the two or three games yet to be played at the Academy and some elsewhere it may be that they will crawl closer to the top of the ladder than they are now.

Mr. John Maxwell, whose tannery in Winchester was destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago, presented the Woburn Fire Department with a check for $50 for the excellent services rendered our boys at the fire. It was no more experimenting to see whether it is going to stand alone or not. It is said that Mr. Carter will probably engage several members of his present team for next season. It is a good team and contains some players that are better than any

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Soles receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS. Good Fur Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

Greatest Variety of $3.00 Shoes in Woburn: DOUGLAS, JOHNSON, WHITMAN, KEYSTONE, FRANKLIN, WALKER, EXHASTH, in 4 widths—3, 4, 5, 6, wide.

Best $2.50 MEN'S CALF shoes in the market, 4, 5, 6, 7 wide—BUtton, Congress and Lace.

Same in Boys sizes at $2.00.

Splendid Variety of Men's fine VEAL, CALF shoes, 4, 5, 6 wide; Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toes and plain, waranted in every particular, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50, S. M. F., FF, W. wide. Smith's American Kid, $2.50. Phelan's Kid and Goat boots, C. D., $2.00.

All kinds of REPAIRS done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on Ladies' fine Kid Boots:—Now getting put into all kinds of shoes.

AT LEATHES' buy your shoes for all kinds of wear. He has them all made from good solid leather; Please remember 201 Main is the street; Buy your shoes there and you'll never get beat.

WINCHESTER.

Miss Josie Fur bush is the new clerk at the post office.

The "Mistic" Canoe Club are talking of building a new boat house this season.

The Wedgemere Tennis Club now ask $10 of well-recommended people who desire to share its sports and privileges. Good price!

The grocers turned over a new leaf last week and now close their places of business at 6 o'clock every secular evening in the week except Friday and Saturday.

Your Uncle Nat Richardson has gone right to work on the highways just as though nothing had happened. He knows what wants to be done to make a good piece of road as soon as he drops his eye on it.

On the afternoon and evening of Thursday, April 21, the ladies connected with the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany will hold a kermess in Harmony Hall. The hall will be handsomely decorated. There will be booths of all nations, where can be bought many attractive articles, and it is expected that there will be dancing some time during the evening.

Rev. Mr. Fielden thinks that if our genial friend Mr. George W. Spurr continues to increase in popularity much more it won't be long before the town will have only one man to elect on Town Meeting day and that will be George W. Spurr. He is already Town Clerk, Treasurer and Tax Collector, and it looks as though he might be able to gobble up the rest of the offices by next year. But the people like to honor him by electing him to posts of trust and responsibility.

The Winchester correspondent of the Boston Traveller intimates that she-managan was played in the caucus before Town Meeting and that it compassed the defeat of Mr. S. W. Twombly. I guess there isn't much doubt of it, although the principal cause of his defeat was the over-confidence of his friends. Had they wisely taken into account the possibility of a considerable opposition to him in the caucus he would have been nominated by a vote of 2 to 1; but they didn't dream that it was all plain sailing and so the few opponents of Mr. Twombly slyly slipped in, found his guard asleep at their posts, and beat him. That's about the size of it. They beat a mighty good man for the town too when they beat Twombly.

MEETINGS FOR NEXT WEEK.

Baptist.—Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m.; young peoples' meeting at 6 p. m.; short sermon followed by prayer meeting at 7 p. m. Wednesday evening prayer meeting. Friday evening Young Peoples' meeting.

Nothing but the purest tallow of New England refining, treated with harmless chemicals used. Use J. C. Davis' Old Soap.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

FOR SALE.

Eggs for Hatching: Cross of Brown Leghorns and Light Brown Hens. 10 cents each. April 18, 1887.

No Distinction of Sex in the Right to Vote.
By H. N. JOHN D. LONG.

It is a custom among the Yankees people when any new plan is suggested, especially if it has been advocated for a long time and with great energy, to settle the matter in the only sensible way, which is, to put it to the test. Has it occurred to you that a great many intelligent people—whether or not you agree with them—advocate woman suffrage? Do you remember that the claim has been advocated for many years? Are you aware how easy it would be to settle this question by putting it to the test? Let me ask you whether you are aware of any injury from proffering suffrage to women to the extent already given? I think a good deal may be said for giving women full suffrage, but I also think it is for women to take only one step at a time, and to move now for step at a time, the community the average intelligence and competency of the woman is, at the very least, equal to that of the men. Some of the women don't know much. Some of the women would not vote if they could; and as many of the men do not vote, although they can. Some of the women would vote as they were led or misled; as many of the men do the same thing. Most of the women in these instances would, if they were voters, exercise the suffrage with care, conscientiousness, understanding, and advantage; and the men do no more. These same men and women meet together many times a year and engage in the same interests, not only in private life, but in public relations. If there is an industrial or agricultural fair or a village improvement enterprise, they are equally active. Both furnish members of the school committee, one as good as the other, not only in matters of instruction, but even in the way of schoolhouse repairs, and the grading of the grounds. They mingle in church meetings, and in this respect we all know that women are the salvation of the enterprise. They own stock in the same bank and railroad, and vote with common intelligence on their shares. They crowd into the same hall to attend lectures and balls. They go to the same theatres and unite in local dramatic entertainments, the women usually a little quicker at their parts. They hold office in the same savings bank and insurance company, the women subordinate clerks, to be sure, but capable, if they had the same business training, of any place. Most significant of all, they go to the same political meetings, listen to the same stump-speakers and, if a hot campaign comes, engage with the same acrimony and passionateness in political debate, discussing men and measures at the street corners, and fighting it out around the family table, the household not infrequently divided against itself. In view of this, what patience can be had when some hardshell tells us this is all so, but the heavens would fall, society would be ruined, the State would collapse, if the same women, once in March and once in November, should enter a decent town hall or ward room—all the more decent for their presence—walk to a ballot-box, and put into it a piece of printed paper expressing in concrete form the results of their previous consideration! I can understand well enough why one man should be afraid of ignorant suffrage and desire additional education qualifications; but while that test would exclude many men, who vote, it would exclude women who do not. I can understand why another might demand the test of property, or loyalty, or age; but every such test would still be without distinction of sex.

The question of woman suffrage suffers from its very familiarity. People have come to think of it as a hobby, a sentiment, an impractical dream. If it could be sprung as a new question, if, for instance, the right to vote were altogether a new right conferred on the people in this year, for the first time, there would be no more question of granting it to both men and women than of permitting both males and females to attend the public schools, or acquire and hold property, or do any of the other many things which both now do in common. On the contrary, the denial of the right of suffrage would then seem to be as violent an outrage as would now be the denial of any of these other privileges which they equally share. Or put it in another way—for, in homely phrase, what is sakes for the goose is sakes for the gander—suppose that up to this time suffrage had been limited to women and that no man had ever been permitted to vote except for school committee. Suppose, meantime, that men had developed their natural capacity for every department of business life and enterprise, and were demanding the ballot. How much nonsense do you suppose they, although in the minority, would stand from anybody who should answer them by saying that suffrage is not a right; that it is a matter of expediency; that there are too many voters already; that men were virtually represented already by their wives and mothers; that men had not been trained to the ballot; that to give it to them would result in the disturbance of families and endanger the home; that it would lead to violence at the polls; and that men ought not to be perverted from their sphere or distracted from their appropriate business of making money, raising corn, transporting freight, and all the great masculine concerns and economics of production and commerce? How they would roar the great truths of the Declaration of Independence, that all mankind are created free and equal, and that government derives its just powers only from the consent of the governed; and that whoever is taxed for the common benefit and affected by the making of laws should have a voice in the processes of taxation and legislation!

My trouble with this subject is that I never heard an argument against woman suffrage. I have heard expressions of honest and crusty prejudice, and the blunt "won't-haave-it." I know the conservative faintness that is tormented at the fall of a rose-leaf, and I appreciate the weight of the inertia of custom. But I never heard a reason urged against woman suffrage that was worth considering, or was not an insult to the understanding of a very small boy. There is some satisfaction in striking at an obstacle that is capable of being knocked down. But the opposition to woman suffrage is like a bag of feathers suspended in the air. You may pound it all day, and at night it is a bag of feathers still, neither ruffled nor moved.

Let us be honest and admit what we all know, that the real reason why the right is denied to women is because there is just trace enough of ancient barbarism lingering in our civilization to bar them out—the same barbarism that made women slaves, that made them beasts of burden, that made them pets and playthings, but that—thank heaven—is gradually passing away. The whole logic of the thing lies in a nutshell. Either women should vote or men should not vote. Why do I say this? I say this because human ingenuity cannot suggest a single distinction between the sexes so far as the right of voting is concerned. They are equally intelligent, so far as the intelligence to vote is concerned. They are equally competent to judge of the merits of candidates. Is there any doubt that the women of this audience are equal in these respects to the average voter, or that they are not as well prepared to pass on the comparative merits of Robinson and Prince, Blaine and Cleveland, free run and prohibition, civil service reform and the spoils system, free trade and protection, free and equal suffrage and fraudulent elections? Shall we trust the man who does not know the multiplication table, and be afraid of Mary Somerville, who measures the stars? Men and women have an equal stake in the government and laws; they each hold property to be protected and taxed; they alike have children to be educated, and lives and limbs to be made secure; they follow many of the same businesses and professions; they do much of the same labor, even to the extents of the barber's shop on one hand and the cook-stove on the other; they have each shown ability as queens and kings, as rulers and administrators, as revenue clerks and agents. Shakespeare evidently thought he was doing no violence to human nature when he made Portia not only an upright but a preeminent judicial authority. I am told that you will find many a street in our Massachusetts towns, on which the adult residents a majority are women owning property on which they are taxed for the municipal expenditures in which they have no voice, while the male minority not infrequently more than half are persons having no visible property, paying only a poll-tax, some of them the employees of the women, and yet by their major vote actually the controlling numerical element. The adult residents a majority are women, and yet by their major vote actually the controlling numerical element. The mere statement of this frequent fact is at once an illustration and a demonstration of the case. And yet in every such community the average intelligence and competency of the woman is, at the very least, equal to that of the men. Some of the women don't know much. Some of the women would not vote if they could; and as many of the men do not vote, although they can. Some of the women would vote as they were led or misled; as many of the men do the same thing. Most of the women in these instances would, if they were voters, exercise the suffrage with care, conscientiousness, understanding, and advantage; and the men do no more. These same men and women meet together many times a year and engage in the same interests, not only in private life, but in public relations. If there is an industrial or agricultural fair or a village improvement enterprise, they are equally active. Both furnish members of the school committee, one as good as the other, not only in matters of instruction, but even in the way of schoolhouse repairs, and the grading of the grounds. They mingle in church meetings, and in this respect we all know that women are the salvation of the enterprise. They own stock in the same bank and railroad, and vote with common intelligence on their shares. They crowd into the same hall to attend lectures and balls. They go to the same theatres and unite in local dramatic entertainments, the women usually a little quicker at their parts. They hold office in the same savings bank and insurance company, the women subordinate clerks, to be sure, but capable, if they had the same business training, of any place. Most significant of all, they go to the same political meetings, listen to the same stump-speakers and, if a hot campaign comes, engage with the same acrimony and passionateness in political debate, discussing men and measures at the street corners, and fighting it out around the family table, the household not infrequently divided against itself. In view of this, what patience can be had when some hardshell tells us this is all so, but the heavens would fall, society would be ruined, the State would collapse, if the same women, once in March and once in November, should enter a decent town hall or ward room—all the more decent for their presence—walk to a ballot-box, and put into it a piece of printed paper expressing in concrete form the results of their previous consideration! I can understand well enough why one man should be afraid of ignorant suffrage and desire additional education qualifications; but while that test would exclude many men, who vote, it would exclude women who do not. I can understand why another might demand the test of property, or loyalty, or age; but every such test would still be without distinction of sex.

Don't argue.

You cannot afford to waste time in expounding when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Consumption can be safely got rid of.

King's New Discovery which is guaranteed to give relief from Throat, Lung and Chest affections.

Drawl free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

As the spring advances, a large portion of Americans are prone to take something in the shape of a "tonic" to invigorate the system. A careful analysis of forty-seven samples of such tonics and bitters, many of them advertised as "purely vegetable" or "entirely free from alcoholic stimulant," has been found, by the analyst of the Massachusetts State Board of Health, and officially reported in the Boston Medical Journal, to contain all the way from seven to nearly fifty per cent. of alcohol. When offered to the public, as many of them are, under the guises of temperance drinks, and as specially helpful to "inebriates struggling to reform," they constitute one of the most insidious foes with which temperance workers have to deal.—Congregationalist.

The breath of a common catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust.

After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently entirely destroyed.

A constant source of discomfort in the throat is the persistent secretion of a thick, viscid mucus.

Men, such as U. S. Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, are loud in their praise of St. Jacobs Oil as an instantaneous cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and other bodily pains.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpaired are possible only with pure blood.

Leading medical authorities endorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood-purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hand and brain.

A swell affair—inflate a balloon.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deadly Illnesses, Spells, &c., which can only be cured by SULPHUR BITTERS, it will cure you.

$1,000 will be paid for a case of SULPHUR BITTERS.

The Giant Dispenser, which contains 1000 fl. oz. of SULPHUR BITTERS, will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Operatives who are closely confined in their work, Clerks, who impairs health by not picture sufficient exercise, and Sorely Rely on the SULPHUR BITTERS, will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Cleanse the vitiated blood, which is the cause of all the evil, and cure the skin, and the body, and the health will follow.

Guaranteed to cure all diseases, which are caused by the vitiated blood, and cure the skin, and the body, and the health will follow.

SULPHUR BITTERS will cure all diseases, which are caused by the vitiated blood, and cure the skin, and the body, and the health will follow.

Don't be without a Sulphur Bitter, it will keep you young and well.

Sulphur Bitters. Send two 3c. stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Woburn, Mass., and receive an elegant set of fancy cards free.

Our Dumb Friends.

There are no animals about which so many stories have been told as they monkey. All the tricks and rascallities of the animal kingdom have been laid at their door. The Englishman who wrote to his correspondent in Rio Janeiro to send him 200 varieties of the monkey plant and forgot to write the word plant, and consequently received word from his correspondent that he had received and shipped 173 varieties of monkeys, and could procure no more, was probably thinking of their many blunders and tricks when he himself committed the blunder. Most of the stories are based on the monkey's power of imitation. A Spanish male-driver once invested his scant earnings purchasing a number of red woven caps which form the crown of the turban worn throughout Turkey and Africa and set out to make his fortune in the interior. He started before sunrise, and, when the heat of the day came on, lay down to sleep beneath a tree in a wood. Taking off his hat he opened his valise, and, putting on a red cap, was soon asleep. When the sun was high in the horizon he awoke, and to his horror, saw the trees filled with monkeys in red caps. They had put on the red cap before going to sleep, and followed his example. The poor Spaniard, with all the gesticulation peculiar to his country, cursed his hard fate, stamped his foot in anger and tore off his red cap and threw it on the ground, when—blessed and unexpected result—all the monkeys followed his example. He picked up his valise and moved on.

DESTRUCTIVE OF CATTLE ON THE PLAINS.

The following is an extract from a letter:

"Knowing you to be interested in the following, I will enclose a copy of the paper.

"I am enclosing a copy of the paper.

"I am

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1887.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1887.

The Journal is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horne, 180 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 185 Main Street, John Cummings, 24, Concordville, Simon E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

Whether the Cambridge city government is favorable to carrying out the verdict on the run question which the voters brought in at the last charter election or not we cannot say but last Monday evening a large meeting composed of representatives of the best social and business elements of the city was held to give expression to public sentiment on the subject and bring it to the attention of the Mayor and Council for their consideration. The city voted against license and from the fact of a meeting of the character of that mentioned being held, and also judging by the tone of its speeches and resolutions, it is to be presumed that the city authorities have failed to cause the laws against unlicensed rummelling to be duly executed and measures were deemed necessary to bring them up to the scratch and keep them there. The respectable people of Cambridge, and they are in a large majority, demand that illegal rummelling be put down—they are determined it shall be—and it was to let the Mayor and Aldermen know of this determination that the large and enthusiastic meeting was held last Monday. We hope such a meeting will not be necessary in Woburn during the official term of our present board of Selectmen. We do not believe that necessity for such a meeting will occur. The Board know what the will of the people is on the subject of rummelling; the town voted no on the license question by a handsome majority; the Board is composed of men who have respect for public sentiment—especially the sentiment of the best part of the public—and it is fair to presume that there will be no illegal traffic in rum here this year.

An investigation of the charges of corruption in the Beverly division has been instituted by the Senate and some testimony has been taken. Probably the Farm people were willing to "trade" a little with the other side and were made to believe that there were customers for them; but it was only a trap by the old town's folks and as such worked very well indeed. It is not likely that much money passed or was used by either side and the investigation will not amount to a great deal.

A few days ago there were some grounds for the belief that the high license bill now slowly advancing from stage to stage in the Legislature would become a law in season to do some good in towns and cities where needed this year. But it is now doubtful if such be the case.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
T. L. Reed—Fams.
Cyrus Ladd—Scouts.
S. B. Smith—Globe.
L. L. Whitney—For Sale.
W. A. Hanson—For Sale.
E. Thompson—For Sale.
Wyer Bros.—Eggs for Sale.
Gordon—For Sale.
C. A. Smith & Son—Business.
T. C. Evans—Thompson & Co.
Town of Woburn—Water Notice.

Burgess offers great bargains in spring goods.

Copeland and Bowser offer special inducements this week.

The 3.55 train out was 25 minutes late last Tuesday afternoon.

C. M. Munroe has a large stock of very nice spring overcoats.

Those who use Reed's Burlington hams prefer them to any other.

By middle of the afternoon Tuesday the snow had all disappeared.

The Globe Clothing Company's store in Troll's block is doing first rate.

Mr. E. E. Thompson advertises a good house at No. Woburn for sale.

Mr. Ford is doing very well as landlord of the Woburn Hotel, Bennett street.

Mrs. H. Seaver of Bridgeport, Conn., is visiting friends here at her former home.

Mr. Carter has engaged the Taners for next season's Polo tournament, or will do so.

Water Registrar Barrett has a notice in this paper which is important to certain water takers.

There was quite a refreshing rain-storm here last Saturday. It was cordially received by the people.

Edward Perry was severely scalded while boiling hogwood at E. Cummings & Co's factory last Monday.

Mr. J. B. Robbie returned last week from his trip to the Pacific coast, quite lengthy stay on the California coast.

Try one of Reed's Burlington hams. They make a fine relish.

Messrs. McLaughlin & Lynch have gone into the undertaking business at Bernard McHugh's 72 Main street.

W. N. Titus, Esq., has recently been appointed District Deputy of the A. O. U. W. for Medford, Arlington and Malden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings have returned from the Tremont House to their charming home at Woburn.—Boston Courier.

Dr. W. P. Dufresne of this place read a paper at the annual meeting of the Mass. Homeopathic Society held in Boston last week.

Quotations from a well known author: "Pretty Spring Prints 4c; Crinkly Seersuckers 6 1/4c; Indigo Blue Prints 6 1/4c."

The City of Malden is talking of taking steps to secure a legal right to take water from Horn Pond. You do it, gentlemen.

Read the card of Wyer Brothers, "Eggs for Hatching," in this paper. They breed the best fowls there are and sell them at a reasonable price.

Mrs. W. F. Kenney was assigned the contralto solo in mass and vespers at the Catholic church in Waltham last Easter Day. She is a fine singer.

Postmaster Read has several improvements made in the office since he took it. His motto is, "get the best," and that is what he is getting for the postoffice.

At the organization of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners last week Mr. Edward W. Hudson was elected chairman and Mr. Thomas H. Hill, clerk.

Rev. H. C. Parker, D. D., of Nashua, N. H., who preached at the Unitarian church last Sunday, will preach there again on the last Sunday of May next.

There is a loud call for residences again this spring. The demand is for a better class of houses than heretofore, a good many of which will be built this season no doubt.

The anniversary of the Battle of Lexington last Tuesday was observed here by running up the American flag and loosening its folds to the breeze, and thus it remained all day.

Personal.—Maud—Meet me at 2 o'clock at the Dress goods counters of C. A. Smith & Sons. They are showing the loveliest Spring styles in Ginghams, and you must see them.

Mr. S. R. Dulliver, wife and daughter arrived here from San Francisco about a week ago and will remain until September. They visit their old home here regularly every two years.

The Managers of the Association for the maintenance of the "Woburn Home for Aged Women" will hold their next regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, May 3, at half past two, at the "Home."

Rev. Mr. Wright was reappointed to the pastorate of the Woburn M. E. Church by the Conference last week in accordance with a unanimous vote of the members. He is a good man and we glad he has been sent back.

Trinity Episcopal church held its annual Parish meeting last Wednesday evening and chose the following officers for the year: Sen. Ward, N. W. Brown; Jun. Ward, Robert B. Eaton; Vestrymen, S. F. Trull, Charles Davis, Charles A. Sweetser, Lee Ward, James Graham; Treasurer, S. F. Trull; Clerk, C. A. Sweetser; Delegates to Gen. Con., R. B. Eaton, C. A. Sweetser, S. F. Trull. Funds were pledged for the church expenses for the current year. As soon as the arrangements are made Rev. Dr. Harris of Waltham will hold services in the church every Sunday evening until a Rector is secured.

Lewis L. Whitney, Esq., Executive of the will of the late Deacon Benjamin Mifflin, advertises this week to sell the real estate of said deceased on Pleasant and Court streets at auction on May 12 next. The property is among the most desirable in town for residence purposes and will doubtless fetch a handsome price. It is within two or three minutes walk of the depot of the B. & L. RR., equally as handy to the street cars which will soon run directly by the estate, the Public Library is less than a stone's throw away, and the site is as sightly and pleasant as anything can be. At its tax assessment the place will yield a handsome return as an investment.

At the semi-annual election of the "F. E. M." held last Friday evening the following officers were elected for ensuing term: President, H. E. Marion; Vice-president and Treasurer, W. L. Murdoch; Secretary, M. H. Cotton.

Gov. Ames has issued his proclamation setting apart Saturday, April 30, 1887, as Arbor Day, and earnestly recommends the people of Massachusetts to observe it in the manner intended. "God save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

"There's many a slip," said a gentleman the other day, "but it's seldom I ever have one of this kind." He had just slipped a five dollar bill back into his pocket that he had saved by buying his carpets at C. A. Smith & Sons, Dry Goods and Carpet house.

We owe our best thanks to Horton and Kelley, florists on Church street, for sending us a beautiful bouquet of roses, pinks, orange blossoms, etc., from their hot-houses last Wednesday, and improve this opportunity to publicly acknowledge the same. They expect to do more than ever in flowers this season.

Wont take Woburn people long to decide to attend the entertainment in the Baptist church, May 5th. Such popular artists as Miss Ella Chamberlin, the famous whistling soloist, Mr. J. F. Gilder, that favorite of favorite pianists, and our own noted elocutionist, Mr. Elmore A. Pierce, will be sure to draw a church full of people.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade for the election of officers, etc., which fell on last Tuesday evening, was adjourned to next Tuesday evening when the business will be done for the year. There were so many important matters going on last Tuesday evening that it was next to impossible to get a meeting together.

The residence real estate lately taken into market by Bryant and King near their factory, for the sale of which W. N. Titus, Esq., is agent, has already found several purchasers and others are negotiating for lots. A number of houses will be built on the division this season and will eventually make pleasant homes for a good many people.

Mr. Amos Cummings is going to give a symposium to the ladies of this town and vicinity as will be seen by his advertisement. These spring and fall gatherings of the ladies at Mr. Cummings' large, handsome and well-filled store has given much satisfaction and we doubt not this season's symposium will be as pleasant and profitable as any of its predecessors. Please see what Mr. Cummings has to say about it.

The change in Chief of Police was a great surprise to almost everybody. Mr. Nelson has made a good Chief and it was generally believed he would be re-elected, but Republics are just as ungrateful this year as any other. No doubt Mr. McIntosh will make a good Chief. He is a clean young man, well educated, bright, of excellent habits, and there is every reason to believe he will discharge the duties of the office faithfully and in the best manner for the town.

W. N. Titus, Esq., has recently been appointed District Deputy of the A. O. U. W. for Medford, Arlington and Malden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings have returned from the Tremont House to their charming home at Woburn.—Boston Courier.

Dr. W. P. Dufresne of this place read a paper at the annual meeting of the Mass. Homeopathic Society held in Boston last week.

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1887.

Quotations from a well known author: "Pretty Spring Prints 4c; Crinkly Seersuckers 6 1/4c; Indigo Blue Prints 6 1/4c."

The City of Malden is talking of taking steps to secure a legal right to take water from Horn Pond. You do it, gentlemen.

Read the card of Wyer Brothers, "Eggs for Hatching," in this paper. They breed the best fowls there are and sell them at a reasonable price.

Mrs. W. F. Kenney was assigned the contralto solo in mass and vespers at the Catholic church in Waltham last Easter Day. She is a fine singer.

Postmaster Read has several improvements made in the office since he took it. His motto is, "get the best," and that is what he is getting for the postoffice.

At the organization of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners last week Mr. Edward W. Hudson was elected chairman and Mr. Thomas H. Hill, clerk.

Rev. H. C. Parker, D. D., of Nashua, N. H., who preached at the Unitarian church last Sunday, will preach there again on the last Sunday of May next.

There is a loud call for residences again this spring. The demand is for a better class of houses than heretofore, a good many of which will be built this season no doubt.

The anniversary of the Battle of Lexington last Tuesday was observed here by running up the American flag and loosening its folds to the breeze, and thus it remained all day.

— "C. S. P." is supposed to be an Arlington editor. His comment on Medford, in an article elsewhere printed in this issue, shows that he is as cranky in the temperance cause as a Chicago anarchist is on anarchy. But Mr. Lawrence will see a compliment in his allegation—Riverside News. Reckon the JOURNAL's esteemed correspondent, C. S. P., can handle that without any trouble or help from over this way.

— Woburn has voted no-license by an overwhelming majority. This was to be expected on account of the abuse of license stipulations the previous year. There is liable to be a similar abuse in Medford, on account of the demoralizing effect of voting no-license, one year and license the next, and the business will have to be determined by a determined hand.—Riverside News. Medford ought to follow Woburn's example and be good.

— A colored citizen of Stoneham by the name of Charles Cephas was dangerously, if not fatally, injured while building fence with another man in Woburn last Saturday, by being struck by a sledgehammer. The hammer was in the hands of another man who was driving the fence posts which Cephas was holding, when the hand broke as the sledge was descending.

— The voters did right at the Town Meeting last week to instruct the Assessors to take a census of the town this spring. An enumeration of our population is wanted to base our application for a city charter on or otherwise as the case may be and it is important that it be correctly made. We hope the Assessors will make a true count and return not allow their individual feelings have any weight at all in the matter. The belief is general that Woburn has people enough to entitle her to a city charter and if the Assessors will be expected to report.

— Last week we respectfully asked Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they proceeded to do so.

— Carter's Polo team to go in and win, and forthwith they

BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

See receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS.

Good Fur Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,

148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Walton, Verney, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OF PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

Greatest Variety of $300 Shoes in Woburn: DOUGLAS, JOHNSON, WHITEMAN, KEYSTONE, FRANKLIN, WALK-EPIHASTH, in 4 widths—3, 4, 5, 6 wide.

Best $250 MEN'S CALF shoes in the market, 4, 5, 6, 7 wide—Button, Congress and Lace.

Same in Boys sizes at $2.00.

Splendid Variety of Men's fine VEL- CALF shoes, 4, 5, 6 wide: Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toes and plain, warranted in every particular, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50; M, F, FF, W wide; Smith's American Kid, $2.50. Phelps' Kid and Bow boots, C, D, E, $2.00.

All kinds of REPAIRS done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on Ladies' fine Kid Boots; also New goring put into all kinds of shoes.

AT LEATHE'S buy your shoes for all kinds of weather. He has them all made from good solid leather; Please remember 201 Main is the street; buy your shoes there and you'll never get heat.

WINCHESTER.

Rev. Mr. Perkins was appointed by the Methodist Conference last week to the church in this village.

Mr. S. C. Small has accepted an invitation to deliver the Memorial Day oration at Bethel, Maine, this year.

Henry F. Johnson is never quite contented and satisfied with himself unless he is stirring somebody up with a long pole and engineering a fuss.

Mr. Hemingway has got the streets to light and he will attend to that duty in good shape. The contract was awarded to him last week by the Selectmen.

There is trouble with Architect Adams' bill of planks of the new Town House furnished the first building committee. I should think Mr. Adams would like to have his pay, and he will probably be compensated, at an early date.

The Literary Union held a supper and entertainment in the Town Hall, April 13. "The Pedler of Very Nice" was ably represented by Messrs. T. S. Curtis, Wilbur McIntire, George Foster, Walter W. Skelton, Lester Skelton, Fred R. Hogan and Joseph Richardson. Readings were given by Miss Lizzie W. Foster and Mrs. M. E. S. Curtis, and the musical part of the programme was rendered by Messrs. J. S. Hutchinson, and T. S. Curtis, Miss Ida Tabut, and Miss Estelle Foster.

News From a Former Woburn Pastor. When we took up the Bloomington, (Ill.) Leader of date April 11, the other day almost the first paragraph our eye rested on the following concerning Easter services at the Unitarian church of Bloomington of which Rev. H. A. Westfall, late pastor of the Woburn Unitarian church, is the present popular and well beloved shepherd, and thinking his numerous good friends there might like to hear from him we clipped the passage from the Leader and transferred it to the columns of the JOURNAL:

UNITARIAN CHURCH.

Yester day the Uniform Rank of Knights of Pythias responded to an invitation given them by Rev. H. A. Westfall a few days ago to attend divine worship at this church. At 10.15 prompt the Rank filed out of the Assembly Hall on Centre street to Jefferson, and on Jefferson east to the church, commanded by Capt. F. J. Mazzolini. Seats were reserved for them in front of the pulpit. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and especially a number of large white potted lilies in front of the pulpit, which are so dearly loved by Custer Division. The quartette singing, which was rendered by Prof. J. W. Eddy, Wm. Miller, Miss Florence Eddy and Mrs. Miller, Westfall was excellent. As the Uniform Rank entered the church Mrs. Sherman played an appropriate selection upon the organ.

Rev. Westfall preached an excellent sermon, taking for his subject "The Risen Christ." It was one of the most eloquent and effective sermons this popular pastor has yet preached, and made a profound impression on all. The church was crowded.

After the return of the Knights to their hall resolutions were adopted by them and sent to Mr. Westfall thanking him for the courtesy he had shown to the members and order of the Knights of Pythias.

Everything which belongs to pure, healthy blood is imparted by Hood's Sarsaparilla. A trial will convince you of its merits.

The school board has organized by the choice of A. E. Wadleigh as chairman; Daniel March, Jr., secretary; James Russell, prudential committee; Dr. March and Mrs. Shepard, textbook committee; A. E. Whitney and A. C. Quinby, trumpet officers at a salary of $30 a year. These officers will also take a census of the children in the town on the first of May.

The following appointments have been made by the Selectmen: Field drivers, G. W. Purrington, Andrew McElhenny, W. H. Ralston, Joseph Moulton; fence viewers, Charles H. Duperre, Luther Richards; engineers fire department, Charles T. Symmes, A. Eugene Ayes, John Dix; police, J. W. Richardson, chief; night police, Thomas P. Dotten, Arthur C. Quinby; special police, without pay, Asa Locke, W. H. Ralston, H. W. Hight, H.

The following which belongs to pure, healthy blood is imparted by Hood's Sarsaparilla. A trial will convince you of its merits.

SYMPOSIA

AT THE

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

A social festivity over a fragrant cup of Tea or Coffee, on THURSDAY and FRIDAY, April 28 and 29, at any hour from 10 to 12 A. M., or 2 to 9 P. M., on which occasion will be exhibited the finest display of Trimmed Hats, Bonnets and Millinery Goods ever seen in Woburn. Every lady invited.

Take a run through our establishment and look at our fine stock of DRESS GOODS.

The Old Folks Concert.

The "Great Singing Meeting," as the Old Folks Concert at the Congregational church last Tuesday evening was called, has never been surpassed as a musical entertainment in Woburn according to the judgment of this reporter and the unanimous verdict of an audience surprisingly large when it is considered that many other interesting affairs were going on in town at the time. As a concert it was simply unapproachable both as to vocal productions and instrumental results.

If we have been correctly informed the idea of this sort of an entertainment had its origin in the brain of the esteemed organist at the Congregational church, Mr. John C. Buck, and if so it deserves the hearty thanks of our community for providing such a rich musical feast for their delectation. At any rate, Mr. Buck was one of the foremost ones in arranging for the concert although he was cheerfully and largely aided by many ladies and gentlemen of the town who had full faith in him. The immigrants of course earn more wages, but it does us no good, for they only use them for greater self-indulgence. The great question for us to decide is shall we let them Europeanize us, or shall we transform them into intelligent, helpful citizens?

The second danger is from the Roman Catholic Church, not as a religious organization, but from a political standpoint. It openly denounces free conscience, the free press and our system of free education. Another danger is from our vast wealth. If it should come into the power of an uneducated, brutal people this peril is indeed appalling. A fourth danger is from the fact the controlling legislative power is held by our large cities and when we reflect on the class of people wielding this power we can but realize the greatness of the danger.

The fifth is from strong drink. We all know this to be the most prolific source of crime and could it be only swept away, we might begin to see the millennium. We must not be discouraged however for there are signs of better times. If we only keep our system of free education, adding moral training, if the law can be passed allowing women to vote on the license question, if we break down the barriers between ourselves and the foreigners, and if we keep up to a high standard of morality, we cannot help but be victorious.

The next meeting will be held in the Baptist Church, May 6, at which time Mrs. A. M. Diaz will address the Club on "True Work for Humanity." — Rep.

At a promenade up and down the broad-aisles of the church the great choir repaired to the singing-seats when the exercises began and were kept up without the least abatement in the interest or pleasure of the audience until nine on 10 o'clock.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

About 250 tickets were issued for the reception and banquet all of which were readily taken by the members for themselves and their ladies and for distribution among friends with ladies. It was a notable affair.

As a society party it eclipsed in brilliancy anything that had been experienced here this season.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Board has become an important Woburn institution. It is recognized on every hand as a power for good, and at no time has it been so strong, well poised, solid on its feet, and in full influence as at the present time. It has safely passed the century of its existence and is always approaching the critical period or test of the self-sustaining ability of such organizations, from which it has emerged not only alive and well, but in better condition and with brighter prospects for a long and useful life than before.

The reception was held in the Ringers' Hall on Tremont Street, and took place at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Woman's Column.

Letter from California.
The "RAYMOND" So. PASADENA, CALIFORNIA, Feb. 15, 1887.

Two weeks ago, women in Kansas voted at municipal elections. They voted by thousands, and generally for morality and temperance. The Springfield Republican says, "The registration in the cities has been reasonably large and the new voters have gone into the active work of the campaign with a vim and spirit that has inspired the candidates on both sides with a wholesome respect. In Topeka, the Democratic candidate for re-election as mayor was summoned before a committee of women and put through a searching catechism. The mayor of Leavenworth has issued a special circular "to the ladies," protesting his intention to enforce the law. The new element in the politics of the state are looked upon as holding the balance of power and they go into the work with a clearness and directness of purpose that is refreshing. Almost universally their action has been according to the lines of these resolutions of the women of the state."

Wherever, the privilege of voting in municipalities has been granted, the women of Kansas; and, whereas, heretofore, too many men of doubtful honesty, sobriety, and immoral character have been exalted to offices of public trust, therefore,

Resolved, That we the women voters of Atchison, demand that only those men be nominated for city and school offices who are recognized as persons of honesty, sobriety, and good moral character.

Resolved, That we care less for parties than for principles, and political parties that expect our votes must give us clean men for whom to vote."

A bill requiring the appointment of police matrons has been reported in the Massachusetts Legislature.

The request for woman's attendance on women in stations is not based on any improprieties there, known or asserted. The situation is, in itself, an impropriety, and the request is based on that not on occurrences. The existing state of things jars with our notions of decency; it is contrary to the usages of civilization a relic of barbarism. If it has caused no wrong, * * * intelligent efforts, newly enlightened on the subject, exclaim in astonishment, "Can these things be? Women left to make attendance? We had no idea of it. Strange that the change asked should need to be asked. Do you say there is opposition? How can any one oppose? Which goes to show that the community probably knows more of the poor degraded Chinese women than of the thousands yearly arrested and held in durance vile at hand." *

Mrs. Chirpoff of the Intemperate Women's Home says she has it in black and white that of those brought under her charge fifty per cent. have been permanently reformed. Many of these were rescued from police stations, * * *

Now is the time for Massachusetts to set the example of a grand progressive movement, a movement by which this purpose of reform shall enter into the management of arrested men also. To say that any individual is beyond the reach of reform is to limit the power of the infinite.—Abby Morton Diaz.

Mrs. Clara E. Howe has been elected to the School Committee in Gardner, Mass., by the largest vote ever cast for that office in that town. She had served for two years, a half and discharged the duties so acceptably that there was a general wish to re-elect her for a full term of three years. Even boys went to the town meeting and asked for ballots bearing her name that they might distribute them.

The Montana Legislature has raised the "age of protection" for girls to fifteen years.

Mayor Hewitt of New York has asked the "staggering" question, why when the best teachers are women they don't get the best pay?—Boston Transcript.

Women are employed on the staff of more than two hundred newspapers in the United States.

John Wanamaker of Philadelphia proposes to build a working woman's hotel. A few weeks ago he signed the woman suffrage petition.

Senator Anthony predicted twenty-one years ago that woman suffrage is coming. "It is coming," he said, "with the progress of civilization and the general elevation of the race and the triumph of truth and justice and equal rights."

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists, Boston, Mass., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery Electric Bitters and Buckle's Aronia Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. These have been some wonderful cures effected through their use. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in conjunction with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by W. D. Hoyt & Co."

As demonstrating that fish have the power of communicating with each other and also possess a degree of intelligence, a writer in the American Angler says that he has seen on several occasions small bodies of trout following the lead of an elder and acting in accordance with its movements. On three occasions he has observed a school of carp approached by a single conger which ultimately conducted it to another part of the pond, where a considerable quantity of food existed.

The Mystery Solved.

It has always been understood that Consumption was incurable, but it has recently been discovered that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is giving more relief than any known remedy. It is guaranteed to remove all the symptoms of Consumption and Coughs. Call on Charles H. Bass, Druggist, Woburn and get a trial bottle free of cost. Large size 50 cents and $1.

"Every writer should absorb his subject," says an exchange. This applies to everything but the liquor question.—N. Y. Observer.

As a hair dressing up renovator, Ayer's Hair Vigor is universally commended. It exfoliates and truffles, cures eruptions of the scalp, invigorates and beautifies the hair, and prevents its fading or turning gray.

Literary Notices.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for May is on hand with its usual promptitude. Decidedly, so far, PETERSON for 1887 has surpassed itself. If it goes on as it has begun, this will be its jubilee year, in point of merit. This month's double size colored fashion-plate will be graced with extra eagerness by the ladies, as it contains several Parisian costumes wholly novel in design, and as graceful as they are original. The steel-engraving is a beauty, and the crochet and embroidery patterns are very fresh and taking. The stories, too, are exceptionally good; The Miss Liok is one of the best short tales we have read in a great while. In fact the number is just a mass of good things from cover to cover; artistic beauty, literary interest, and household utility are so well combined, that there is ample choice for every taste, and a certainty of pleasing the most fastidious. Terms: Two Dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 300 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ST. NICHOLAS for May opens with a beautiful frontispiece illustration, by B. W. Catherwood, of the Historic Girl whose romantic history is related by E. S. Brooks; while Nora Perry, in An Only Daughter, tells of a very modern and unhistoric girl, whose story is, however, none the less interesting on that account. How many boys who whistle Marching Through Georgia know the story of Sherman's March to the Sea? General Adam Wade tells it in the May ST. NICHOLAS, and it reads like a tale of adventure—which in fact it is—the biggest adventure in modern times. It is illustrated by Theodore Davis, who was with General Sherman on the march, and by E. W. Kemble, W. L. Sheppard, and W. Taber. There also begins in this number a three-part story of life at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, by a recent graduate. It is entitled Winning a Commission, and shows how the future Sherman's of our country are being turned out. There is also a collection of ST. NICHOLAS Dog Stories—one for girls, by Celia Thaxter; one for boys, by E. P. Roe, and three for everybody by other people. The Brownies go canoeing, perhaps a little early in the season, but none the less merrily. Rose Hawthorne Lathrop contributes a clever little story, called Lillie's Portrait, with a drawing by Frank Day; Alice Wellington Rollins has a bright sketch of a Rainy May Day in Central Park, illustrated by Jessie Curtis Shepherd; there is a droll account of Dolls' Hospital, by Hope Howard; and the first of a series of Child Sketches from George Eliot, by Julia Magruder. The serials Juan and Juana, by Frances Courtney Baylor, and Jenny's Boarding-house, by James Otis, contain chapters of progressive interest; and there are other contributions by Alfred Bremen, Frank Dempster Sherman, Joel Stacy, and others.

Cowardice is the habit, timidity the disposition.

The phrase brass band came into use about 1861.

Colored beads are in great demand for trimmings.

A tussle with a boarding steak is now called a "bull fight."

Capt. Charles Vernon has organized a cricket club at Cleveland.

Ned Hanlan is in active training for his coming race with Gaudaur.

The word colie as applied to dogs is derived from the Gaelic "colgach," and English, the Creole element being conspicuous.

We left the city, on Tuesday, via Galveston and Houston, Texas, by the way, reached San Antonio, on Thursday, Jan. 27. We inspected the Alamo, where Santa Anna cruelly slaughtered Travis, Davy Crockett, Evans, and their little band of patriots—144 men altogether while their besiegers numbered 400. Not one of the little band of heroes survived, and a shaft, erected to their memory, bears this significant legend, "Thermopyla was its messenger of defeat—the Alamo had none." * * * We were glad to get out of the wilderness and get a taste of Southern California. And what a taste! a taste of mercury from 36 to 50 degrees above zero, cold, damp and miserable. Before we came there had been no rain since last April. Real estate was "booming" in the shape of dust going at railroad speed. We reached here, on Tuesday the first instant, and on Saturday it began to rain, and it has rained for nine days out of the fifteen. This Southern California is a perfect paradise (or prison). Every town which we have passed through has been made up of two thirds real estate brokers and land sharks, the other third being composed of those poor fools who have been victimized and sold. The orange crop will be a poor investment, for how much profit is there in raising the fruit at $1.00 a box of 200 oranges? It will not take much of a prophet to foretell what the gain will be, after waiting six years for the trees to bear, digging about every tree and irrigating, the expense of gathering, boxing and shipping, the taxes and such. Why your eagerness to sell? Why don't you profit by these great investments? The San Gabriel Valley is a most beautiful spot, surrounded by snow-capped mountains, some of them, the Sierra Madre range, being 5000 feet above the level of sea. You will see by the enclosed bill of fare that we have strawberries and cream—don't buy any, for they are not fit to eat, being sour, green-looking, and entirely flavorless. Things grow fast here, for in five years, you can have an orange grove, lemon grove, apricots, etc., all grown, and the cypress hedge grown to look as if it was 20 years old. There is a grove of Eucalyptus trees set out not five years ago, and they are as large as our trees would be, planted twenty years ago.

I cannot say I like California. Before we came here it was over 90 degrees in the shade and since we have been here the mercury has not got above 60 degrees on the warmest day. These elanges are too great for a climate that has been so much praised. In the summer time it is "hot enough to roast eggs," and in the winter time it is wet enough to drown ducks. It is good weather for ducks but only a goose will be caught here the second time.

WARD BROOKS FROTHINGHAM.

E. Barnes, 344 Fourth Ave., New York,

"I have used Adamson's Balsam, as have also some of my personal friends. We found it the best remedy to be had for colds and colds."

GREETING.

WHEREAS, Edward F. Johnson, Administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court his petition for license to sell the payment of debts and charges of administration, and for other reasons set forth in said petition; and

WHEREAS, Edward F. Johnson, Administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court his petition for license to sell the payment of debts and charges of administration, and for other reasons set forth in said petition; and John L. Sullivan's aggregation of slingers are lining the pockets of both Pat Sheedy and the champion with gold.

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

In England no one but the queen has a "bed-chamber," while in this country almost any room with a bed in it is called a bed-chamber.

GREETING.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, 40

GREETING.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1887.

THE JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 195 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John Cummings, 2d, Cummingsville, Sam'l E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Woburn.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

IT is doubtful if a more inefficient body of law-makers than the present has occupied a seat under the gilded dome at Boston in modern times. Massachusetts has had some pretty poor Legislatures in her day but good judges of the article pronounce the one now in session the cap-sheaf. The trouble seems to be with the Senate. The House has originated many useful and important measures and put them through with commendable speed only to have them killed in the Senate. The House keeps right along up with the times in matters of law-making and it the same could be truthfully said of the other branch the State might possibly have something in the shape of statutes to be thankful for when the Legislature gets through with its work next summer. By reason of ignorance, timidity or general cussedness the Senate has thrown out or otherwise made way with all bills that have come before it for the promotion of the temperance cause which is enough to condemn it utterly, to say nothing of the Beverley division it just now rests under, and other things quite as serious and worthy of investigation. The Tenement-house bill was killed in the Senate, so was the Woman's Municipal Suffrage bill, and the constitutional prohibitory amendment and License Limitation bill shared the same fate. These were all measures of the first importance, wanted and asked for by a large majority of the people of the State, and yet they were slaughtered by the Senate, the labors of the House brought to naught, and the friends and advocates of temperance mocked. As in this particular so in others the upper house of the present Legislature has been indifferent to public sentiment, ignorant, or some thing worse.

TO-morrow will be Arbor Day duly set apart by Gov. Ames by proclamation in compliance with a law enacted last year, and he hopes it will be properly observed in letter and spirit. The proclamation contains this passage which will be heartily approved by all patriotic people of our beloved Commonwealth: "Especially do I suggest that in every town and city of the Commonwealth some street or other public way be selected, and that therein be planted trees in memory of those who died for the preservation of their country, that each of these heroes may have a living memorial which year by year shall increase in magnitude and in beauty."

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
T. L. Reed—Hans.
W. H. Cummings—Sale
S. B. Goddard—For Sale.
D. C. Hanson—For Sale.
The Novelty Co.—Canoes.
A. M. C. A.—Entertainment.
Lansdowne—Entertainment.
Unitarian Soc'y—May Party.
M. C. A.—Entertainment.
Friday Night Club—Entertainment.
Young Woburn Ass'n—Notice.
J. T. Freedman & Co.—Machine Forging.

Stoves stored for the season by C. M. Stout.

Mr. H. N. Conn offers some good house lots for sale.

It has not been any warmer than the law allows this week.

Tons of T. L. Reed's Burling-ton hairs, they make a fine relish.

Capt. Simonds was presented with an elegant easy-chair by the Phalanx last evening.

McGory's saloon on Broad street was robbed of some beer and cigars a few nights since.

Mr. Greenwood is preparing to build two Queen Ann cottages on Greenward Avenue.

Read William Wm. & Co.'s advertisement of sale of Mrs. A. P. Richardson's real estate.

John Boyle has been appointed Highway Surveyor, or Street Commissioner by the Committee on Highways.

There was a new moon last Saturday and it was a "wet" one, so look out for a plenty of rain this month.

Notice in our advertising columns that Mr. W. P. Cutler offers a nearly new, firstclass parlor organ for sale.

Those who use the T. L. Reed's Burlington hairs prefer them to any other.

Baldwin's Band, celebrated for its splendid music, will play at the Phalanx in Lyceum Hall this evening.

T. P. McGowan of the Boston Pilot was in town this week soliciting subscriptions for that excellent paper.

When Mrs. C. A. Pierce advertises that she is closing out she means business. Read her card in this paper.

Major McDonald has returned from Cincinnati and it is said his family have come to stay. Hope so.

The ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. propose to hold a strawberry festival on the evening of Decoration Day.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade next Tuesday evening at the Board's Room.

The sprinkling of the streets by Charlie Buckley of late has been highly commended by those who have reaped benefits from it.

The entertainment to be given at the Unitarian church by the Friday Night Club on the 6th prox. will be worth attending.

Mr. Cyrus Lamb is engaged in the manufacture of door and window screens of the best quality which he offers to sell very low.

There will be a supper and entertainment at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, May 3rd. It should be liberally patronized.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the Young Men's room of the Baptist Church, on Monday, May 2, at 3 P. M.

The May Party at Lyceum Hall this evening will eclipse in beauty and elegance all former efforts of the Unitarians in this direction.

The Unitarians will give their annual May Party in Lyceum Hall this evening, Baldwin's famous Orchestra will furnish the music.

The Stoneham Street Railroad Company has petitioned the Legislature to have its name changed to Eastern Middlesex Street Railroad Co.

Mr. Robert Duncan, proprietor of the large currying establishment near No. Warren street, has been South for rest and recuperation.

We advise everyone who can conveniently do so to attend the Friday Night Club's entertainment at the Unitarian church next Friday evening.

As a lightning charcoal sketcher Prof. Mohr, who will give an entertainment in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. next Monday evening, can't be beaten.

Messrs. Skinner & Co. are putting in foundations for a large addition to their leather establishment which is already one of the most extensive in town.

There was another rain storm last Saturday night which was followed by the melodious croak of the frog and a snow storm on Tuesday. This spring beats them all.

Let it escape the eye of some reader of the JOURNAL, which is not probable, we direct attention to an article about a circuit railroad published in another column.

The hen-roosts of Rag Rock have been visited this week by dogs or some other animals and the life of a large number of valuable fowl have been compelled to be sold.

Capt. George A. Simonds of the Mechanic Phalanx resigned some two weeks ago or more and the Company held an election last evening at the Armory to fill the vacancy.

Curtis advertises special bargains at his famous Bazaar this week. After reading his advertisement it would be a good plan to visit the Bazaar and look over the piles of goods there.

Messrs. Julius F. Ramsdell & Co., leading Woburn tanners, are making arrangements to enlarge their establishment this spring, which indication of prosperity we are glad to chronicle.

Clothesline thieves made several quite large hauls of women's underwear over at Montvale last Saturday night. No clew, although it is probable the thieves are not more than a thousand miles away.

Mr. Lawrence Reade has a card in this paper to which we direct attention. He has been an undertaker in Woburn a good many years and will continue the business in the same good style as heretofore.

Hurry up and get your money ready to pay for having your dog licensed next Monday. The Advertiser's neck must bow to the yoke on that day unless his pup dies before, which it would be a godsend if it would.

By their card in this paper it will be seen that J. T. Freedman & Co. have erected a building in connection with their machine shop and are now prepared to do all kinds of machine forging as well as other work in the line.

The contractors will begin work on the Stoneham Street Railroad early next week. Difficulty in getting certain irons in New York has delayed the work and the demand for them is so brisk just now that it may occur if the same are not promptly and successfully prosecuted.

Mr. A. A. Ferrin has established a neekie factory in Allen's block and is making a success of it. He employs several girls in the factory at the present time and if the demand for his goods increases, as is bids fair to do, he will soon erect a suitable building for the business. Mr. Ferrin also carries on his establishment for lighting oil-cloth goods. Both of these are worthy of the good graces of the Board of Trade and are likely to grow into extensive manufacturers.

The contractors will begin work on the Stoneham Street Railroad early next week. Difficulty in getting certain irons in New York has delayed the work and the demand for them is so brisk just now that it may occur if the same are not promptly and successfully prosecuted.

Mr. A. A. Ferrin has established a neekie factory in Allen's block and is making a success of it. He employs several girls in the factory at the present time and if the demand for his goods increases, as is bids fair to do, he will soon erect a suitable building for the business. Mr. Ferrin also carries on his establishment for lighting oil-cloth goods. Both of these are worthy of the good graces of the Board of Trade and are likely to grow into extensive manufacturers.

The last public entertainment of the Friday Night Club for the present season will be given at the Vestry of the Unitarian Church on Friday evening, May 6, and it is the intention of the management to make it one of the best that the Club has presented. An interesting and novel feature of the programme will be "The Cradle Songs of Many Nations." They will be sung by Mrs. S. C. Phinney, and illustrated by tableau on the stage. The second part will consist of the new and second commedietta, "Young Mr. Pritchard" which will be cast as follows:

Henry Pritchard, Mr. Wm. F. Davis, Edith, Miss F. Alfreda Johnson, Miss Hetty, Miss Edith Platts, Miss Betty, Miss Alice Grammer.

The price of admission will be fifteen cents.

The Chautauqua Circle was, for a wonder, deprived, last Tuesday evening, of its accustomed Secretary, Miss Nellie E. Hayward, who was absent from town on a visit. Her place was very efficiently filled by Miss Skinner.

Henry Pritchard, Mr. Wm. F. Davis, Edith, Miss F. Alfreda Johnson, Miss Hetty, Miss Edith Platts, Miss Betty, Miss Alice Grammer.

The Chautauqua Circle was, for a wonder, deprived, last Tuesday evening, of its accustomed Secretary, Miss Nellie E. Hayward, who was absent from town on a visit. Her place was very efficiently filled by Miss Skinner.

Henry Pritchard, Mr. Wm. F. Davis, Edith, Miss F. Alfreda Johnson, Miss Hetty, Miss Edith Platts, Miss Betty, Miss Alice Grammer.

The Chautauqua Circle was, for a wonder, deprived, last Tuesday evening, of its accustomed Secretary, Miss Nellie E. Hayward, who was absent from town on a visit. Her place was very efficiently filled by Miss Skinner.

The Chautauqua Circle was, for a wonder, deprived, last Tuesday evening, of its accustomed Secretary, Miss Nellie E. Hayward, who was absent from town on a visit. Her place was very efficiently filled by Miss Skinner.

The ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. propose to hold a strawberry festival on the evening of Decoration Day.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade next Tuesday evening at the Board's Room.

The sprinkling of the streets by Charlie Buckley of late has been highly commended by those who have reaped benefits from it.

Mr. Elmore A. Pierce has been heard in miscellaneous readings in Woburn for over six years. During that time he has made great improvement and has read before some of the largest and most select audiences in the country. All should hear him at the Baptist church, Thursday evening, May 5.

Col. Grammer was a committee appointed by the Board of Selectmen to move the hydrant standing east of the Common, under the great elm, back where it was taken from some years ago. It was dangerous to teams as located before this change, too near the street railroad tracks, and an eye-sore to the great Charitable Mechanics Fair held in Boston three or four years ago.

We call especial attention to the announcement of the Y. M. C. A. of an entertainment to be given by Prof. Mohr under the auspices of the Association in their Hall, on next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

It is safe to say that it will be a good one for Prof. Mohr has no peers in his combined line of amusements.

The frequenters of the great Charitable Mechanics Fair held in Boston three or four years ago will remember the exhibitions given by the Professor to thousands of people and the fun and pleasure those exhibitions gave, and he is better now than then if such a thing can be. But he is sure and attend this entertainment of the Y. M. C. A.

Lewis L. Whitney, Esq., Executor of the will of the late Deacon Benjamin Miller, advertises this week to sell the real estate of said deceased on Pleasant and Court streets at auction on May 12, next.

The property is among the most desirable in town for residence purposes and will doubtless fetch a handsome price.

It is within two or three miles walk of the depot of the B. & L. RR., equally as handy to the street cars which will soon run directly to the estate, the Public Library is less than a stone's throw away, and the site is as sightly and pleasant as anything can be.

At its tax assessment the place will yield a handsome return as an investment.

Lewis L. Whitney, Esq., Executor of the will of the late Deacon Benjamin Miller, advertises this week to sell the real estate of said deceased on Pleasant and Court streets at auction on May 12, next.

The property is among the most desirable in town for residence purposes and will doubtless fetch a handsome price.

It is within two or three miles walk of the depot of the B. & L. RR., equally as handy to the street cars which will soon run directly to the estate, the Public Library is less than a stone's throw away, and the site is as sightly and pleasant as anything can be.

At its tax assessment the place will yield a handsome return as an investment.

—A petition is in circulation asking the Selectmen to reappoint Mr. Fred B. Leeds Inspector of Milk and Vinegar. He filled the office two or three years to the satisfaction of everyone, at little more than nominal expense to the town, and it was a great surprise to almost everybody when the Board appointed the Chief of Police, who does not and is not supposed to know anything about the inspection of milk and vinegar, to the responsible position.

A faithful discharge of the duties of the office by Mr. Leeds has raised the average standard of milk in this town, regular degrees and has been of great value to the consumers. Besides all which to make the Chief of Police the Inspector will cost the town a great deal more for tests and inspection than it has during the last two years.

At the regular meeting of the School Board held last Tuesday evening all the members were present except Harlow, Aldrich and Trull.—Voted.

That all teachers who wished to attend the 34th annual meeting of the Middlesex Teachers Association to be held at Horticultural Hall on April 29 and 30 might close their schools and do so; if any did not want to attend they must stay at home and teach.—Mr. Marshall was instructed to purchase music for the High School annual exhibition; and it was decided to hire an orchestra for that occasion.—The Salary of the Trustee Officer was fixed at $400 per annum.—The communication received from Mr. Martin Hayward after noon, which was highly enjoyed by her and the dozen or more youthful guests. The hours were pleasantly spent in games, music, recitations, etc., and at a suitable hour a nice supper was served and partaken of by the girls. These donkey parties are quite the style just now.

The cannon presented to Woburn by the general government ought to be placed on the corners of the Common, outside of the rail, after the picket enclosures, put there to preserve the greenward, are removed. They would look nice planted on those bits of lawn and would be safe from disturbance and harm as set up inside the iron rails. As far as I can see, it would be a good idea.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The cannon presented to Woburn by the general government ought to be placed on the corners of the Common, outside of the rail, after the picket enclosures, put there to preserve the greenward, are removed. They would look nice planted on those bits of lawn and would be safe from disturbance and harm as set up inside the iron rails. As far as I can see, it would be a good idea.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form. The stories were probably started by somebody who does not want to see McSweeney back on the scene again.

The talk about Chief McIntosh declining the office which he has been going the rounds this week had no foundation whatever. He had no idea of doing such a thing but made up his mind to stick from the start, and to that end he has qualified for the office in due and regular form.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street,

Woburn, Mass.

Sale receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS. Good Fur Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,

148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long ex-

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry, Black Walnut.

Winton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Wooden Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

Greatest Variety of $3.00 Shoes in Woburn: DOUGLASS, JOHNSON, WHITMAN, KEYSTONE, FRANKLIN, WALKER, EXHASTH, in 4 widths—3, 4, 5, 6 wide.

Best $2.50 MEN'S CALF Shoes in the market, 4, 5, 6, 7 wide—Button, Congress and Lace.

Same in Boys sizes $2.00.

Splendid Variety of Men's fine S.C.A.L.F. Shoes, 4, 5, 6 wide: Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toes and plain, warranted in every particular, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50, S. M. F. FF, W. wide. Smith's American Kid, $2.50. Pheasant Kid and Goat boots, C, D, E, $2.00.

All kinds of REPAIRS done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on Ladies' fine Kid Boots: also New goring put into all kinds of shoes.

AT LEATHE'S buy your shoes for all kinds of He has them all made from good solid leather: Please remember 201 Main is the street: Buy your shoes there and you'll never get heat.

WINCHESTER.

The Common is under the management of A. D. Hunt.

Emma A. Stone teaches the Hill district school with its five pupils.

Mr. John Maxwell has decided to rebuild his tannery at an early day.

The old round-house has been razed to make room for additional railroad tracks.

The Church of the Epiphany (Episcopal) cleared $500 by holding a kermesse, which was a big thing.

The Unitarian Society will give a May party on Saturday afternoon in the Church vestry. They will erect and dance around the May-pole and have a good time generally.

Hereafter, according to all reports, the voters of the town will be divided into "Ayer" and "Twombly" factions and fight for the supremacy in town affairs.—Globe. In a horn!

With the close of April Mr. Joseph D. Sharon will sever his official connection with the Unitarian church of which he has been the efficient and esteemed sexton ever since it was built.

Mr. Stephen O'Meara, editor of the Boston Journal, President of the Boston Press Club, and one of the brightest newspaper men in the State, gave an address on "Journalism" before the Fortnightly Club at 3:30 o'clock last Monday afternoon. He handled his theme in a way that could not help but be interesting.

Items of news and notices are frequently received at this office from Winchester too late for publication the same week and this is to notify our friends and correspondents down there that to insure prompt publication all notices, articles, items, etc., must reach us by the Thursday noon previous to publication day.—EDITOR OF JOURNAL.

The officers of the Good Will Club for the current year, recently elected, are: President, Samuel S. Symonds; Vice President, Lewis Parkhurst; Treasurer, Alice F. Symonds; Secretary, Almira Harrington; Directors, Charles A. Cutler, Edward Metta, Francis H. Nourse, Edward Shattuck, Mrs. L. A. Bradbury, Mrs. Charles W. Gray, Mrs. Fred Winsor, Mrs. Mary S. Spur.

Mr. Henry F. Johnson has petitioned the Selectmen for a special Town Meeting before May 1, to raise money for the Swanton street bridge expenses and

SYMPOSIA

—AT THE—

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

A social festivity over a fragrant cup of Tea or Coffee, on THURSDAY and FRIDAY, April 28 and 29, at any hour from 10 to 12 A. M., or 2 to 9 P. M., on which occasion will be exhibited the finest display of Trimmed Hats, Bonnets and Millinery Goods ever seen in Woburn. Every lady invited.

Take a run through our establishment and look at our fine stock of DRESS GOODS.

The Board of Trade's Annual Election

The regular date for the general election of officers of the Woburn Board of Trade was last week but on account of the consumption of time by the annual banquet the business was postponed to last Tuesday evening when the meeting again assembled and the election was held without hitch or delay.

After the transaction of a little more business the meeting adjourned.

A goodly number of the members were present and they were all prominent business men. Manufacturers, trades, the mechanic arts, professions, etc., were well represented and a degree of harmony and good fellowship pervaded the deliberations and actions which was pleasant to witness and share. It was a sure augury of grand deeds in the future and everyone felt it to be such. Up to the hour of making a choice of new officers President F. A. Flint occupied the chair and Secretary H. N. Conn was as courteous and obliging as ever. In the fore part of the evening several committees made reports and had them properly disposed of. The committee on annual banquet reported by its chairman, Mr. F. H. Lewis, which was very satisfactory and was accorded a vote of thanks. One thing it was gratifying to witness, and that was a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks to Miss Whittemore for her very fine readings—voluntary and valuable contributions to the pleasures of the annual banquet; and to Mr. G. Gage for the prompt and admirable manner in which he provided for the floral decorations of the tables, etc. They both richly deserved the high compliment paid them by the meeting. Miss Whittemore is a daughter of Hon. B. F. Whittemore, second Vice-President of the Board of Trade, and although young very few electionists can fairly claim to be her equals.

At last the hour for voting for next year's officers of the Board came round and it was found that the committee on nominations, of which Hon. B. F. Whittemore was chairman, was loaded to the muzzle and ready to report. Before this was done however and at the proper stage in the proceedings, President Flint staged his valedictory which was listened to with interest and warmly applauded at the close. The retiring President went lightly over the Board's history for the last year with which, considering all things and the many rough places in the way, he was well satisfied and had a right to be. A year ago he reluctantly accepted the responsible and honorable office of President with fear and trembling, realizing that the second is always the critical year in the life of such organizations, but, thanks to the kindness, courtesy, good will and helping hand of the working committees of the Board, the year had passed, Mr. Flint said, without anything serious happening to the organization, and he believed it to be much stronger now than ever before for having crossed safely the crucial year. He thanked the Board warmly for the confidence it had reposed in him and the honor conferred by making him its second President, and with the best wishes for its future success and usefulness, which he had no doubt would be abundant, he was ready to surrender the Chair to his successor whenever it might be. The usual compliments paid to retiring officers were cordially tendered to Mr. Flint, coupled with regret that he would not listen to appeals to stand for a re-election.

Prior to this the Treasurer of the Board, Hon. E. E. Thompson, had made his report to the Secretary Conn because he was unable to be present at the meeting, which was highly satisfactory. It showed a small balance of cash in bank, and this after the payment of every debt known to be due from the Board. This was better than anticipations and with the statement the members were pleased. The committee on nominations reported the following list of officers, each of whom was selected singly by ballot and unanimously:

President, Parker L. Converse; Vice-Presidents, James Skinner, Benjamin H. Hinckley, Hon. A. C. Cummings; Treasurer, Edward Everett Thompson; Executive Committee, Eustace Cummings (Chairman), Nathan J. Simonds, Gilman F. Jones, Jacob Brown, John G. Converse, Fred L. Lewis, George B. Chapman, Andrew Hammond, Joseph B. McDonald, John S. True, William N. Thorne, William H. Smith, Henry C. Hall, Frederic A. Flint, Frank S. Burgess, John K. Marlock, Alex. Grant, Charles M. Frost, George A. Hobbs, C. W. Smith, B. F. Kimball.

Messrs. J. W. Hammond and H. C. Hall were appointed to adjudge the Judge Converse of his election to the presidency of the Board by a unanimous and enthusiastic vote, who proceeded to discharge that duty and soon returned with rounds of hearty cheers, and then taken up every man, woman and child should read and preserve. All of our readers are cordially invited to visit the new Globe building the next time they go to Boston.

James Pyle's Pearline is universally approved by those who use it for its admirable cleansing properties and the relief it affords in washing clothes. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Disparage and depreciation no one; an insect has feeding, and an atom a

The body is more susceptible to benefit from Hood's Cornish Parsonia now than at any other season. Therefore, take it now.

On motion of First Vice President Skinner, supported by a few remarks to the part of the Board and all the members present, so regard it.

Judge Converse was a happy move on the part of the Board and all the members present, so regard it.

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.;

General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Methodist.—Sermon by the pastor, at 10.30 a. m.; Sacrament, at 2.30 p. m.;

Young Peoples' Meeting at 6 p. m.; General Praise and Prayer Service, at 7 p. m.

Prayer

Woman's Column.

His Mother's Cooking.

By Lizzie W. Hadley.

He sat at the dinner-table.
With a disinterested frown,
The potatoes and steak were underdone,
And the gravy was too brown.
The pie too sour, the pudding too sweet,
And the roast was much too fat;
The wine was not good, and the coffee
Was hardly fit for the cat.

"I wish you could eat the bread and pie
I've seen my mother make.
They are so good, I wish you would do you good
Just to look at a lot of her cake."
Said the smiling wife, "I'll improve with age;
Just a little, and you will be a good wife.
But you're her has come to visit us;
And to-day she cooked the dinner."

—Good Housekeeping.

KILKENNEY ARGUMENTS.

Woman suffrage is unwise, because it will undermine the foundations of government.

Woman suffrage is wrong, because it will cause dissensions in many households.

Women are too emotional to endure the excitement of politics.

Woman is too good to be mixed up in politics.

Good women will not vote.

Woman suffrage is useless, because it will have no power to change existing conditions.

Woman suffrage is needless, because women will simply vote as their husbands or fathers do.

Women will be found utterly indifferent to political questions.

Women will be found even more open to bribery and personal influence than men.

This measure will impose an unjust burden upon many conscientious women who do not wish to vote, but will feel it their duty to do so.—The Amendment.

OUR GIRLS.

Probably there are few of us who have not, at times, felt a pang of mortification at the foolish conduct of young girls upon the street. You can see them sauntering and fro on the principal thoroughfares, half-a-dozen times of an afternoon, with that peculiar, careless gait which indicates that they have no business in particular to attend to; and sometimes, at their side or behind them, or ogling them from a street corner, you see the vulgar face of some flashily-dressed drummer, who has, perhaps, a wife and family of his own at home—too far away to interfere. You recognize, perhaps, the daughters of hard-working men, who can ill afford the slightest luxury, dressed expensively, gaudily (hence in marvellously bad taste), and apparently having no other occupation in life than to exhibit their charms to men that have as little sense as themselves. Ask these girls anything of that knowledge which will be useful to them in life, matters of house-keeping, literature, or general information, and you will find them sadly at fault; all their thoughts are on their beaux; their conversation is the petty local gossip of the town or of their particular set. You see with disgust the signals which announce an approaching "frightening," the handkerchief drawn at the opportune moment, the arch glances, the simpers, the tittering, and finally, the loud and foolish conversation; and you wish to heaven that if such things must be, they might take place in some more secluded locality. It is from these commenances that our broths are filled, and the life of the man means no harm, but the man does. Her head is filled with giddiness and vanity, and his flattery accomplishes the inevitable result. And the fault of this thing lies, not so much with the child herself, as with the indulgent parents who look with helpless sorrow upon her unaccountable waywardness, and at the door of society, which has not yet fully learned to inspire women with some other great purpose in life than the mere procuring of a husband.

How many self-sacrificing mothers are there in every town in America who assume, unaided, the whole burden of the household, cooking, washing, providing, mending—everything—and leave the time of their growing daughters unoccupied, to devote to their dresses, their music, their gossip and their beauties! The mother who does this, does a greater wrong to her girls than to herself. She plants in them a spirit of vanity and selfishness which has no place in her own nature. To amuse and gratify themselves becomes the great object of their lives, and even in the pursuit of amusement their minds are left wholly undirected. The deep pleasure to be derived from the perusal of the standards of our literature is untaught, and the morbid excitement of sensational novels takes its place. A long, healthy tramp through the fields is never thought of. An afternoon's saunter through the streets is substituted, not for the exercise or pleasure of the thing itself, but to meet the boys and show off their fine clothes. Few young girls in America know the keen pleasure and exhilaration to be derived from a five-mile tramp over the fields in the cool bracing autumn air. It would be a revelation to them to see the ruddy faces of English girls after a long walk into the country, returning with their trophies of wild flowers and autumn leaves.

The remedy for all this is not to be found in curtailing the liberty of our young women. Forebore restraint creates a stronger appetite for the thing withheld. The true plan is to open a wider field for their activities, to train them by experience to find that there is as much real pleasure in healthy literary pursuits, and even in the duties of household life (if their ambition is once awakened), as in a walk down street with the most attractive "traveling salesman" that ever cast sheep's eyes at them from the door of hotel or saloon.

Society is much at fault in limiting, both by law and by custom, the sphere of woman's activity. Men are restrained from much evil by the labor which they devote to some great object—the acquisition of property, reputation or power. Ambition is the great lever of industry, and work clears away the rubbish in a man's mind as much as in the world around him. But the inducements offered to women to be something, and accomplish something, are meager indeed. The doors of many fields of usefulness are closed; some by law, others by opinion. This is all wrong. Let the girl have an equal chance, and impose on her an equal responsibility. Society ought to demand of every young woman (just as it demands of every young man) that she should be fitted for some useful occupation, and then she ought to have the same inducements offered her to follow it if she desires. And, above all, it ought to be regarded as disgraceful for a woman to be unacquainted with those household duties which she will be required to assume after she has reached what now seems to be the goal of so many aspirations—the state of matrimony. We give the JOURNAL, the price of which is $2 a year in advance, and THE COTTAGE HEARTH a year for $2.00.

A Public Benefit.

How to laundry laundry is to be done in Troy, N. Y., has been kept a secret long enough; it can and should be done in every family. The ELASTIC STARCH is one of the best starches that have been issued. It contains a story by Mrs. Fields of Boston, Mrs. Louise Chamberlain of the highest Boston literary circles also contributed to this number, besides whom several noted peoples' names appear in the contents. We give the JOURNAL, the price of which is $2 a year in advance, and THE COTTAGE HEARTH a year for $2.00.

KNAPSACK AND RIFLE. written by "One of the Boys" and published by W. H. Thompson & Company, 32 Hawley street, Boston, is a very interesting history of so much of the War of the Rebellion as was witnessed and participated in by the writer, the same being profusely and finely illustrated by well-known artists. The story is told in a brisk, racy, and interesting manner and the book, which is issued in fine style by the enterprising publishers, will be widely read and highly cherished by the Veterans and everybody else.

The numbers of THE LIVING AGE for April 16, and 23, contain Transylvanian Peasants, The Decline and Fall of Dr. Faustus and Contemporary Life in France, Mr. Gladstone on the Irish Demand, French Aggression in Madagascar, Relations from Patmos, Lord George Gordon on the Riots of 1780, The Open Islands, The Fight at Trincomalee, and Novel Announcements. Mr. Ruskin's Publishers, with instalments of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies of Richard Cable, The Shepherd of the Salt Lake and Major Lawrence, and poetry. For fifty-two numbers each (more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($3) is low; while for $10.5

BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*1887. SPRING STYLES. 1887.

We are now showing all the latest Spring Styles in FUR HATS.

Good For Stiff Hats at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Also a very fine line NEW SPRING OVERCOATS.

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

J. C. BUCK, Manager.

THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

Mr. John B. Rhodes, who spends the last months of his life at Marlboro Neck, has recently been elected President of the New England Yacht Racing Association, for which position he is well fitted.

A Lodge of Good Templars was organized here last Saturday evening in Livingstone Hall. Temperance is getting a mighty grip in this town and it won't be long before there will be no rummeling within its borders.

The fight next season between the Ayer and Twombly factions will be a bitter one. Both are determined to rule the town. Organizations will probably be joined in the interest of both candidates. The work of the present administration will be watched by the Twombly interest, and every advantage taken of weak points.—Boston Globe. Fudge! The Globe has a knock of beating the world at finding nests, and this is one of its freshest ones. There is no truth in the above item.

James McGinness, aged about 21 years, was almost instantly killed by the 10 o'clock evening train from Woburn last Saturday. He was returning from Woburn on that train and in being it he was in some way drawn under the wheels of the car which crushed both legs and probably otherwise injured him as he died in a few minutes. He worked at Loring & Avery's tannery and was a young man of steady habits and well thought of. A cousin in Woburn and a sister in Roxbury were his only relatives in this country.

The visit of Rev. B. Fay Mills to Winchester is coming to be looked up with the interest it demands. The Union meetings for prayer held this week have been of marked solemnity, the attendance increasing from night to night. All required arrangements for the meetings have easily been made including that of a large volunteer choir. Existing Christians and others are looking upon the meetings which are to begin on Sunday as the long sought opportunity. Remarks are now frequently heard which carry the import that by the proper consecration and effort a lasting benefit to all the people of the town may be realized.

Mr. William E. Cummings, a Woburn dry goods merchant who resides here, was driving out last Sunday morning with his wife, two children and Miss Simonds, a teacher in the Boston schools, when the horse suddenly started, became unmanageable and ran away in spite of Mr. Cummings' efforts to prevent him. It occurred near Spot Pond in Stoneham. After running about a mile at the top of his speed the horse shied, left the road, ran on to a bank and upset the carriage, but was caught at the same moment and stopped. Mr. Cummings was thrown out, but the other inmates of the carriage remained aboard until removed through its side door. Miss Simonds had her left arm broken in two places, which was set by physicians at Melrose Highlands, when she was taken to Mr. Cummings' home in this village, and Dr. Diefiez of Woburn, the family physician, summoned. It was a fortunate escape from a very serious catastrophe.

BURLINGTON.

The Assessors are making their annual visitation.

Mr. Charles H. Walker has a fine display of panies at his greenhouse.

Mr. Otis C. Haven has purchased the house and land, formerly owned by Mr. Curtis White.

There seems to be an increase in the canary population this spring. Owners of dogs should at once apply for licenses.

Mr. Smith of Bedford will preach at the church next Sunday morning, and Mr. A. E. Brown will lecture in the evening on "Snares."

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Elegant Parasols in great variety.

Corsets, a new line at 71 cents. SPECIAL.

Handkerchiefs for Gent's, beautiful borders, 5 for 25 cents, worth 15 cents each.

Ribbons Remnants, very low.

Lace Edging, Linen, 2, 3 and 4 cents, a good SPECIAL.

Hamburgs, a new lot.

Executive Committee Meeting.

Last Tuesday evening the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade held a meeting at the Rooms to organize for the year, that is to say, to make up the sub-committees. Mr. Eastace Cummings, the Chairman was unavoidably absent, and Mr. James Skinner was chosen to preside which position was reluctantly accepted, and H. N. Conn, was at the desk. The meeting was large and one of the best that has been held for some time. Gentlemen were present who for one reason and another have been absent for several months and it was pleasant and cheering to see them there again. There were new faces on the Committee, meaning by the expression that there were faces of new members, and as they are prominent men that fact too was encouraging. It must have been evident to the most casual observer that a deep interest is taken in the prosperity and success of the Board by every member of its Executive Committee. The meetings are attended constantly by our most prominent business men, those of the highest social standing, gentlemen of means, and those who not only have the disposition but the ability to do the town good. There is more of a business ring than ever to the speeches of the meetings and an evident inclination on the part of all to reach out and secure more manufacturing establishments for our town. The third year of the Board's life has set in auspiciously and bids fair to yield the very best results for the material interests of Woburn.

A committee appointed by Chairman Skinner, consisting of W. N. Titus, F. W. Whittemore, and W. W. Hill, reported the following special committees which report was adopted:

Membership: Winthrop Hammond, F. A. Flint, F. S. Burgess, W. W. Hill, Gilman F. Jones.

Finance: John S. True, Jacob Brown, Benjamin Hinckley, J. W. Hammond, C. Hall.

Business: N. J. Simonds, F. H. Lewis, James Skinner, William H. Smith, B. F. Whittemore, John Winn, J. B. McDonald, Pringle, George A. Hobbs, C. W. Smith, W. W. Hill.

Legislature: William N. Titus, Parker L. Converse, John G. Maguire, Jacob Brown, George Buchanan, N. J. Simonds, F. S. Burgess.

Public Improvements: Fred H. Lewis, C. M. Hill, Alex Grant, B. F. Kimball, William H. Smith, Gilman F. Jones, George A. Hobbs.

Railroads and Transportation: B. F. Whittemore, James Skinner, Eastace Cummings, F. W. Hinckley, J. W. Hammond, C. Hall.

Local Improvements: Fred H. Lewis, C. M. Hill, Alex Grant, B. F. Kimball, William H. Smith, Gilman F. Jones.

Lecture and Entertainment: Winthrop Hammond, H. C. Hall, J. K. Marlock.

Besides being a great leather-producing place a large number of other kinds of manufactures are carried on here and to them additions are going on and in contemplation. An enumeration of a few weeks from now. In the mean time people seeking the very best locations for establishing themselves in manufacturing, especially in the leather business, will find it for their interests to visit Woburn where the Board of Trade and citizens will extend to them a cordial welcome if their credentials are all right, and put them on the track that leads to success.

Wilmington.

Henry Sheldon was awarded the contract to raise the grades of the bridge approaches on the B. & L. RR. and began work last Tuesday.

"The Spade" in the Lowell Journal thus speaks of the business boom in this town: There never was a time within the memory of the oldest inhabitant when real business and prosperity went together so charmingly as now. The railroad bridges are being raised to accommodate Asiatic and Canadian Pacific travel. A new schoolhouse is to be built. Heavy sales of corn have reported. Peddlers of coal oil wicks and snuff boxes abound. It is a little early for tramps, but they are getting more numerous every day. Freshly painted burlap carters, with handsome, white-aproned attendants, greet one with substantial smiles. Painters and grainers and grocers' retainers walk briskly along the streets. The establishment of a board of trade is imminent. Real estate is booming. Capitalists are concentrating around Silver Lake, and numerous fine residences are marked for construction on the shores of that inland sea. Horse trades are fairly active, and the market is well stocked with cows warranted not to jump over a fence eight feet high. A black band has not as yet appeared above the horizon. This is the only thing lacking to complete the picture of the town for the public improvements.

Good speeches full of enthusiasm and encouragement followed that of Mr. Burgess by Messrs. George Buchanan, William H. Smith, J. B. McDonald, Judge P. L. Converse, and Major H. C. Hall and others. Each speaker expressed confidence in the ability of the Board of Trade to do a good work for Woburn and full faith in its future career of usefulness.

Good speeches full of enthusiasm and encouragement followed that of Mr. Burgess by Messrs. George Buchanan, William H. Smith, J. B. McDonald, Judge P. L. Converse, and Major H. C. Hall and others. Each speaker expressed confidence in the ability of the Board of Trade to do a good work for Woburn and full faith in its future career of usefulness.

General John L. Swift will deliver the address here on Memorial Day in one of the churches in the evening. The Maplewood Band will furnish the music.

Mr. Twombly and Mr. Boynton, enterprise Westsiders, contemplate extensive improvements for that part of the town this season by building several fine houses.

Mr. Stephen Catter, now in his 87th year, a gentleman of the old and polite school, attends church regularly and is as Hale and hearty as men a good deal younger usually are.

General Carse and family have left the Berkley in Boston and returned to their summer residence in this village. They are strongly attached to Winclester and have many good friends here.

The idea of closing the stores in this village four week-day evenings in the week is not popular with the traders or people. The heat of the fault is found by the customers and I doubt if the thing runs very long.

Mr. Charles H. Walker has a fine display of panies at his greenhouse.

Mr. Otis C. Haven has purchased the house and land, formerly owned by Mr. Curtis White.

There seems to be an increase in the canary population this spring. Owners of dogs should at once apply for licenses.

Mr. Smith of Bedford will preach at the church next Sunday morning, and Mr. A. E. Brown will lecture in the evening on "Snares."

BURLINGTON.

The Assessors are making their annual visitation.

Mr. Charles H. Walker has a fine display of panies at his greenhouse.

Mr. Otis C. Haven has purchased the house and land, formerly owned by Mr. Curtis White.

There seems to be an increase in the canary population this spring. Owners of dogs should at once apply for licenses.

Mr. Smith of Bedford will preach at the church next Sunday morning, and Mr. A. E. Brown will lecture in the evening on "Snares."

REDUCING STOCK.*Charles H. Barnes,

512 Washington Street.

FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEK.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

In Substantial and Well Made

Black Walnut Chamber Sets,

Cherry Chamber Sets,

Mahogany Chamber Sets,

Ash Chamber Sets,

Painted Chamber Sets.

From $15 to $75.

We are offering also a line of

Parlor Furniture

In Hair Cloth, Embroidered and Crushed plush and Raw Silk at Prices will make them extra bargains.

Also Stock of CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, BEDDING, RANGES, BABY CARRIAGES, REFRIGERATORS, and everything needed to complete a home for house furnishing, or cash on delivery.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.

Also several other lots not mentioned here. Many beautiful novelties among them in Double Hemstitch, and our Linen Handkerchiefs, both Colored and White.

These goods expire quite a favor last spring. As the season is now well along, we can only hope that our customers will consult their own interests by a prompt response.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs

manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.

Also several other lots not mentioned here. Many beautiful novelties among them in Double Hemstitch, and our Linen Handkerchiefs, both Colored and White.

These goods expire quite a favor last spring. As the season is now well along, we can only hope that our customers will consult their own interests by a prompt response.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs

manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.

Also several other lots not mentioned here. Many beautiful novelties among them in Double Hemstitch, and our Linen Handkerchiefs, both Colored and White.

These goods expire quite a favor last spring. As the season is now well along, we can only hope that our customers will consult their own interests by a prompt response.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs

manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.

Also several other lots not mentioned here. Many beautiful novelties among them in Double Hemstitch, and our Linen Handkerchiefs, both Colored and White.

These goods expire quite a favor last spring. As the season is now well along, we can only hope that our customers will consult their own interests by a prompt response.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs

manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.

Also several other lots not mentioned here. Many beautiful novelties among them in Double Hemstitch, and our Linen Handkerchiefs, both Colored and White.

These goods expire quite a favor last spring. As the season is now well along, we can only hope that our customers will consult their own interests by a prompt response.

We have seen another lot of Handkerchiefs

manufactured by the celebrated house of Henry &amp; Son, and are sorry to inform our customers that they really make poor perfect

goods, and we warrant them all pure Linen and fast color. We have a large quantity of these at an extensive assortment and at prices quoted, does not do us any service, and we advise our customers to early take advantage of this.&lt;/

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sale receives of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*SPECIAL BARGAINS

IN

HOMESPUN SUITS,*$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at the

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut. Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

a good many others, that the line will not be built this summer notwithstanding the strong desire of everybody to have it go. I have heard that the company were considerably disgusted at the success of the Middlesex Co. in gaining the authority of Medford to extend their tracks to West Medford, after they found that the No. Woburn Co. proposed to strike that village from Winchester and so over to Old Medford, and that they propose to wait awhile and see what can be done with the consolidated before going any farther south. This is only a rumor, but I shouldn't wonder if there will be no running down to Symmes' Corner this season, as much as we all would like to have it do so.

There is considerable feeling over the procrastination of the authorities in appointing Mr. Hemmingsway to the position of special prosecutor of violations of the liquor law. An appropriation was made at the Town Meeting for use in stopping the sale of rum in Winchester and it was expected by the temperance people that Mr. Hemmingsway would be appointed right away, especially as he was so active, efficient and did so much good in suppressing the traffic last year, but at this time nothing has been done that I know of. Considerable many people are not feeling very pleasant at what they call the neglect of the Selectmen. But as I understand it, they are a little off in their complaints and calculations. I believe it was settled to put the appropriation into the hands of the regular police force and let them use it instead of having a special prosecutor and thus save the extra expense for such an officer. Mr. Hemmingsway managed liquor matters splendidly last year and kept the sale of rum down to a "minimum," and he would do the same this year, I make no doubt.

Some changes and alterations are going on in the Congregational Church, or were a few days ago, to accommodate the choir.

Street Superintendent Richardson is doing good to the public thoroughfares in this town. He is a good road-maker and everything has to be exactly right to pass muster under his eye.

I notice that a "Taxpayer" bears down quite heavy on the Principal of the High School. He seems to think the teacher needs investigating. If it weren't for the carpers, the falt-finders, the discontented, the pessimists, and such, this life would be rather a monotonous affair.

Our distinguished and highly esteemed fellow citizen, Hon. A. B. Colvin, has recently been appointed by Gov. Ames a member of the State Board of Gas Commissioners, an honorable and lucrative office, for the proper discharge of the duties of which he is entirely competent and well fitted.

Mr. J. B. McDonald, the well known and extensive cloth and lumber dealer at Woburn, has the contract for furnishing all the lumber for the Winchester new Town-House, the carpenter work of which is to be done by Mr. J. F. Tarbox. Mr. McDonald does a large business in this and adjacent towns. He is a wideawake man and a worker.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Standing Committee of the Winchester Unitarian Society the resignation of Mr. J. D. Sharon as sexton of the Church was received, and the following resolutions were voted by the Society's history, it is therefore

WHEREAS, In the resignation of Mr. J. D. Sharon as sexton, terminating thereby a period of twenty years of continuous and unbroken service, we recognize an important event in the Society's history, it is therefore VOTED, That we hereby express our recognition and appreciation of the genial, courteous, generous and efficient manner in which he has so faithfully discharged the duties of office, thereby contributing largely to the success of the Society and making the gratitude which it is the pleasure of the Committee to offer to its end.

There is considerable feeling here over the delay of the No. Woburn Street Railroad Co., in continuing their track to Symmes' Corner, for which they have received permit from the town. I am myself afraid, and so are James Pyle's Pearline has indeed become an article of established value in domestic economy, and now is the time for every family to turn it for house-cleaning as well as for personal use. The use of this article for housekeepers is not to be denied, and they who neglect a trial of it deprive themselves of a great convenience. Sold by grocers generally, but see that counters are not urged upon you.

It is said that a woman living near Jasper, Fla., is the mother of 26 children, of whom 24 have grown to manhood and womanhood.

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Elegant Parasols in great variety.

Corsets, a new line at 71 cents. SPECIAL.

Handkerchiefs for Gent's, beautiful borders, 5 for 25 cents, worth 15 cents each.

Ribbon Remnants, very low.

Lace Edging, Linen, 2, 3 and 4 cents, a good SPECIAL.

Hamburgs, a new lot.

The Dow Block.

A large number of men and several teams are engaged in excavating for the cells of the handsome new Dow business block which is to be erected by A. A. and E. A. Dow, proprietors of one of the largest leather manufacturing establishments of Woburn, this season on the corner of Main street and Church Avenue, and it will probably take three or four weeks to finish it and lay the foundation for the building. Mr. Jacob M. Ellis has the contract for the excavations, building the cells and laying the underpinning, and is pushing the work just as rapidly as possible. It is a large, heavy job and considerable time will be required to complete it.

The location for the block is excellent for business purposes and also one of the most sightly and pleasant in town. It commands a fine view up and down Main street and from the great elm on Market Square the building will be one of the most conspicuous within the eye's range and from almost all points in the Centre will attract attention.

The block is to be 98 feet on Main street and 64 on Church Avenue, four stories high above the basements or cellars, built of brick and stone, and furnished with all modern improvements including heating by steam. Messrs. Andrews & Jakes of Boston, who were with the famous Richardson, architect of the Woburn Public Library, Trinity Church, Boston, and many of the most beautiful and costly public and private buildings in this country, are the architects of the Dow block, which is a sufficient guarantee of its style and utility will be of the best. The contractors for building it are not all closed yet and therefore its exact cost cannot be stated, but it will amount to a very pretty sum of money.

The first story of the Main street front will be divided into five stores, which will have plate glass fronts and made as light, convenient and pleasant as possible. It is said that Mr. J. B. McDonald will occupy the corner room on Main street and Church Avenue for an office and that it is to be finished and fitted up in elegant shape. On the third story there will be a public hall 50x60 feet which will comfortably seat 350 people. It will be furnished with modern conveniences, stage, etc., and make a very nice hall for concerts, balls, etc. This will be a good thing. The roof of the hall will extend up and occupy the fourth story, giving two stories height. The Mishawum Club have engaged the remainder of the third story, the Odd Fellows will occupy the upper story, and the second will be cut up into spacious, fine offices.

The block will be completed towards the end of summer and when it is ready to be occupied it will be an ornament to the business centre of the town and a credit to the enterprise of the Messrs. Dow.

The Woburn Gaslight Company.

Immediately after the town voted to instruct the Selectmen to contract with Mr. N. J. Simonds for lighting our streets with the electric lamp Dr. J. M. Harlow, for some cause or other, offered his stock in the Woburn Gaslight Co., of which he was and had been for many years the President and principal owner, for sale and found a ready purchaser at a good round price in Mr. Monks and his associates in Boston and Mr. Benjamin Hinckley of this town. The sale of Dr. Harlow's stock was forthcoming by that of Judge L. P. Converse and Mrs. Susan K. Ellis of Bennett street to the same Boston and Woburn parties. Precisely what price they paid for the stock we do not know, but it is worth now about $125 per share, with an upward tendency.

With the sale of his stock Dr. Harlow resigned as Director and President of the Co., which necessitated the calling of a special meeting to fill the vacancy. Judge Converse also resigned from the Board of Directors and his place too must be filled. The special meeting was held on last Tuesday afternoon when Mr. Benjamin Hinckley was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Harlow, and Mr. J. R. Monks was chosen Director to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Judge Converse, which position he accepted.

The suspicion exists that this Woburn plant is to be converted into one for the manufacture and sale of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who are engaged in these water-metre tests in Boston are enthusiastic in their praise of its merits and assert that satisfactory experiments with the metre could not be made without it. This is a big note for the valve the peculiar excellency of which will be embodied in a card and published under the auspices of the Boston Water Board.

President Skinner of the Board of Trade has great confidence in the value of this valve as an invention and a manufacturing business venture.

He believes there is a great deal of money in it, and that is the sentiment of everyone who knows anything about it.

Ex-President Pitt, Messrs. B. F. Whittamore, L. B. Russell, Major Hall and other conservative gentlemen of intellect have no doubt as to the worth of the valve as a business under-taking.

The Water Board of Boston, who are now holding a series of water-metre tests at the Charitable Mechanic Association building and have been for over two weeks, use this new Chapman valve in the experiments, it being the only one ever invented that can be operated by electricity. Engineering experts, scientific men, and all others who

Woman's Column.

Literary Notices.

AN APPEAL TO NEUTRALS.
Lend us a hand! We are weary of striving,
Straining each nerve to win popular sense;
Why do we sit, when we need your assistance,
Please help us, and we will help you.

Women who live are a gay crowd of pleasure,
Friends to our cause, if we only succeed,
Give us a title of your wealth and your leisure,
Strengthen our hands in this time of our need.

Safe in human homes, we need nothing;
You are a host of us, strong,
Sympathetic with us, our aims and our actions,
Yet fit not a finger to help us along.

Lovely sure of the right of our pleading,
Safe in our cause, we are strong,
Step from your outposts, your neutral position,
Bravely and openly join us outright.

Fathers, whose children are lost by interperation!

Men, whose young sisters are led into sin!

Have you no shame? Do not let them!

It is not time now for us to begin!

Laws which you pass see a made to be broken;

Open saloons are wherever we come;

Just as we go, we see the children,

Outside as inside, the four walls of home;

Why so reluctant, afraid to enrol us?

Do you not feel you must yield it at length?

Then, if it is not too late, turn back,

Turn back, fall back on your physical strength."

Deep in your hearts you approve of our wishes;

"Tis but a question of time, as you know;

Openly come to us, say you are with us;

Now is the time to change us."

Are we not pleading for right and for justice?

Does duty is not our portion?

Come with your influence, eloquence, wisdom,

Come down and help us! "Come off that fence!"

—Woman's Journal.

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING FOR GIRLS.
If I were able, I would change the public sentiment so radically that no girl should be considered well educated, no matter what her accomplishments, until she had learned a trade, a business, or a profession. There would then be fewer fathers and brothers toilng in gallies-slaves to support healthy and vigorous human beings in stagnating illness—idle for no earthly reason save that God has made them women.

Lack of technical and industrial training not only makes dependent and inefficient women of our daughters, it puts them in fearful peril morally. Indolence is always demoralizing. It ruins health, destroys beauty, and enfeebles the will. "Out of 2,000 fallen women in the city of New York, 1880 had been brought up to do nothing; 525 had pleased destination as the cause of their sad life." In view of these facts, which might be multiplied indefinitely, ought we not to rid ourselves of the inherited social idea that it is a shameful thing for young women to be taught to support themselves by honorable industry?

It is as wasteful, as unwise, as inhuman, to send our delicately-nurtured and tenderly-reared young daughters out from the home to fight the battle of life without an equipment in the form of an industrial and business education, as it was to send these hapless young fellows to fight the enemy without drill, and without guns. The results are more disastrous, and reach farther. Our daughters are not shot down, like the untrained military recruit; they live, but with no individual grasp on life. They become anxious concerning the future, with no power to provide for it. At the mercy of circumstances, which they know not how to control; victims of petty beliefs, old abuses, and respectable tyrannies, they drop into institutional invalidism, or into bankruptcy, or into dissolute habits. If the young wife has not been in part prepared for such emergencies by previous training, her lot is hard indeed.

"Oh, you can't prepare girls to meet such emergencies!" said an eminent clergymen, in whose parlors this topic was being earnestly discussed. "You must prepare them to be good wives and mothers, and risk the rest. There will have to leave them, and trust in their courtesy of funeral ceremonies.

Or they marry, and make faithful, lovingly wives to admiring husbands. But the husband dies. He was living on a salary, which ceases with his life. His young widow has one or more children. What is she to do? Or the husband may drop into permanent invalidism, or into bankruptcy, or into dissolute habits. If the young wife has not been in part prepared for such emergencies by previous training, her lot is hard indeed.

Physical Deterioration.
It is said that, out of thirty-two young men of New York City who were examined recently for West Point cadetships, only nine were accepted as physically sound. The Inter-Ocean, of Chicago, commenting upon this ominous fact, says: "Such a note might well mark the young men of our cities pause for a moment's thought. No man who violates the laws of health can have a healthy body. How few there are who do not study fashion and humor appetite more than they do the laws that pertain to a healthy body! Beer, the cigarette, too much amusement and the hidden vices are making havoc with the physical manhood of all our towns and cities." In the total abstinence and social purity movements of the present period the entire community should feel a deep interest, and extend to them cordial sympathy and support as timely and greatly needed agencies to arrest this race deterioration in the young men and boys of our time.—National Temperance Advocate.

A Sad Misfortune.

Is to raise a nice family of boys and girls, and then have them carried to an early grave? Such a case occurred in Boston. Consumption Heed the warning and check the first stages by the prompt use of King's Pill. Throat and Lungs, warranted to cure and relieve all cases. Price 50 cents and $1. For sale by Chas. H. Buss. Trial size free.

A Patron of Art.

The so-called patron of art is often a vulgar millionaire, who thinks that should pay him by entertaining the guests. A rich bachelor of Paris once invited Chopin, the Polish composer, to dinner. When the guests had risen to go, and the table and repaired to the dressing room, Midas, the host, pointed to a piano, and in a matter of fact style, as if he were in his own bank, insisted on Chopin playing something.

Chopin was a true gentleman, but he could be fatidical when he chose to do so.

"But, monsieur, the baron," said he, extending his hands, deprecatingly, "I have eaten very little."—Youth's Companion.

Care of the Skin.

Everybody knows that the many diseases, the battle is lost or won on the field of the skin; according as its safety valve functions rise or fall. It is the principle outlet of the body. Four times more matter carried out of the body by the alimentary canal than by the skin.

It is a complete web of nerves and blood vessels; its thickly studded pores constitute the vastest system of corporeal drainage. Twenty-eight miles of tubing, 7,000,000 pores. If these become partially closed, disease is certain. It is prominently fitted and intended to be the safety ground of the physician in his conflict with disease.—F. G. Welsh, M. D., Brightyne, Henderson, W. Va.

Flooding Land in Algeria.

The project of flooding a part of Algeria from the sea has been abandoned, but it seems that large tracts may be covered with water from other sources. De Lesseps reports to the French academy that a single artesian well bored in 1885 to a depth of 2,000 feet, gushed a minute and has formed a considerable lake by the sea.

If you give somebody advice find out first how he believes, and then make your advice to agree with it. Der man whose advice don't tally with my opinion has no good.—Carl Dunder.

It is said that a person can live cheaper, and have more money when he has now, which everybody knows, than when he can twice as long. Bazaar of Initiations, that the name J. C. HUBINGER & BROS., New Haven, Conn., is on every package.

A Public Benefaction.

How to laundry linens as it is done in Troy, N. Y., has been kept a secret long enough; it can and should be done in every family. The ELASTIC STARCH is the only starch in the laundry business that is put up by men in a practical form, and the laundry proprietors. It requires no cooking, keeps the iron from sticking and linen from blistering while ironing, and gives shirts, cuffs and collars that stiffness and heat always have when new, which everybody knows, than when he can twice as long. Bazaar of Initiations, that the name J. C. HUBINGER & BROS., New Haven, Conn., is on every package.

All medical authorities agree that catarrh is no more than an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose and throat. Nasal catarrh and all catarrhal affections of the head are not diseases of the blood, and it is a serious mistake to treat them as such. No conscientious physician ever does so. It can be treated by certain medical means that sooner or later specific will be found for every disease from which humanity suffers. The facts justify us in assuming that for catarrh at least a positive cure already exists in Ely's Cream Balm.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouch'd for by her relatives of the town of Elgin, Ill., and by Dr. J. C. Ayer, of New Haven, Conn., who has been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all the housework I used to do. I owe my thanks to Electric Balm for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain.

Try a bottle, only 50c. at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

Literary Notices.

SONNET TO LIBERTY.

Not thin I love thy children, whose dear eyes
With the polish of the diamond, perfect, so void of tint, so brilliant that one can look into its very depths without catching the slightest ray of color; in fact, it is a gigantic dewdrop, clear and wonderful in its transparent color, presenting, as I have said, an entire contrast to glass, which is well to remember, as some begin balls are often offered for sale, but are sold immediately by comparing them with glass. Rock crystal balls will not be collected like stamps, birds' eggs or coins. A stone one inch in diameter bears $1.00, and one $3. Three inches $40 to $50, five inches $125 to $150, six inches from $200 to $300, and from here they jump to astonishing prices, so that one can be as select in crystal balls as with diamonds.

The number in Washington Territory is a Long Procession of Mounted Savages

A Most Impressive Spectacle.

Some years ago, in late August, I was traveling from the land of the Blackfeet to Walla Walla, in Washington territory.

I had followed an Indian trail from the Saskatchewan plains to the Cadotte pass in the north, and my trail led me to a camp and sat down to smoke. I had just left a noisy, buffalo-hunting Indian camp, and presently I conjured an Indian from the clouds, painted and stripped to their breech cloths, filed past me and disappeared in the haze which hung over the eastern plains. Great herds of buffalo stampede into life in my mind, the world is full of Indians, and Blackfeet passed them. When the Buffalo were falling and the plains be came a map of ever shifting light and color and active life, the Utes, mounted and with bent bows and long grooved war arrows drawn to their heads, discharged from their bows, battle, savage, and brave! It was a grand sight, and I sat smoking and wondering why men ever became lonesome when they could people the remote solitude of highland and plain and enjoy scenes of human interest, when my horse threw up his head and sniffed inquiry of the air and then the head of a column of mounted Indians rode up to me, and stood by my side looking at me, and I stood by them, and a few feet away from me stood a few feet

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1887.

The JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 195 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John Cummings, 25, Cummingsville, Sam E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

There are no surface indications of an early adjournment of the Legislature of this State and at the rate the rules are suspended to let in new business it is doubtful if they get through much before fall. No stronger plea for biennial sessions could very well be put forth than that furnished by the present General Court. There is not a decently intelligent citizen of the State who can be made to believe that one half of each year is necessary to make new and undo old laws of this Commonwealth when in States twice as large and five times as much business three months sessions of the Legislature are held once in two years, yet Massachusetts continues the rusty old rule of annual sessions and six months ones at that. If the people could only get a thwack at the constitution they would change all that mighty sudden.

The Boston newspapers are not in accord over the attempt of a powerful syndicate to seize and convert to street railway purposes parts of Boston Common. Some advocate the passage of the bill now before the Legislature which grants to the syndicate a right to take several of its malls, tunnel hills, and do divers and sundry things for their profit; while others fight the scheme and are bound to "down" it if possible. If the question could be left to the people of Massachusetts outside of Boston they would put a quietus instanter to the grand steal. Yet all New England even would come to the rescue of Boston Common and the Frog Pond if they were only given a chance to do so.

Prohibition is working very well indeed in this town just now. It looks almost as if it was going to prohibit the current year, and change ours into a sober, orderly and very respectable kind of a community. Less evidence of much drinking of spirituous liquors is to be seen on the streets than there was last year, and the fact that several sellers have been raided, brought into Court and compelled to pay for what they had done seems to hold out an assurance that prohibition can, after all, prohibit and that it going to do so in Woburn this present year.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

F. A. Babcock—Agent
J. D. Gilman—Agent
T. H. Calfee—Agent
Mrs. J. H. Cummings
John H. Fox—Insurance Co.
John H. Hanson
Mrs. W. Aver & Son—Wanted
Mrs. J. H. Parker—Millinery
H. H. Parker—Agent
Dr. C. T. Lang—Treats! Teeth!
First National Bank—S. A. Stevens
G. N. G.—Food, Meat,
Copeland & Bowser—Table Covers.

Work on the new Savings Bank Block will begin at once.

See advertisement of "Employees" in another column.

Copeland & Bowser advertise this week, goods that the people want.

The wind has blown right from the briny ocean all the week.

John H. Fox is doing a large business for the "Employees."

Yesterday was a hot one again. Rain is very much needed in these parts.

The "Baby Pathfinder" has made its appearance bright and early this month.

Yesterday was Ascension Day, and was duly observed at St. Charles church.

Mr. Gilman F. Jones went to New Hampshire last Tuesday on a flying visit.

Read "To Rent" in another column, and then call at this office and learn about it.

Insure against accidents in "Employees' Liability," the first Company to adopt the new features.

The Railroad Co. are putting in gates at Green street, and will do the same at the Highland station.

Mr. John H. Cummings accompanied the fishing party which went to Maine last Monday for trout.

Walbridge Brothers, whose advertisement appears in this paper, have a good trade among Woburn people.

W. H. Cummins has located his carpenter's shop on Park street, and Cyrus Lamb has moved his to High street.

Edward Clafferty, John H. Hennessey and Nathaniel Jenkins are Woburn's Field-drivers for this present year of grace.

Mr. Charles H. Barnes, 512 Washington street, Boston, gives the JOURNAL patrons some interesting reading this week.

Mr. James Burbeck of Concord, N. H., paid his respects to the JOURNAL office last Tuesday. He thinks N. H. is all right.

Col. Grammer has desirable residence property in his hands for sale. He does all kinds of real estate business and is reliable.

The Reading and Wakefield people have engaged the Woburn Brass Band to furnish music for them on Memorial Day.

The mechanics are making good progress on the buildings of the E. M. St. Ry on Salem street. They are huge buildings.

Patrick Lombard, who has attempted suicide several times, is at the almshouse where he refuses to eat, being bent on self-destruction.

Dr. Lang is one of the best dentists in the practice. They all say he is science, and that he does prime work at reasonable prices every one knows.

This evening at the closing meeting of the Friday Night Club for the season a "Dairy Supper" will be given in the vestry of the Unitarian church.

There is to be one of the neatest and handsomest opera houses in Dows block that there is in this part of the country. It will have all the modern improvements.

Officer Mulkeen is busily engaged giving the school census of the town. He will report one of these days and then we shall find out about the increase last year.

Within a year the manufacture of the Chapman valve, which is coming here, will employ not less than 100 skilled mechanics, which will be quite an addition to the town.

Mr. Charlie A. Jones bought the Dea Millett homestead last week for $4,850. L. L. Whitney, Esq., the executor, caused it to be sold at auction and the price was a fair one.

The following are the recently elected officers of the Inman Canoe Club: Commodore, W. W. Crosby; Vice-Commodore, W. B. Brown; Secretary, R. Dodge; Treasurer, H. B. Strat.

Mr. J. H. Parker, Salem street, offers handsome and fashionable military goods to the ladies of this town and vicinity at extremely low prices until July 1. Everyone will do well to read her card.

The explanation of W. G. M. regarding his fishing story is perfectly satisfactory, and if there was as much as a hint of a suspicion of its veracity in our last week's item we take it all back and cry quits.

The present agent for the American Express Co., Mr. William D. Grammer, at Woburn Centre, is soon to become messenger for the Co. between Boston and Lawrence, on the B. & L. RR, and will move there.

More lots have been sold in the last week for building on Cleveland Avenue by Mr. Cummings. That thoroughfare has become settled up faster than any other locality in town since it was opened to the public.

The Burbank Relief Corps, No. 84, will give their first entertainment in G. A. R. Hall, at 8 o'clock, next Friday evening, May 27. Tickets 10 cents. Ice-cream and cake will be sold at the close of the entertainment.

Mr. Leonard Parks, machinist at Freeman & Co., cut the end of his right thumb pum off with a hammer last Monday. It was dressed by Dr. Graves who said it would be three or four weeks before Parks could go to work again.

The East Wind is right there yet with a good prospect for remaining an indefinite period of time. It is not a welcome visitor, but its regular vernal appearance is a matter of course, so nobody minds it much or its disagreeable character.

The St. Charles (Catholic) church choir have advertised to give a vocal and instrumental concert at Lyceum Hall on Monday evening May 30, for the benefit of the Music Fund of the church. The very best talent has been engaged for it.

Last Tuesday one of the workmen on the East Middlesex Railway stable and car-house on Salem street accidentally cut his face with a hatchet very severely. He was taken in hand by a skilful doctor who repaired damage in good shape.

The high officials of the Boston and Maine RR. Co. went over the Boston and Lowell RR. in a special car last Monday probably to see what kind of a bargain they had made. There is no knowing for a certainty that any bargain has been made yet.

The wind has blown right from the briny ocean all the week.

John H. Fox is doing a large business for the "Employees."

Yesterday was a hot one again. Rain is very much needed in these parts.

The "Baby Pathfinder" has made its appearance bright and early this month.

Yesterday was Ascension Day, and was duly observed at St. Charles church.

Mr. Gilman F. Jones went to New Hampshire last Tuesday on a flying visit.

Read "To Rent" in another column, and then call at this office and learn about it.

Insure against accidents in "Employees' Liability," the first Company to adopt the new features.

The Railroad Co. are putting in gates at Green street, and will do the same at the Highland station.

Mr. John H. Cummings accompanied the fishing party which went to Maine last Monday for trout.

Walbridge Brothers, whose advertisement appears in this paper, have a good trade among Woburn people.

W. H. Cummins has located his carpenter's shop on Park street, and Cyrus Lamb has moved his to High street.

Edward Clafferty, John H. Hennessey and Nathaniel Jenkins are Woburn's Field-drivers for this present year of grace.

Mr. Charles H. Barnes, 512 Washington street, Boston, gives the JOURNAL patrons some interesting reading this week.

Mr. James Burbeck of Concord, N. H., paid his respects to the JOURNAL office last Tuesday. He thinks N. H. is all right.

Col. Grammer has desirable residence property in his hands for sale. He does all kinds of real estate business and is reliable.

The Reading and Wakefield people have engaged the Woburn Brass Band to furnish music for them on Memorial Day.

The mechanics are making good progress on the buildings of the E. M. St. Ry on Salem street. They are huge buildings.

Last week we put it down with considerable emphasis that Treasurer Frank Monks said the Stonehouse Street Railroad Co. had been changed to the Eastern Middlesex Railway Co. It was the object of the new deal, but to afford a much better light than is now furnished our people and charge more for it. At the present price they propose to give a 20-candle instead of a 16 candle light as is now done and in this way, and by extending the Co's territory and giving all who want it good gas at a reasonable cost they hope and expect to secure the public goodwill and patronage.

Dr. Lang is one of the best dentists in the practice. They all say he is science, and that he does prime work at reasonable prices every one knows.

This evening at the closing meeting of the Friday Night Club for the season a "Dairy Supper" will be given in the vestry of the Unitarian church.

There is to be one of the neatest and handsomest opera houses in Dows block that there is in this part of the country. It will have all the modern improvements.

Officer Mulkeen is busily engaged giving the school census of the town. He will report one of these days and then we shall find out about the increase last year.

Within a year the manufacture of the Chapman valve, which is coming here, will employ not less than 100 skilled mechanics, which will be quite an addition to the town.

Mr. Charlie A. Jones bought the Dea Millett homestead last week for $4,850. L. L. Whitney, Esq., the executor, caused it to be sold at auction and the price was a fair one.

The following are the recently elected officers of the Inman Canoe Club: Commodore, W. W. Crosby; Vice-Commodore, W. B. Brown; Secretary, R. Dodge; Treasurer, H. B. Strat.

Mr. J. H. Parker, Salem street, offers handsome and fashionable military goods to the ladies of this town and vicinity at extremely low prices until July 1. Stick a pin there.

The Scandinavian population of this town has enjoyed a large increase in the last twelve-month, and they still continue to come. If 100 additional houses were to be built this summer this excellent class of inhabitants would grow much faster here. There are no better people on the globe than the Swedes, Norwegians, etc.

The Assessors report an increase of population in fact they have gone. Of course they know nothing definite as to what the total will figure, but express no opinion, but the JOURNAL predicts that their final report will be a gratifying one. Our opinion is the sum total of inhabitants will figure up to nearly or quite 12,750. Stick a pin there.

The editor of the Woburn JOURNAL says the "Riverside News" article on "Temperate Temperance" is an clear as mud to him. Woburn has been a no-license town only a few days, and the JOURNAL man is muddled already. This once again suggests the question: Does prohibition prohibit? — T. R. News. The News feels just a little sour over Medford's isolated position on the temperance question and must therefore be excused for spitting out its spine once in awhile. Medford should keep her eye fixed on Woburn, follow the good example in temperance and morals set by her, freeze to her as guide, counsellor and friend, and then Medford will be all right. It would help matters along considerably though if her newspapers would emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL a little more than they do at the present time.

— President Hinckley of the Woburn Gaslight Co. informs us that it is not the intention of the Co. to manufacture water gas, as some seem to have thought was the object of the new deal, but to afford a much better light than is now furnished our people and charge more for it. At the present price they propose to give a 20-candle instead of a 16 candle light as is now done and in this way, and by extending the Co's territory and giving all who want it good gas at a reasonable cost they hope and expect to secure the public goodwill and patronage.

— The Scandanavian population of this town has enjoyed a large increase in the last twelve-month, and they still continue to come. If 100 additional houses were to be built this summer this excellent class of inhabitants would grow much faster here. There are no better people on the globe than the Swedes, Norwegians, etc.

The Assessors report an increase of population in fact they have gone. Of course they know nothing definite as to what the total will figure, but express no opinion, but the JOURNAL predicts that their final report will be a gratifying one. Our opinion is the sum total of inhabitants will figure up to nearly or quite 12,750. Stick a pin there.

The editor of the Woburn JOURNAL says the "Riverside News" article on "Temperate Temperance" is an clear as mud to him. Woburn has been a no-license town only a few days, and the JOURNAL man is muddled already. This once again suggests the question: Does prohibition prohibit? — T. R. News. The News feels just a little sour over Medford's isolated position on the temperance question and must therefore be excused for spitting out its spine once in awhile. Medford should keep her eye fixed on Woburn, follow the good example in temperance and morals set by her, freeze to her as guide, counsellor and friend, and then Medford will be all right. It would help matters along considerably though if her newspapers would emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL a little more than they do at the present time.

— President Hinckley of the Woburn Gaslight Co. informs us that it is not the intention of the Co. to manufacture water gas, as some seem to have thought was the object of the new deal, but to afford a much better light than is now furnished our people and charge more for it. At the present price they propose to give a 20-candle instead of a 16 candle light as is now done and in this way, and by extending the Co's territory and giving all who want it good gas at a reasonable cost they hope and expect to secure the public goodwill and patronage.

— The Scandanavian population of this town has enjoyed a large increase in the last twelve-month, and they still continue to come. If 100 additional houses were to be built this summer this excellent class of inhabitants would grow much faster here. There are no better people on the globe than the Swedes, Norwegians, etc.

The Assessors report an increase of population in fact they have gone. Of course they know nothing definite as to what the total will figure, but express no opinion, but the JOURNAL predicts that their final report will be a gratifying one. Our opinion is the sum total of inhabitants will figure up to nearly or quite 12,750. Stick a pin there.

— The editor of the Woburn JOURNAL says the "Riverside News" article on "Temperate Temperance" is an clear as mud to him. Woburn has been a no-license town only a few days, and the JOURNAL man is muddled already. This once again suggests the question: Does prohibition prohibit? — T. R. News. The News feels just a little sour over Medford's isolated position on the temperance question and must therefore be excused for spitting out its spine once in awhile. Medford should keep her eye fixed on Woburn, follow the good example in temperance and morals set by her, freeze to her as guide, counsellor and friend, and then Medford will be all right. It would help matters along considerably though if her newspapers would emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL a little more than they do at the present time.

— President Hinckley of the Woburn Gaslight Co. informs us that it is not the intention of the Co. to manufacture water gas, as some seem to have thought was the object of the new deal, but to afford a much better light than is now furnished our people and charge more for it. At the present price they propose to give a 20-candle instead of a 16 candle light as is now done and in this way, and by extending the Co's territory and giving all who want it good gas at a reasonable cost they hope and expect to secure the public goodwill and patronage.

— The Scandanavian population of this town has enjoyed a large increase in the last twelve-month, and they still continue to come. If 100 additional houses were to be built this summer this excellent class of inhabitants would grow much faster here. There are no better people on the globe than the Swedes, Norwegians, etc.

The Assessors report an increase of population in fact they have gone. Of course they know nothing definite as to what the total will figure, but express no opinion, but the JOURNAL predicts that their final report will be a gratifying one. Our opinion is the sum total of inhabitants will figure up to nearly or quite 12,750. Stick a pin there.

— The editor of the Woburn JOURNAL says the "Riverside News" article on "Temperate Temperance" is an clear as mud to him. Woburn has been a no-license town only a few days, and the JOURNAL man is muddled already. This once again suggests the question: Does prohibition prohibit? — T. R. News. The News feels just a little sour over Medford's isolated position on the temperance question and must therefore be excused for spitting out its spine once in awhile. Medford should keep her eye fixed on Woburn, follow the good example in temperance and morals set by her, freeze to her as guide, counsellor and friend, and then Medford will be all right. It would help matters along considerably though if her newspapers would emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL a little more than they do at the present time.

— President Hinckley of the Woburn Gaslight Co. informs us that it is not the intention of the Co. to manufacture water gas, as some seem to have thought was the object of the new deal, but to afford a much better light than is now furnished our people and charge more for it. At the present price they propose to give a 20-candle instead of a 16 candle light as is now done and in this way, and by extending the Co's territory and giving all who want it good gas at a reasonable cost they hope and expect to secure the public goodwill and patronage.

— The Scandanavian population of this town has enjoyed a large increase in the last twelve-month, and they still continue to come. If 100 additional houses were to be built this summer this excellent class of inhabitants would grow much faster here. There are no better people on the globe than the Swedes, Norwegians, etc.

BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sale receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*SPECIAL BARGAINS

—IN—

HOMESPUN SUITS,
$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at the

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

Greatest Variety of $300 Shoes in Woburn: DOUGLAS, JOHNSON, WHITMAN, KEystone, FRANKLIN, WALKENPHAST, in 4 widths—3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

Best $2.50 MEN'S CALF shoes in the market, 4, 5, 6, 7, wide—Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toes and plain, well-pranned in every particular, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50, S. M. F. FF, W wide, Smith's American Kid, $2.50, Phelan's Kid Boots, C. D. E. $2.00.

All kinds of Repairs done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on; leather, fine Kid Boots: also New gorings put into all kinds of shoes.

AT LEATHERS' buy your shoes for all kinds weather. He has them all made from good solid leather. Please remember 201 Main in the street. By your shoes there and you'll never get beat.

WINCHESTER.

The Boston Courier, the leading society paper of the Hub, says Mr. Edward D. Libby of this town will sail next week with a friend and travelling companion who will accompany him on a pedestrian tour through Ireland and Scotland, and after that visit Continental Europe and spend some time in its principal Capitals.

I told you several weeks ago that some of the people of Hill district did not clearly endorse the policy of the School Board in setting up the Hill school, and now I see some of them have petitioned the Board to be allowed to attend the Wyman School. The idea of "keeping school" for so few families as there are in the Hill district is not practical.

Our esteemed and distinguished fellow-citizen and Boston's honorable post master, Gen. Corse, who signalled Gen. Sherman from the "battlefield above the clouds" (mebby I am "mixing" history a little here) that he would "hold the fort until — freezes over" — this same gallant soldier was last week unanimously elected a member of the St. Botolph Club, Boston, the most exclusive, toney, high-flier and blue-blood Club in the city.

All agree that the ten days spent with Mr. Mills, the Evangelist have been most happy and profitable. A marked characteristic of the work, including the preparatory services, has been the perfect unanimity of the churches. A general feeling remains that union meetings must continue. The first of the new series therefore will take place at the Baptist church on Friday evening at half past seven when further announcements will be made.

There ought to be grand public ceremonies over laying the cornerstone of the new Town House and I should not wonder if there would be. The occasion will present an opportunity to have Gov. Ames, Lieut. Gov. Brackett, and other official dignitaries out here, a visitation from eminent Free Masons, men of note, and some fine speeches. I should hold up both hands to have the cornerstone laid in place with imposing ceremonies conducted of course by the Free Masons, and it our Building Committee, or whomever has the matter in hand, fail to improve this opportunity to parade Winchester before great men and show off her charms they ought to be called to account.

The Winchesters played their second game defeating the Woburns 26 to 12. The

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Elegant Parasols in great variety.

Corsets, a new line at 71 cents. SPECIAL.

Handkerchiefs for Gent's, beautiful borders, 5 for 25 cents, worth 15 cents each.

Ribbon Remnants, very low.

Lace Edging, Linen, 2, 3 and 4 cents, a good SPECIAL.

Hamburgs, a new lot.

Copeland & Bowser.*TURCOMAN TABLE COVERS.

$2.50 Each.

errors were numerous but the home team batted hard and ran bases in a manner that surprised their friends. The score is as follows:

WINCHESTERS
AB	R
Morgan, cf. 4	0
Conant, 2d & ss. 4	1
Taylor, 1b. 4	1
Conn. 1b. 4	1
Littlefield, 1f. 4	1
McGinnis, 3b. 4	1
Poole, 1d. 4	0
Wheeler, 2b. 4	1
Conn. 3b. 4	1
Dupree, 1b. 4	1
Totals, 42 20 22 26 15 16 11

WOBURN:

WOBURN
AB	R
Morgan, cf. 4	0
Conant, 2d & ss. 4	1
Taylor, 1b. 4	1
Conn. 1b. 4	1
Littlefield, 1f. 4	1
McGinnis, 3b. 4	1
Poole, 1d. 4	0
Wheeler, 2b. 4	1
Conn. 3b. 4	1
Dupree, 1b. 4	1
Totals, 36 12 8 14 16 11 22

Innings: 1, 2, 6, 2, 2, 9, 0, 26. Wins: Woburn's 10; Winchester 2. Two losses: Woburn's 1, Winchester 4. Wins: Woburn's 5. Struck out—Blind, 6; Total, 24; Woburn's 12; Winchester 24. Earned run—Winchester 10; Woburn's 2. Struck out—Blind, 6; Total, 24; Woburn's 12. Total on balls—Winchester 10; Woburn's 2. Total pitch out—Blind, 6; Total, 24. Total on balls—Winchester 10; Woburn's 2. Total game—2 hours. Umpire—Card.

Woburn's 10; Winchester 2. Two losses: Woburn's 1, Winchester 4. Wins: Woburn's 5. Struck out—Blind, 6; Total, 24; Woburn's 12. Total on balls—Winchester 10; Woburn's 2. Total game—2 hours. Umpire—Card.

Same in Boys sizes at $2.00.

Splendid Variety of Men's fine VEAL CALF shoes, 4, 5, 6 wide; Button, Congress and Lace, Box-toes and plain, well-pranned in every particular, $2.00.

Smith's French Kid Button Boots, $3.00 and $3.50, S. M. F. FF, W wide, Smith's American Kid, $2.50, Phelan's Kid Boots, C. D. E. $2.00.

All kinds of Repairs done at Moderate prices: front and back stays stitched on; leather, fine Kid Boots: also New gorings put into all kinds of shoes.

At LEATHERS' buy your shoes for all kinds weather. He has them all made from good solid leather. Please remember 201 Main in the street. By your shoes there and you'll never get beat.

New Books.

THE FIRST KREUVE. LESSONS IN THE LIFE OF JOSEPH. — By Rev. Daniel March, D. D. Philadelphia: Presbyterian Board of Publication.

More than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church, the people being united in their pastor and in Christ's work. There have been seventeen admissions during the present pastorate, thirteen of which were put into all kinds of which were more than likely it is because the Bible history of the life of Joseph is so full and clear that a larger number of pens have not attempted its amplification, or to excite and enhance the reader's interest in it. Few, if any, prominent characters mentioned in the Scriptures have received less attention from secular writers than this as great as any to be found in the records of the Old Testament, and whose existence was the beginning of a long and providential chain of events more important than those connected with the lives of Biblical times. Careful and patient search through the largest and best libraries fails to reward the seeker after further information concerning Joseph. Nearly enough money is pledged for the requirements of the coming year, and the existing need indebtedness of the society is less than $200.

A good interest is it because the church,

(Continued from first page.)

late of His Majesty's—th Regiment of Foot, is over, and the prisoner has been found guilty and sentenced to death. A petition, signed by nearly every one in the county—high and low—had been sent up to His Majesty in London; but to no purpose. Too many gentlemen late had taken to the road, and an example was needed. There was no help for it. Everything that could be done had been done, and there was nothing more to do now but to wait for the end. The only cheerful person concerned, oddly enough, was the Major himself. "A man can die but once," said he, "But I should like to have had one more gallop on my dear Cicely before I go to an end." However, it can't be helped. I am quite innocent of all that's a no no, so I think, and I think you may take my word for it that George Brabazon will die game."

The execution was fixed to take place on the Monay following the trial, on the gallows erected on Hangman's Heath, close to the scene of the outrage. The preceding S'mday was a sad one, you may depel, to the inhabitants of Plumpton. Sermons were preached alluding to the sad event in all the churches, and people spoke with bated breath of the tragedy that was to be enacted on the morrow.

The tide was to turn, though, in a most unexpected manner. At nine o'clock at night, when the streets were still full of listeners, a horseman came clattering through the town, whose disordered attire and the jaded appearance of his steed denoted that he had come from a distance. Pulling up at the first group of listeners he came to, he eagerly inquired the nearest way to the jail.

"I've a pardon for Major Brabazon, who was left for execution on the morrow, in my pocket," said he, "and I must give it to the Governor's hands at once." Fifty willing gules were found at once to show the messenger the way to the prison. Mean while the good news spread like wildfire. The town went mad with delight. The women shed tears with joy, the men shouted until they were hoarse. A band that soon mustered on the crowds rushed off to the jail, and cheered until the Governor of the prison made his appearance and addressed the crowd.

It was all true, he said. The Major was an innocent man. A prisoner lying in Newgate under sentence of death had confessed that he was the stranger who dined with the Major at the White-sheat on the night of the robbery; that with the aid of Cross-eyed Dick, he had abstracted the Major's mare for the occasion (a portion of the mob rushed off at this point in search of Cross-eyed Dick, on whom they swore vengeance) had ridden forth, robbed the mail, restored the mare to her stable, taken his departure on his own horse before the Major was up.

"That's the story, boys," said the Governor. "Now go away, and come here to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and fetch your friend Major George away. Come in your thousands, if you like," he added, laughing.

"Three cheers for the Major. Ah, three times three! And three for the Governor."

The mob cheered them both, and the mare and the Widow Thompson, until they were hoarse—also thirsty. Then they went away.

Bells pealing, people shouting, every body in his best clothes, and all assembled in front of Plumpton jail to greet the Major on his return from captivity. A little space is kept clear close to the prison gates, in which space a carriage and four is drawn up, containing the Widow Thompson and her friend, Mrs. Matcham, both in their smartest attire and both in tears. Behind the carriage held by the Major's groom, stands Cicely, the innocent cause of all the mischief, somitting patiently to the attentions of the mob.

But hark! the different cloaks of the town chime eleven.

A terrible roaring goes forth from the multitude as the huge prison gates slowly open at the last stroke of the hour.

A still more terrible roaring goes forth as the Major, apparently as fresh and well as ever, appears, leaning on the Governor's arm. But just imagine what a terrible noise was then when the mare Cicely was seen to break from the attendant at the first sound of her old master's voice, and galloping up to where he stood, rub her soft muzzle against his master and shoulders in the most loving manner possible, saying, as plain as a mare could speak—"My dear, dear, master, I am so pleased to see you!"

One touch of nature makes the whole world kin. The Major, though hitherto he had borne up like a man, could stand it no longer. This touching behavior on Cicely's part was too much for him, and, half breaking down, he clasped his favorite round the neck and wept aloud. Even the stern Governor was obliged to turn his head away. The Major, once more himself again, mounted Cicely, who arched her neck and whinnied with delight as he did so, and taking his place beside the carriage containing his fiance, a move was made for home. How long they took getting there it is impossible to say, but this is certain—by the time they did get there Major George's hands were all but wrung off from the shaking they underwent, and, as for Cicely, she scarcely had a hair on her tail left, owing to the anxiety of the good people to possess a memento of this never-to-be-forgotten day. Not long after the Major and the Widow Thompson were married, on which occasion the good folk of Plumpton made another day of it, you may depend.

The Major and his wife lived to a green old age; so did Cicely; but long after they had gone over to the majority would the story be told of a winter's night by the fireside gossips of Major Brabazon and his White-faced Mare.

The Memory Soaked. It has always been understood that Consumption was incurable, but it has recently been discovered that Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is giving more relief than any known remedy. It is guaranteed to relieve and cure Asthma, Coughs, Coughs, Call on Charles H. Buss, Druggist, Woburn and get a trial bottle free of cost. Large size 50 cents and $1.

An English surgeon says that people who use rocking chairs the most get deaf the soonest. Rocking also hurts the eyes and makes people near-sighted.

Ivan Tournegeneff's Mother.*Our Dumb Friends.*HUMANE SOCIETIES NEEDED IN SMALL TOWNS.

Our cities are doing noble work with their Humane Societies, Missions, etc., but the enterprise will not be complete till every village is under the faithful supervision of humane guardians. There can be no local society to prevent cruelty to helpless creatures, some neighboring city should frequently send inspectors to "spy on the land." We do not know whether or not there are any attempts of this kind, but we do know that we spent last summer in fully sight of a man and woman who "worked" their little farm with the help of a horse so weak and bony that it was a painful sight. The poor creature wandered at night into the hospitable barns of some of the neighbors, and in this way received a little food, but the heartless couple who exacted its services all the day, calmly acknowledged that "the old horse was most dead and wasn't worth feeding, and after harvest it was to be killed or turned out."

The neighbors expostulated, but "had no right to interfere," and we soon discovered a similar case within five miles of the first, both of them only twenty miles from a city "noted for its humane societies and great charity."

Another distressing sight is the suffering of dogs and even larger animals for the want of water during the dry season. The city streets sometimes afford a little water from hydrants, etc., but the villages seldom make any real provision for the thirsty creatures that have no hands with which to use the town pump and so when the little barks are dry the poor dumb animals go about smelling the dusty roads in a vain search for water. Some one should be expected to see that the trough of the town pump is kept filled with water, and housekeepers should arrange some "gipsy kettle" or something of the kind to hold water in some side yard where homeless cats and dogs could find free access. Such a kettle could not hurt the looks of the yard, and would be an act of mercy if kept filled with pure water.—Humane Journal.

A POLITE DOG.

Some of our kind friends, dear children, have sent us stories about the wonderful doings of their pets, have told us of the devotion of the dog and the horse, and have shown us how much we owe to the dumb animals.

The wisest man said, "Go to the ant that slumbers," so we see we can learn lessons of industry from the ant. The spider teaches us perseverance, but we are sure you never before heard of a lesson in politeness taught by a dog.

One evening, during a visit "over the Lake," we wandered through the beautiful, sweet-scented woods back of the village of Ocean Springs to Old Bay and had seated ourselves to rest on fallen tree. While there we were startled by the sudden appearance of a large white and yellow dog who approached whining and holding up his fore paw. We examined his foot and could find no thorns or cuts but still the dog whined and held up his foot. A thought struck us; he wanted to shake hands perhaps! So it proved, for, after a hearty hand shake he ran off. This was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship.—N. O. Peagane.

A Remarkable Good Man

He who attends to the comfort of his family will not let his little ones suffer from Electric Disease. I can tell you of one who did not, and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery.

Trial Bottles free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled in his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. A. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, he took it, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery.

Trial Bottles free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

Fuel of the Future.

The house of the near future, the Boston Journal of Commerce thinks, will have no fireplace, steam pipes, chimneys, or flues. Wood, coal, oil, and other forms of fuel are about to disappear altogether in places having factories. Gas has become so cheap that already it is supplanting fuels. A single jet fairly heats a small room in cold weather. A New York artist has produced a simple design for heating entirely by gas at a mere nominal expense. It is a well-known fact that gas throws off no smoke, soot, or dirt. The artist filled a brazier with chunks of colored glass, and placed several jets beneath. The glass soon became heated enough to thoroughly warm a room 10x30 feet in size. This design does away with the necessity for chimney since there is no smoke; the ventilation can be had at the window. The heat may be raised or lowered by simply regulating the flow of gas. The colored glass gives all the appearance of fire; there are black pieces to represent coal, red chunks for flames, yellowish white glass for white heat, blue flames, hues for all remaining colors of the spectrum. Invention already is displacing the present fuels for furnaces and cooking ranges, and glass, doing away with delay and such disagreeable objects as ashes, kindling wood, etc.

At San Francisco, a few days ago, an officer took an elderly couple to the hospital for treatment, the woman suffering from convulsions and the man in a low condition. He found the couple in bed, and scattered about the room were 16 empty whisky bottles. The woman stated at the hospital that she had partaken of no food for two weeks, subsisting solely on whisky. The only reason she could ascribe to their actions was that it was "just for devilment."

The flower show in San Francisco has been delightful visitors. Among the flowers and plants exhibited was a rare collection of rhododendrons. Branches of orange, lemon, fibrous, nutmeg, and pomegranates showed a newly-formed fruit as well as flowers. Poppies, nasturtiums, petunias and many flowers which would seem unseasonable here were displayed in profusion.

Don't Get Caught.

This spring with your blood full of impurities, your digestion impaired, your appetite poor, kidneys and liver torpid, and whole system to be prostrated by disease—best get yourself into good health, and for that purpose, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Many in your immediate command will testify in your commendation of it. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price 50 cents.

The flower show in San Francisco has been delightful visitors. Among the flowers and plants exhibited was a rare collection of rhododendrons. Branches of orange, lemon, fibrous, nutmeg, and pomegranates showed a newly-formed fruit as well as flowers. Poppies, nasturtiums, petunias and many flowers which would seem unseasonable here were displayed in profusion.

Don't Get Caught.

The unpreceded success and merit of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in curing colds—fever, and the like—has induced many adventurers to place catarrhine-diseases bearing some resemblance in appearance or name upon the market, in order to trap the reputation of Ayer's Creation. Don't be hoodwinked, buy only Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Many in your immediate command will testify in your commendation of it. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price 50 cents.

The flower show in San Francisco has been delightful visitors. Among the flowers and plants exhibited was a rare collection of rhododendrons. Branches of orange, lemon, fibrous, nutmeg, and pomegranates showed a newly-formed fruit as well as flowers. Poppies, nasturtiums, petunias and many flowers which would seem unseasonable here were displayed in profusion.

Don't Get Caught.

Although the work of emancipation has been going on in Brazil since 1871, it appears that there are still about 1,330,000 slaves in that country. In the past twelve years about 15,000 persons have been freed annually. This rate is so slow that the end of manumission has been changed so that it is expected that slavery will disappear in about thirteen years.

The Iowa Register says: "There's a whole temperance sermon in the reply of a butcher who was asked for a dollar toward paying a temperance lecture: 'There's your dollar,' said he. 'I've sold more meat in one day since this town went no license than I used to in a week when we had saloons.'

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

Although the work of emancipation has been going on in Brazil since 1871, it appears that there are still about 1,330,000 slaves in that country. In the past twelve years about 15,000 persons have been freed annually. This rate is so slow that the end of manumission has been changed so that it is expected that slavery will disappear in about thirteen years.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

It is said that the younger female class of Chinese in San Francisco are adopting American habits, costumes and religions. The Chinese maiden of the period hangs her hair, wears belts and boots, and compromises the costume of her Celestial congeners in every way possible except by discarding it outright. The change has been brought about by the association of young girls with American children of their own sex in Sunday and week-day schools.

Don't Get Caught.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1887.

The Journal is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Street, 166 Main Street, C. R. Brown, Esq. Main Street, John Cummings, 2d, Cummingsville, South F. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

TOTAL, 12,760.

At the last regular Town Meeting the Assessors were directed by vote to take a census of Woburn this spring and in pursuance thereof the work has been thoroughly and honestly done by them. They found the total population to be, on May 1st, 12,760, which exceeded the expectations of a majority of the people, but did not quite come up to those of the JOURNAL. The increase from May 1, 1886 to May 1, 1887, was 874; and from May 1, 1885, when the census was taken by the State, to May 1, instant, it was 1,010, or an average of 505 for the two years. The boom did not set in until the close of 1885, and had established no steady, certain headway until nearly a twelve-month after, which facts account for the excess of increase of population in 1886-7 over 1885-6.

All along during the past two years there has been a plenty of worthy townpeople who did not believe Woburn was growing. They said talk different from that was moonshine.

— Both G. A. R. Posts of this place have accepted the invitation of Rev. Mr. Wright, the pastor, to attend divine services at the Methodist church next Sunday.

— The new depot at Central Square has gone to Ashbury Grove for their summer holiday stay. They have been there before now and like very much.

— Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butters of Woburn street have gone to Ashbury Grove for their summer holiday stay. They have been there before now and like very much.

— Mr. Copeland calculates it will take the carpenters and others about ten days longer to finish the addition to his store and enable the firm to get well settled in it.

— Mr. Fowle has the cases for the reception of Hon. John Cummings's valuable gift to the public library nearly finished. When completed the collection will be put in.

— We understand that the committee are making fair progress on securing subscriptions to the stock of the Chapman valve. Mr. F. A. Flint is busy after names and amounts.

— The work of setting the poles for the electric street lighting by Mr. Simonds is going on as rapidly as possible. Not a long time will elapse before the lamps are all in place.

— The Royal Society of Goodfellows will be instituted here next week Wednesday. All will please see Dr. Kelley and get examined this week— Hatch & Adams, Supreme Deputies.

— It is reported in real estate circles that parties are trying to buy the Dr. E. Cutler place on the corner of Pleasant and Bennett streets with a view of improving it for a firstclass residence.

— Mr. G. A. Bean has a card in this paper, to which we call attention. He is a good man to place the sale or letting of real estate with, and has desirable property on hand to sell and let.

— Several cars have arrived here for the East Middlesex Street R.Y. Work on the tracks will begin at once. The Co's buildings on Salem street are going ahead rapidly and will soon be finished.

— It is reported that the Trustees of the Woburn Home for Aged Women are negotiating for the Converse house on High street for their future use. It is a good place whether the Home has it or not.

— Time being up, Chief Nelson is liable to drop on the town at almost any minute. But if those trout for the editor don't come too it will be a sorry day for the Chief when he came back to Woburn.

— It is not at all likely that any one will forget Robbins's circus that is coming here on the 8th of June but it will do no harm to direct public attention to the advertisement of it in the JOURNAL.

— Mr. Charly A. Jones who bought the Dea. Millett homestead was offered $500 for his bargain a few days after the purchase. He sold the Court street and lot to Mr. N. J. DeLoria for $1800.

— It seems from a notice of theirs published in this issue of the JOURNAL that the County Commissioners are coming out to settle the line on the west side of Main street between Chestnut and Kilby streets.

— Mr. Mark C. Fehl had a carload of fine Canada horses arrive yesterday which may be seen at Jones's Central House stables. The lot includes roadsters and work horses and are a choice lot all through.

— Last Saturday the W. H. S. Juniors met the Highlanders in a game of ball. The Juniors fielded a raw bunch in a manner that surprised their opponents, and finally wound up the game to the tune of 22 to 15.

— The joint committee on Memorial Day exercises extend an invitation to W. N. Titus, Esq., to deliver the oration, but business matters and the brevity of time allowed for preparation caused him to respectfully decline it.

— Capt. John P. Crane has bought the fine lot next south or the residence of James N. Dow, Esq., on Academy Hill on which he will move his present residence buildings and make a nice, pleasant home for himself and family.

— Mr. Chase Cole, who had one of the bones of his left leg fractured two weeks ago in Boston while in the discharge of his duties as one of the city's Truant Officers, rode out on Wednesday forenoon for the first time since the accident. He was never before in his life confined a day to a bed by sickness or mishap and he was glad enough to get outdoors once more. His limb will soon be cured and as good as ever.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

T. H. Cushing—Bacon, Eggs, &c. J. G. Maguire—Citation. Dr. Blackstone—Dentist. C. C. —Pet. of Col. Drives. J. M. Ellis—W. H. S. Masons. Mark C. Fehl—Canada Horses. G. A. R. Posts. Peter Peterson—Situation Wanted. Town of Woburn—Notice of Scales, etc. Woburn Savings Bank—Officers and Trustees.

— Read the ad. "To Let" by Mrs. C. A. Pierce.

— Josiah Leath has a large stock of the best kind of summer shoes.

— The office and stables of Jacob M. Ellis & Co., are on Park street.

— Good enough: Jenkins says his 1887 pattern Garland Oil Stove is about perfect.

— By reference to his notice it will be seen that a man about 50 years old wants a situation.

— The Ladies' Auxiliary will hold a strawberry festival Tuesday evening at Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

— Smith & Son, dry goods merchants, call attention to their statements in the JOURNAL this week.

— Mr. Edward Simonds, Sealer of Weights and Measures, publishes a legal notice in the JOURNAL this week.

— Mrs. Cheever, the Montvale Avenue milliner, enjoys a large patronage because the ladies like her work.

— It was another very hot day again yesterday. The light rain of the day and evening before freshened up considerably.

— Dr. Blackstone publishes a card this week which is worthy of particular notice. We understand the Doctor is doing a good business here.

— Mr. L. B. Russell's large building for manufacturing purposes which stands next to his factory is prettily well along and will soon be finished.

— A few days ago William Winn, Esq., went to Needham to attend the funeral of an associate of his in the Legislature of 1870 who has been his particular friend ever since then.

— Rev. D. D. Winn, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver the Memorial Day oration before the Posts and people of this place next Monday.

— Mr. A. F. Morrell went to Kenebunkport last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Webster, his brother-in-law, who visited here last summer.

— Both G. A. R. Posts of this place have accepted the invitation of Rev. Mr. Wright, the pastor, to attend divine services at the Methodist church next Sunday.

— The new depot at Central Square is a daisy. There is nothing prettier on the B. & L. RR. that we have seen and it is large enough for all practical purposes.

— Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butters of Woburn street have gone to Ashbury Grove for their summer holiday stay. They have been there before now and like very much.

— The boys ought not to meet with any difficulty in finding diamond fields—in plain English, baseball grounds—in great abundance close to the middle of the town. They complain however of the scarcity of real estate desirable for that sport and therefore are at a loss what to do.

— In these local columns it was said that Mr. J. H. Parker is conducting a large and successful millinery establishment on Salem street and when it appeared the reporter had to flee from Messrs. Head & Dowse of Manchester, N. H., the same firm that built the Pleasant street B. & L. RR. station, for $38,000. As soon as the building committee can be coaxed into giving some facts concerning the new bank building we will lay them before the public.

— At an expense of between sixty and seventy dollars Buckman & White have had built and put into their grocery store, 209 Main street, one of the best refrigerators that can be found in this town in which to keep their celebrated "Star" creamery and other butter, cheese, etc. It makes a handsome piece of furniture, resembling a large bookcase, finished in cherry color, plated silver knobs, hinges, and otherwise neatly built. It is very convenient and makes a good addition to the store.

— The Winchester Savings Bank publishes a list of its officers and trustees in this issue of the JOURNAL from which it will be seen that it comprises a large number of the solid citizens of Winchester whose names are a guarantee of the soundness of the bank and of its careful conduct in the future. The officers are all well known to the community to be men of high character and business integrity. The bank has a large patronage and is doing a good business.

— The Advertiser will publish the public just where on Main street Mr. Marcellus Littlefield's house stands and which way a sidewalk on said street from said house to the railroad crossing would be likely to run and where land. The Advertiser is always so accurate as to its statements, you know!

— The Woburn Brass Band will give a concert on the Common in the course of a week or two to test public feeling in the matter of having a series of them during the summer. If sufficient patronage is proffered it is probable concerts will be given by both bands on alternate evenings during the hot months.

— Mr. E. D. Newton, as agent and manager of the Woburn Coal Co.'s business, has recently been making some important additions at their yard beyond the railroad track. It is his intention to have all the modern improvements and every facility for doing business rapidly and to the satisfaction of the public.

— We copy this from the baseball directory of the Globe: Rockets of Woburn: D. McLaughlin, p.; J. Curley, James McDermott, 1b.; P. McConlogue, 2b.; P. Callahan, 3b.; J. Haggerty, s. s.; J. Feeney, r. f.; E. Callahan, l. f.; J. McDermott, P. O. box 307, Woburn.

— Comrade Chas. W. Stevens who is to deliver the poem on Memorial day was formerly a commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. of Boston and during his recent visit to England was entertained by the A. & H. Artillery Co. of the City of Woburn. He is both a writer and a reader of marked ability.

— We copy this from the baseball directory of the Globe: Rockets of Woburn: D. McLaughlin, p.; J. Curley, James McDermott, 1b.; P. McConlogue, 2b.; P. Callahan, 3b.; J. Haggerty, s. s.; J. Feeney, r. f.; E. Callahan, l. f.; J. McDermott, P. O. box 307, Woburn.

— Comrade Chas. W. Stevens who is to deliver the poem on Memorial day was formerly a commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. of Boston and during his recent visit to England was entertained by the A. & H. Artillery Co. of the City of Woburn. He is both a writer and a reader of marked ability.

— It is reported that the Trustees of the Woburn Home for Aged Women are negotiating for the Converse house on High street for their future use. It is a good place whether the Home has it or not.

— This is "Anniversary Week" and of course the drouth broke just as soon as the ministers got fairly settled at the Hub and their baked beans. It hadn't rained for three weeks prior to Wednesday forenoon when heaven's flood-gates were hoisted a little ways and refreshing showers of rain came down. "Anniversary Week" did it.

— It was rather too moist for a military parade on Boston Common last Wednesday and so the Phalanx boys did not have quite so nice a time as they would have had under more favorable circumstances. A number of our citizens went to the Common to see our soldiers drill under the command of their new Captain Horace N. Conin.

— It is surmised that the Boston Globe's local reporter's suggestion respecting a park at the junction of Main, Scott and Johnson streets is one those rare and unaccountable cases where the wits is father of the thought, for nobody else ever heard of the idea or thought of such a thing, and besides all that, said reporter owns real estate not far about there.

— People are already making arrangements and laying by money for the summer vacation at the seashore or in the mountains. In a little more than four weeks the season will be upon us with all its heat, discomfort and discouragement for the poor creatures, like country editors for example, who have no means to help them to get away to cooler places and spots.

— At the Chautauqua circle on Tuesday evening the main feature of importance was an essay upon Town and City Government. It was the production of our townsmen, Hon. C. D. Adams, but for his convenience, in the press of other calls it was read by Mrs. Adams. It was a very interesting and valuable document, worthy of a far more extended hearing though a more appreciative audience could not be readily found. The style was clear and concise, the matter well considered and the final argument conclusive, showing the imperative need of a charter for the Union in the great war of the Rebellion.

— Next Monday will be Memorial Day. It will be observed all over the land that was loyal and true to the Union in the great war of the Rebellion. Two weeks ago the JOURNAL contained an outline of the manner in which the day would be observed by the G. A. R. Posts of Woburn, as directed from Mr. Fred Leslie of Post 161, so there is no need that we go over the ground again. The graves of soldiers in all the cemeteries will be decorated; there will be an oration by Rev. D. W. Winn, pastor of Baptist church; and banquets and speeches by each Post in the afternoon.

From

the newspaper

the

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*SPECIAL BARGAINS

—IN—

HOMESPUN SUITS,*$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at the

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long ex-

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.

WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

by daylight. They have a large crew of men at work and it will not be a great while before the foundation is ready for the superstructure.

B. B. Clark.—The Winchesters: H. Wheeler, c. B. Goddin, p. J. French, 1b.; F. Covell, 2b.; L. Goddin, 3b.; G. Perrin, 1. f.; W. Templeton, 4. f.; J. Kelly, r. f. Frank Covell, manager, Winchester, Mass.

The classes in carpentry will give a public exhibition of their work, at the Industrial Rooms, Shattucks Block, Saturday, May 28, from 4 to 5, P. M., and 7 to 9 in the evening. All interested are earnestly invited to attend.

Postmaster Garrison has of late been a great sufferer from disease of the eyes from which he has not recovered. It was said here a few days ago that there was imminent danger of his losing the sight of one eye and perhaps of both.

General Swift, the silver-tongued operator, will deliver the Memorial Day oration here if nothing happens to prevent. At the same time our esteemed townsmen, Mr. S. C. Small, will make the Memorial Day address at Bethel, Maine.

Miss Livingstone the first assistant teacher at the Centre Grammar School has been sick at her residence in Woburn the past week with pneumonia and the scholars in her room have had a vacation. As Dr. Kelly, who is Miss L.'s physician, says that she will not be able to resume her duties again this term, a Miss White of Woburn has been engaged for the rest of the term.—Wadleigh in Advertiser.

A report was current last week that the authorities had received official notice from the No. Woburn St. R'y Co. of their intention to commence immediately on the extension of the line of the road to Simeon's Corner, and there was rejoicing thereat. But on particular inquiry I learn that there was no foundation for such a report, and furthermore that there is no very strong likelihood that the extension will be touched this season. The officers of the corporation are too busy with building the East Middlesex St. Ry to allow of their attending to the extension to Simeon's Corner just at present.

Mrs. John M. Corse gave a delightful reception Thursday evening last at her summer house in Winchester, whither she and Gen. Corse removed a few weeks ago from the Berkley. Quite a number of Boston people were present, although the majority of the guests were from Winchester, Cambridge and the adjoining towns. The whole of the hospitable mansion was thrown open most invitingly, while the extreme warmth of the evening tempted not a few to enjoy the cool piazzas. There was music during the evening. Mrs. Stark, Mrs. Corse's sister, presided with others at the very pretty tea-table. Mrs. Tyler B. King, who has been visiting Mrs. Corse, assisted the hostess in receiving her guests.

Memorial Day.

Headquarters A. D. Weld Post 148, R. Department of Massachusetts.

WINCHESTER, May 17, 1887.

General Orders No. 1.

In accordance with the Rules and Regulations, and in compliance with

General Orders No. 11 from National Headquarters, and General Orders No.

3 from Department Headquarters,

Monday, May 30th, will be observed by this Post as Memorial Day.

The Pastor and F. W. Daniels and

B. S. Briggs have been chosen delegates, the former ex officio, to represent the Unitarian church of Winchester at the meetings of the Unitarian Association this year.

At the annual meeting of the American Congregational Association held at Pilgrim Hall, Tremont street, Boston, last Monday, Rev. Joseph J. Coit of this place was elected one of the Directors.

Ellis &amp; Co. are putting the foundation of the new Town House through

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Elegant Parasols in great variety.

Corsets, a new line at 71 cents. SPECIAL.

Handkerchiefs for Gent's, beautiful borders, 5 for 25 cents, worth 15 cents each.

Ribbon Remnants, very low.

Lace Edging, Linen, 2, 3 and 4 cents, a good SPECIAL.

Hamburgs, a new lot.

to co-operate with the Post in the proper observance of the day.

The Maplewood Band will furnish the music, and will give a concert on the Common, at 7 o'clock.

By order of

EDWIN ROBINSON,

Commander,

W. A. Snow, Adjutant.

North Woburn.

It looks now as though this village would go ahead faster in growth this summer than last. It is expected that a good many people will come here to live.

The new factory of Mr. J. O. Cummings in this section of the town has been rented to a firm of leather-makers who will give employment to from 50 to 60 hands. With the railroad extension we are just as well off for manufacturing facilities as the Centre was before the extension.

It is getting to be quite the style for ladies and gentlemen, all along the line from Winchester through the Centre to North Woburn to seat themselves in the pleasant open street-cars of the N. W. S. Ry on bright afternoons and take a trip to this village, and there is no drive that one can have with dog-cart, drag, Irish jaunting-car or coach-and-four that can compare with the pleasure and comfort derived from such little after-tea trips.

George W. Barker, brother to J. Barker and Bros., of Pittsfield and B. F. Barker, of this place, has moved from his residence at 52 Grove street, Chelsea, Mass., which he has rented, to North Woburn a few miles from Chelsea and Boston. The place where he now lives has an acre of land for cultivation, besides a number of fruit trees. There are also good schools, two churches and a library of some 20,000 volumes at North Woburn.—Berk. Co. Eagle.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full."Harper's Magazine" for June is richly illustrated with a number of striking figures stand out already—two soldiers, blind-artillery men, Mrs. Mollie Moore Davis, her "Rose Blanche" story, and Mrs. M. T. "D. K."—and the novelists, Edwin Lasserre, Byssner, to keep company with the frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full."Harper's Magazine" for June is richly illustrated with a number of striking figures stand out already—two soldiers, blind-artillery men, Mrs. Mollie Moore Davis, her "Rose Blanche" story, and Mrs. M. T. "D. K."—and the novelists, Edwin Lasserre, Byssner, to keep company with the frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next number will be given in full.That Library with its tempting frontispiece is a delightful pictorial vacation paper, by Amanda M. "Down Sandwich Town," full of interesting history of that remarkable town, and the famous salt marshes, old inns, early Massachusetts history, and with it all the Sandwich glass-works. But the great feature of the number is, of course, the opening of "M. & M. 's" new series by Charles E. Crispin.—The Story of Keown is ready for ten numbers, but it has been resolved to give the story entire in five or six numbers; consequently fourteen pages are devoted to it in this issue; the next

Literary Notices.

How Postal Cards are Made.

GOLDEN DAYS for May is as bright and interesting as ever. The stories are numerous, cleverly told and very interesting, and the same is true of the sketches, poetry, etc. The current Sunday school lessons are a popular feature of GOLDEN DAYS. The number is professedly and beautifully illustrated. Published by James Elverson, Philadelphia.

THE COTTAGE HEARTH for June is equal to any number that preceded it. The best and most noted Boston authors writes constantly for this excellent family monthly and some of their names appear appended to interesting papers published in the current issue. In fact COTTAGE HEARTH is as fresh as a daisy this month. We give the JOURNAL and the COTTAGE HEARTH for $2.00 per annum—price of JOURNAL alone.

The number of THE LIVING AGE for May 15th and 21st contain England and Europe, Madras, de Maintenon, The call of Savanarola and The Inquisitive Art of the Renaissance, The Empress Eugenia, Persia, and William Hazlitt, Pastoral. My Niece, Educational Nurseries, and a Paper Training Ship, Jewish Peasants, The Remittance of National Characters, and Spring, with instalments of Major Lawrence and Richard Cable, and poetry. For fifty numbers of sixty four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($2) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $1.00 monthlies or weeklies with THE LIVING AGE for a year postpaid. Little & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The new number of ST. NICHOLAS opens with a charming frontispiece by Frank Russell Green, entitled A Day Dream. It reminds us that summer is at hand; and Al Frank Dempster Sherman's poem, June, leaves no doubt upon the subject. Those who intend going abroad will not skip Frank R. Stockton's delightful King London. After perusing the Story of a Lost Dog, it may strike the reader that, if stray animals are so well taken care of in London, it will be quite unnecessary for humans to know their way about. Though the musical season is supposed now to have ended, we learn by Elizabeth's Concert that it has just begun, George J. Mason's article on A Bachelor and a Broker will prove very interesting. West Point cadets, and their life in camp is capitally described in Winning a Commission, by Lieutenant George L. Putman; while General Adam Baden shows what an unpleasing business theirs may be in his stirring paper on Sheridan in the Valley. The Child-Princes, Charlotte, is cleverly told, add there are some interesting items in Editorial Notes about another historic maiden, Grizel Cochrane, whose story was told in the February number. Juan and Juanita and Jenny's Boarding-house grow better as they grow older; the Brownies have an adventure with a bee-hive and there is a great deal more than there is room to tell of.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for June opens with The Whistling Buoy, a novel by Charles Barnard, author of The Tone Masters, The Soprano, and other popular books. The present novel is a breezy tale of sea and shore full of stirring incident and adventure. Mrs. Margaret J. Preston furnishes Some Records of Philip Bourke Marston, which contains many letters from the poet of great interest and literary value. The Wister parties of Philadelphia, which were once as famous abroad as at home, and which have recently been revived, from the subject of a chatty and entertaining sketch by Miss Anne H. Wharton. The Exchanged Crusader, by William Aschour, is an ingenious and brilliant trifle somewhat after the manner of Frank Stockton's extravagances. J. William White, M. D., Professor of Athletics in the University of Pennsylvania, contributes a timely and sensible article, A Physician's View of Exercise and Athletics, which should be widely read not only by young people but by their elders. Social Life at Cornell is the third in the series of essays on social life at our leading colleges, which are all contributed by undergraduates. The poetry is by Sarah M. B. Pratt, Mary B. Dodge, and Frederick Petersen. In Our Monthly Gossip, Miss Louis Stockton has a bright and humorous paper, entitled The Germ Theory of Ideas. Book-Talk reviews the leading novels the leading novels of the month, and has a few words to say about The Game of Draw Poker.

Appleton Morgan, in the June number of THE POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY, resumes the discussion of the question, Are Railroads Public Enemies? Professor William James, in Some Human Instincts, argues that man has more instincts than any other mammal. In Theology under its Changed Conditions, Canon Frendreys approves the most liberal exercise of criticism in matters of Biblical history and religious doctrine. Astronomy with an Opera-Glass can hardly be highly commended. In Science and Pseudo-Science, Professor Huxley sharply criticizes Professor Huxley on Canot Lidion. Gofio: Food and Physique, describes a peculiar food of the Canary Islands. Mr. Henry J. Philpot continues his essays on Social Sustenance. A paper of great economical interest on Industrial Education and Railway Services, is summarized from a report made by Dr. W. T. Barnard to the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Grains of Sand describes the origin and preparation of sand that is used in glass-making.

Interesting papers are given on Appearance and Reality in Pictures, and the customs of the Transylvanian Saxons regarding birth and death. The subject of the biographical sketch and accompanying portrait is the late M. Jules Jamin. The Higher Education of Women is discussed in the Editor's Table, and the important announcement is made that with the July number the Hon. David A. Wells will begin a series of articles on causes of depression of trade and industry. New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger.

— Do not wait any longer to insist upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the real thing. You can now get it at a price that may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

In serving planked shad, a Jerseyman, says the New York Sun, places a lot of big stones in a circle and builds a roaring wood fire in the centre. Then he scales the shad, splits them down the back, cleans and washes them and nails them on new pine shingles. Then he stands the shingles on end, leaning them against the circle of stones, with the bright red flesh of the shad exposed to the heat of the wood fire. If the fire is not the shad loses its color in about ten minutes, and then fifteen minutes, with a faint tinge of brown over the juicy white flesh, it is served smoking hot to the guest.

—

"There's no place like home," so the old song says, and it's true. But in some cases home is not so safe, so much more pleasant than it is. Now don't turn aside, poor, tired parent, and say, "it costs money to do that," for you can do it, and easily too, for a sound and reputable firm stands ready to aid you. Go and consult with B. A. Atkinson & Co., 827 Washington street.

—

Among the dry goods fabrics of a hundred years ago were Mugga, Mammories, Madras Pat Handkerchiefs, Aleahad Mowsannas, Chittabury Raffias and Jellapour Samnas. What has become of the glory of the past?

—

Mr. Arthur Shurtliff, Parker, Dakota, writes: "St. Jacobs Oil will cure one thing not advertised. It cured a wart on my finger which I had for years." Price fifty cents.

Love for a Zanzibar Maiden.

In April last the cable announced that the Portuguese Consul at Zanzibar had handed down his flag and was about to depart in high dudgeon. For several days there was a great tempest in a teapot, and then the gents quitted down and gave looks on a chance to down what the campus was all about. It was learned that the strained relations between the two Governments had grown out of the love affairs of Lieut. Sale, the son of a Portuguese Count who held a commission in the army of the Sultan of Zanzibar.

This festive young man met the comely daughter of a well-to-do Arab merchant and fell violently in love with her. He cared not a cent for all the bibles of Portugal, but he couldn't live without this dicky beauty of Zanzibar. She declined to marry him because he was a Roman Catholic. That stumbling block was easily removed. Lieut. Sale abjured Catholicism, suddenly outcast as a devout follower of Mohammed, and soon after the lovesmiten convert and the Arab bells were married.

The honeymoon did not last very long. Dieut. Sale soon grew tired of wife who couldn't read or write, and had seen nothing of the world outside Zanzibar. He suddenly became reconciled to the Roman Catholic faith and deserted his bride. She then decided that the climate of Zanzibar was unhealthy, and applied for a long leave of absence. The factor of the Sultan felt the young man's pulse, and pronounced him perfectly well. The Sultan then told the Lieutenant that he was a fraud and clapped him into jail without any ceremony.

The Sultan, it happened, had agreed some time before that the Portuguese Consul-General should have the right to fix the punishment of Portuguese offenders. As the Consul-General had not been consulted in this case, he made things unpleasant for his Highness. Said Barginh, and finally hauled down his flag, a proceeding that the Sultan could not contemplate with indifference when Portugal was looking enviously at a bit of his African territory, and was not unwilling to pick a chance to quarrel. So Said Barginh hastened to apologize, Lieut. Sale marched out of jail with an indemnity in his pocket, and the flag floated again from the Portuguese Consulate.

The sheets of postal cards are carried from the press a few feet to the feeders, who are women with long experience at their work. They are paid 41 1/2 cents per 100,000, and can feed from 500,000 to 600,000 a day. The sheets as they come to the feeders have previously been cut into long slips one card wide and ten long. The women feed them through another cutter that turns them out separate cards. Three girls take the cards from one feeder, one girl counts them to see that twenty-five are in each package, and the other two put paper binders around the packages. In a press a feeder feeds double, or two sheets at a time, and can feed four sheets at a time.

Most men when they want to insert a leaf in a book put mucilage on both sides of the leaf's inner edge, put it in the desired place, shut the book, and let the mucilage dry. Afterward, when they come to use the book, they find it hard to read the words at the very inside of the pages, and later on they wonder why that leaf will not stay stuck in. The trouble is that they may be fastened together in clusters resembling bunches of grapes, by means of the cords which fasten the mouth of the filled capsules. The manner of using these is obvious. They are taken into the mouth and compressed until the thin rubber bursts, when the liquid is swallowed and the skin ejected, and nobody would suspect that an expert in their use was doing anything more objectionable than cutting some particularly vicious grapes.

In the specification made by the inventor he says: "My device provides a convenient means for invalids to take not only liquid medicine, but small doses of spirituous refreshments in travelling, or in public places, without attracting the observation or criticism of those present, which is apt to be the case when a bottle is resorted to."

One wishes the ingenuity shown in this and similar devices for taking spirituous refreshment without attracting observation or criticism was put to better use. Still, the fact that drinkers feel it necessary to escape observation, because it brings criticism, is an evidence of improved public sentiment.

C. I. C.—It is a bargain.

A Fair Bargain.

Dealer in crockeryware (to customers)—No, I don't see that I can let you have that tea set for anything less.

Customer—Well, it might pay you to secure my trade.

D. L. C.—Hump! going into the retail business?

C. I. C.—No, but I've just got married.

D. L. C.—That's no inducement. Brides are usually very careful with their dishes.

C. I. C.—But we are going to keep a kitchen girl.

D. L. C.—Oh! you are? Certainly sir, we treat you liberally. I'll make a discount of seventy-five per cent on this purchase on the condition that you give me your trade hereafter.

C. I. C.—It is a bargain.

A Very Narrow Escape.

"Yes, I had a very narrow escape," said a prominent citizen to a friend. "I was confined to my bed for a year and my friends gave me up for a consumptive's grave, until I began using King's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, and here I am, sound and hearty. You will find it for sale by Chas. H. Bass, Druggist. Price $1.00 and $1 trial bottles."

An Imperative Necessity.

What pure air is to a healthy locality, what pure character is to the healthy home keeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody at this season. The body needs to be thoroughly renovated, the blood purified and vitalized, the germs of the disease destroyed. Sarsaparilla, Salt Rheum, and all other blood disorders are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the most popular and successful spring medicine.

A Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger, especially when you are in a cold climate. Do not wait any longer to insist upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the real thing. You can now get it at a price that may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store.

In serving planked shad, a Jerseyman, says the New York Sun, places a lot of big stones in a circle and builds a roaring wood fire in the centre. Then he scales the shad, splits them down the back, cleans and washes them and nails them on new pine shingles. Then he stands the shingles on end, leaning them against the circle of stones, with the bright red flesh of the shad exposed to the heat of the wood fire.

If the fire is not the shad loses its color in about ten minutes, and then fifteen minutes, with a faint tinge of brown over the juicy white flesh, it is served smoking hot to the guest.

—

Among the dry goods fabrics of a hundred years ago were Mugga, Mammories, Madras Pat Handkerchiefs, Aleahad Mowsannas, Chittabury Raffias and Jellapour Samnas. What has become of the glory of the past?

—

A bounty of ten cents for dead crows is paid by the State of Maine.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men. The Governor, the Commissioner of Insurance, one of the three Railroad Commissioners and a score of minor officials are newspaper men.

—

A genuine diamond may be heated to a white heat in an air tight retort without the slightest injury. There are other tests, such as the application of strong acids. Many crystals will melt glass, but diamonds cut it most easily.

—

Speaking of drinking, it may be observed that the man who says he can "take it or leave it alone" generally takes it.

—

A bounty of ten cents for dead crows is paid by the State of Maine.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—

The Government of Kansas is now pretty much in the hands of newspaper men.

—</p

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1887.

THE JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horner, 15 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John C. Stevens, 2d, Commissaryville, Sam'l E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

MEMORIAL DAY.

After a long, cold storm the sun rose clear and bright last Monday morning, and although for a few hours thereafter bankings of clouds threatened rain for Memorial Day by 10 o'clock it was all sunshiny again and there was fair, fine weather through the afternoon and evening. It was not as hot, dusty and uncomfortable as it usually is on Veterans' day, but a cool breeze from the ocean made marching endurable and attendance on the literary exercises in Lyceum Hall a pleasure. Indeed, it was very nearly a typical June day, clear, sweet, elastic, with just a breath of roses in the air, the grass freshened by recent rains, apple-trees in blossom, meadows yellow with dandelions, and all nature decked in holiday dress and wearing smiles on its face as if joyous, happy and at peace with the world and the rest of mankind.

The soldier's monument on the Common was decorated quite early in the morning which began the memorial exercises of the day. Many beautiful flowers, plants, ferns, green vines, and flags were arranged in festoons, garlands and wreaths with which to beautify the granite and bronze of base, pedestal and statue of the monument, and arrayed in these it was never more appropriately ornamented or looked more pleasing and attractive. Soon after this further execution of the orders of Commanders Leslie of Post 161, and Colgate of Post 33, as published in the JOURNAL of last week, was commenced. In the forenoon both Posts marched to Salem street and Mountvale cemeteries, headed by the National Band, and decorated the graves of soldiers and sailors in each, after which they returned to their respective halls. The line was longer than usual, the ranks were full, and the displays was in the highest degree creditable to the interest taken in the organizations. It was remarked on all sides that it was the best parade exhibition the old soldiers here have made for some years.

There was a very large audience gathered at 2:30 in Lyceum Hall to enjoy the literary and musical portion of the programme. The hall was full above and below and yet neither the orator, poet or people suffered from the heat, as has sometimes been the case heretofore. The oration was delivered by Rev. D. D. Wian, pastor of the Baptist church of this town, and it was an eloquent one. The large audience were entirely quiet during its delivery and listened to it with marked attention. Its sentiment and the garb it was dressed in were fitting to the day and occasion, and from beginning to end the oration was loyal, fervent and eloquent. An original poem was delivered by Comrade Charles W. Stevens of Boston. It was rich. It was also greatly enjoyed by those who heard it. The veterans were particularly delighted with the sentiment of the poem and the music of its measure. Comrade Stevens is an author of note as well as a reader of wide reputation, and in either capacity he always acquires himself with great credit. The "boys" said afterwards that they hadn't heard anything so good in verse as Mr. Stevens's poem for a great while. The usual ceremonies of reading of orders by Adjutant Hathaway of Post 161, and address of welcome by Commander Leslie of the same, were duly observed after Rev. Mr. Wright, pastor of the M. E. Church, had asked a blessing on the day and occasion and there had been good music by a quartet, etc. The exercises were all interesting from invocation to benediction, and the literary contributions to the celebration were of a very meritorious, acceptable and satisfactory character.

Thus passed and was observed another Memorial Day here, and although the ranks of the veterans as they marched up and down the streets were not so full as last year and the year before and back of that, some having dropped out since last year's observance of the day, as others doubtless will fall by the way ere the next one is reached, it and its incidents were well enjoyed by the Posts and people.

Evidence of what a good, sturdy fight in an honest cause can accomplish is furnished by the Boston Record in its contest with the West End Land Company of Boston, a powerful syndicate of capitalist which is doing all it can to gobble up the street railroads in the city besides having an eye on the Common and other things held sacred by all true and loyal Bostonians, to secure which a bill is now pending before the Legislature. The Record has driven the syndicate to abandon its watered stock scheme but it will not stop until it surrenders other positions equally inimical to public interests, for unless we greatly misjudge that spunk paper it has enlisted for "during the war," which may mean a complete route of the enemy.

Editor O'Brien of Dublin who is after the scalp of Gov. Gen. Lansdowne of Canada met with a cordial reception on his visit to Boston a few days since and was hospitably cared for during his stay. While lecturing in Canada he told some pretty hard stories about Lansdowne and his cruelty in evicting tenants from his Irish estates who are unable to pay up, which stories did not set well on the stomachs of some of the Orangemen who stoned and otherwise maltreated O'Brien at some of the places visited by him. He made it out, and it appears to be true, that Lansdowne is a cruel and unjust landlord.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

S. R. Niles—Money to loan.
Hatch & Adams—Goodfellow
T. C. & Son—Furniture
C. A. Smith & Son—Dry Goods.
Town of Woburn—Health Notice.
L. H. Chadbourne—Boots & Shoes.

Town Clerk Seeley had issued licenses for 510 dogs at the close of May 31.

Last Sunday night James Crowley had one of his legs broken by a stone thrown at him.

Copeland & Bowser hope to see the addition to their store all complete in a few days.

The Assessors are busy on the tax books and the commitment to the Collector will be made in due season.

Mrs. Packard's millinery rooms in Trill Block are well patronized, and the ladies are well pleased with her work.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the Congregational church parlor on Monday, June 9, at 3 P. M.

Miss Nellie E. Platte gave a piano recital at the Baptist church last evening at which the famous Wulf Freze played the cello.

Mishawum Lodge, A. O. U. W. is flourishing. Three applications for membership were received at the last meeting and others are ready to join.

We know of two Woburn business men at least who live at Winchester because they can find no houses in this town to live in. This ought not to be thus.

Aunt Ben's snail about "advertising schemes" the editor of the Advertiser is hereby informed that we are running our business to suit ourselves mostly by young folks.

The St. Charles and Sun Electric baseball clubs played a good game near Walnut Hill last Monday afternoon, which was won by the former which is gaining quite a reputation as players. The score stood 13 for the St. Charles to 4 for the Electric fellows, who, while they are very handy with bat and ball, failed to overcome the skill and prowess of their opponents on this occasion.

When Chief Nelson returned from his fishing trip to Parlin Pond, Somers County, Maine, the other day, he brought along those trout for the JOURNAL, and a taste for the rest of the neighbors. They were excellent and the consumption of them was greatly enjoyed by all those who had the good fortune to get a bite, of which Editor Allen was not one. We publicly return thanks to Chief Nelson for the generous mass of "speckled beauties."

Mr. John O'Brien fell dead of heart disease in G. A. R. Hall last Thursday evening. As a member of Post 33 he was attending a meeting and appeared to be in his customary health but while conversing with some of the comrades suddenly fell from his chair and expired. His funeral was largely attended by the veterans and others on Sunday. Mr. O'Brien served in the Fourth Heavy Artillery during the war. He left a widow and two children to mourn his sudden death.

The Woburn JOURNAL which calls Editor Allen of the Woburn Advertiser everything but a horse-thief, wants the Riverside News to "emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL"—Riverside News. Why don't you then?

Next Monday evening a lodge of the Royal Society of Goodfellows will be instituted at G. A. R. Hall, as per our address in this paper. Already over 30 persons have been examined by Dr. Kelley for admission.

There was a heavy and much-needed rain last Saturday night which was continued intermittently during Sunday and heavy showers through the week. It was a cold, continuous pour-down during Saturday night.

The National Band gave a grand concert on the Common between one and two o'clock on Memorial Day afternoon which a great many people assembled to hear. It was an agreeable feature of the doings of the day.

John G. Maguire, Esq., has purchased a residence lot of Mr. Flagg on Montvale Avenue on which it is currently reported he will soon build him a home. It is a desirable location and good neighborhood—as much so as any in town.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

This is one of the most famous pictures in the world and has been exhibited in all the great capitals of Europe to thousands on thousands of delighted people.

The Phalanx under command of Capt. Conn made a fine appearance when doing escort duty for the Veterans on Memorial Day. They can't scare up much like the military companies anywhere than the Phalanx is. The new officers are all right too.

Miss Marion L. Smith, daughter of Mr. Rufus Smith, and Miss Lizzie Dodge, daughter of Mr. F. B. Dodge, of Woburn, will graduate from Wellesley College on the 21st instant, they having already completed their studies at that famous seat of learning.

Last Sunday night Ed. McMahon of this place gave John Quinlan of Somerville a neat thrashing on Charles Town Neck. Somerville stands no show with Woburn in exhibitions of the "manly art of self-defense." Both men were taken to the lock-up by officials cops.

Fourth of July. The 4th of July Committee of 1884, which was made a permanent one, are notified to meet in the Board of Trade Rooms at 8 o'clock sharp this Friday, evening, to canvass the matter of a celebration this year. As the business will be important a full meeting is desired.

About 7 o'clock last Tuesday evening Officer Claffy found the son of Mr. James McMahon lying in front of Cuneo's fruit stand on Walnut street in an insensible condition and took him home. It seems the lad is subject to fits and had probably fallen in one just before Officer Claffy came along.

In giving the names of the officers of the Woburn Home for Aged Women we unintentionally omitted the name of Miss Ruth Maria Leathie, who is the Collector of the Corporation, and Miss E. B. Plympton and of Mrs. Helen C. Hanson, who are the Auditors. The omission was an error in copying the names of the officers.

Over 1000 people visited the Salem street cemetery on Memorial Day, many of them bearing flowers with which to decorate the graves of dead relatives and friends. The lots, grounds, walks, etc. are in excellent condition and are looking very finely at the present time. The Commissioners give the cemetery the best of care.

The Social Benevolent Society of the Congregational church will give a free strawberry festival in the vestry of the church on next Thursday evening. An entertainment is also in contemplation for the same time. As the strawberries and cream and other good things will be free it will be a wonder if the vestry is not filled with people mostly by young folks.

A large company of friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Murdock on the corner of East and High street last Saturday evening to celebrate in an appropriate manner the 25th anniversary of the marriage of that estimable pair, or to observe their Silver Wedding, as it is more popularly called, and they all had a very nice time indeed. The well-lighted and pleasant parlors of their residence were filled with ladies and gentlemen who know and esteem Mr. and Mrs. Murdock by whom the evening was spent in such ways as suited them best and contributed most to their happiness. There was an excellent spread of which all partook with relish and satisfaction. The host and hostess were the recipients of many valuable and beautiful silver presents the receipt of which they gratefully acknowledged in fitting terms. At the close of a delightful evening the party broke up and the members repaired to their homes.

The St. Charles and Sun Electric baseball clubs played a good game near Walnut Hill last Monday afternoon, which was won by the former which is gaining quite a reputation as players. The score stood 13 for the St. Charles to 4 for the Electric fellows, who, while they are very handy with bat and ball, failed to overcome the skill and prowess of their opponents on this occasion.

When Chief Nelson returned from his fishing trip to Parlin Pond, Somers County, Maine, the other day, he brought along those trout for the JOURNAL, and a taste for the rest of the neighbors. They were excellent and the consumption of them was greatly enjoyed by all those who had the good fortune to get a bite, of which Editor Allen was not one. We publicly return thanks to Chief Nelson for the generous mass of "speckled beauties."

Mr. John O'Brien fell dead of heart disease in G. A. R. Hall last Thursday evening. As a member of Post 33 he was attending a meeting and appeared to be in his customary health but while conversing with some of the comrades suddenly fell from his chair and expired. His funeral was largely attended by the veterans and others on Sunday. Mr. O'Brien served in the Fourth Heavy Artillery during the war. He left a widow and two children to mourn his sudden death.

The Woburn JOURNAL which calls Editor Allen of the Woburn Advertiser everything but a horse-thief, wants the Riverside News to "emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL"—Riverside News. Why don't you then?

There will be a meeting of the Managers of the Corporation for the maintenance of the Woburn Home for Aged Women at the house of Mrs. Mary Shaw, Tuesday, June 7, at 2:30 P. M.

Grove meetings conducted by Rev. W. A. Jackson will begin at Pollard's Grove next Sunday. For two or three years past these meetings have been largely attended and very interesting.

Mr. Titus, agent for the sale of the Bryant and King addition to Woburn, sold two lots to Boston parties early this week, who will build residences on them at once. The town is filling up fast.

The Woburn JOURNAL which calls Editor Allen of the Woburn Advertiser everything but a horse-thief, wants the Riverside News to "emulate the virtues of the JOURNAL"—Riverside News. Why don't you then?

Next Monday evening a lodge of the Royal Society of Goodfellows will be instituted at G. A. R. Hall, as per our address in this paper. Already over 30 persons have been examined by Dr. Kelley for admission.

There was a heavy and much-needed rain last Saturday night which was continued intermittently during Sunday and heavy showers through the week. It was a cold, continuous pour-down during Saturday night.

The National Band gave a grand concert on the Common between one and two o'clock on Memorial Day afternoon which a great many people assembled to hear. It was an agreeable feature of the doings of the day.

John G. Maguire, Esq., has purchased a residence lot of Mr. Flagg on Montvale Avenue on which it is currently reported he will soon build him a home. It is a desirable location and good neighborhood—as much so as any in town.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

This is one of the most famous pictures in the world and has been exhibited in all the great capitals of Europe to thousands on thousands of delighted people.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

This is one of the most famous pictures in the world and has been exhibited in all the great capitals of Europe to thousands on thousands of delighted people.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

This is one of the most famous pictures in the world and has been exhibited in all the great capitals of Europe to thousands on thousands of delighted people.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

This is one of the most famous pictures in the world and has been exhibited in all the great capitals of Europe to thousands on thousands of delighted people.

The RR. Co. are putting in gates at the Central Square crossing. It is understood that trains will begin to stop there when the summer time table is adopted, which it is also understood will make its appearance early in this present month.

There was an immense crowd at the picnic of the Celtic Society in Himalaya Grove last Monday. It was a great day for a picnic and a great picnic for the day. The barges made mints of money carrying passengers to and from the grove.

Slater & Leeman, well known painters, are putting the finishing touches to the cases in the Library which are to contain Mr. Cummings's contribution of a natural history collection. They are also doing the painting for Copeland's store.

A complimentary First View of Munkacsy's painting, "Christ before Pilate," will be given at Horticultural Hall, Boston, next Monday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., to which we thank the managers for complimentary tickets.

Woman's Column.

Our Dumb Friends.

MILLINERY VS. SPORTSMEN.

Yes, there are plenty of them, and of superfluous men also. But you will not always find them among the unmarried. They are superfluous women who give themselves to idle pleasure and mortal fane, and despite the activities of the age into which they are born; who are so lacking in principle that they will accept any man in marriage—an ologenarian, an imbecile or a debâche—if his establishment be satisfactory; who, anchored in the haven of a husband's love, and surrounded by the evidences of his practical thoughtfulness, become steeped in self-indulgence, and make their whole life a hot pursuit of folly and fashion, interested only in the whims of the hour.

The estimate of woman is changed so that she may be valued for what she is in herself. If she be worthless as woman, she will be worthless as wife and mother. Let her training be such that, whether married or single, she shall have character, ability to stand alone, with value in herself. Then will she enrich society, and whether wife, mother or celibate, will in no true sense of the word, ever become a "superfluous woman."—Mrs. Livermore.

Grace Greenwood says: "I believe for one woman whom the pursuits of literature, the ambition of authorship, and the love of fame have rendered unfit for home life, a thousand have been made undomestic by poor social strivings, the follies of fashion and the intoxicating destination which mere personal beauty confers."

The young women of Newton, N. J., have formed a league and pledged themselves to refuse the attentions of young men who use alcohol or tobacco.

Mrs. Daniels, wife of Capt. Daniels of the "Water Lily," has been licensed as pilot of that steamer. She is forty-two years old, and is believed to be the only woman pilot in the country, though two women have been licensed as captains.

Miss Mary Tillinghast is one of the most successful among the women who have made a business of decorative tapestry. She has invented a new kind of tapestry hangings for her house. She supplied the designs for the stained-glass window just erected in Grace Church, N. Y., representing Jacob's Dream. This is said to be the first piece of cathedral art in this country ever intrusted to a woman.

The first attempt in the United States, to give women a higher education, was when Oberlin College, in 1834, opened its doors to the sisters of its young men students. Three years later Mt. Holyoke Seminary was established. In 1865 Vassar College was opened. Ten years later Smith College in Northampton, and Wellesley College, near Boston, were both opened. And in February, 1879, Harvard College offered to women a separate course of study similar to that prescribed for the young men. It is said that the first United States colleges contain 18,000 women students.

Elizabeth Steward Phelps is at work upon a woman suffrage novel, they say.

Miss Alice E. Freeman is announced to read a paper on "Colleges for Women" before the National Educational Association in Chicago in July.

WOMEN AGAINST WAR.

Madame Gréiss-Traut, of Paris, vice-president of the Association for the Improvement of the Condition of Women, is circulating a "Declaration of Women against War," as follows:

"We, the women of all lands, who constitute the half of mankind, but are systematically excluded from the councils of the men, hereby declare our abhorrence of the barbarous and cruel wars."

"We, from whom war takes all that unites us in life—fathers, sons, and hearth—we cannot see any real distinction between the murderer and the wholesale slaughterers who are crowned by society with glory and honor."

"We cannot shut our ears to the voice which says, 'Thou shalt not kill.'

"We who are held competent by society to undertake and carry out the most responsible obligations, have the special mission of teaching reconciliation, peace, and resignation."

"Our long silence on this matter of war makes us accomplices in this abominable contempt for human life, and in the destruction of brotherly love."

"We, therefore, solemnly protest against war as a detestable misuse of power, and in favor of the blissful and pacific mode of International Arbitration."

"We protest in the name of humanity, whose entire rights are violated, and of the fatherland which is bereft of its sons."

"We address this appeal to the law-makers, that they may provide measures, whereby the teachers of youth shall inculcate these principles, leading our sons to abhor war, bloodshed, and fratricide."

The above declaration has been addressed to the members of both chambers of the French Legislature.

Miss Octavia Hill, who has done so much to improve the condition of the London slums, purposes to erect a kind of palace of entertainment in Southwark for the poor people of that district.

"The last lot of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is nearly gone, and you had better make us another shipment of twenty-five gross. We have never sold any cough preparation so given such universal satisfaction as Adamson's, and the demand is constantly increasing. Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., New England Patent Medicine Warehouse, 36 and 38 Hanover Street, Boston."

The highest steeples in the world are those on the Cologne cathedral, and are 511 feet high. This cathedral is the largest piece of Gothic architecture in the world.

WHERE AND HOW JET IS FOUND.

Claims of the Whithy People in Regard to Its Formation.

Under the above title the Boston Globe has something to say in behalf of the leather-workers and those who wear the products of their clever fingers, then arraigns for inconsistency some of the men who cried aloud against woman's cruelty.

If one asks hundreds of the sterner sex who join in this wild outcry against the cruelty of the women, how they intend to spend their vacations this summer, i.e., ninety-nine out of every hundred will answer either "hunting" or "fishing," and in these two words lies the text of a mighty sermon. What is implied by them save the wilful, premeditated and unnecessary killing of the happy and innocent little lives about which these men waxed so eloquent a few months since?

The stratum called jet rock is found mostly at Whitby, in a sort of shale, which is easily split, and yields ten gallons of oil a ton. The rock is thin, and the amount exhalated depends in a great measure upon the hygroscopic condition of atmosphere, it becomes apparent that even a slight change of only 1 per cent, in the relative humidity exercises a marked influence upon the cutaneous and respiratory excretions produces a corresponding change in the urine, respiration, and not infrequently in that of the intestinal canal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

Grace Greenwood says: "I believe for one woman whom the pursuits of literature, the ambition of authorship, and the love of fame have rendered unfit for home life, a thousand have been made undomestic by poor social strivings, the follies of fashion and the intoxicating destination which mere personal beauty confers."

The young women of Newton, N. J., have formed a league and pledged themselves to refuse the attentions of young men who use alcohol or tobacco.

Mrs. Daniels, wife of Capt. Daniels of the "Water Lily," has been licensed as pilot of that steamer. She is forty-two years old, and is believed to be the only woman pilot in the country, though two women have been licensed as captains.

Miss Mary Tillinghast is one of the most successful among the women who have made a business of decorative tapestry. She has invented a new kind of tapestry hangings for her house. She supplied the designs for the stained-glass window just erected in Grace Church, N. Y., representing Jacob's Dream. This is said to be the first piece of cathedral art in this country ever intrusted to a woman.

The first attempt in the United States, to give women a higher education, was when Oberlin College, in 1834, opened its doors to the sisters of its young men students. Three years later Mt. Holyoke Seminary was established. In 1865 Vassar College was opened. Ten years later Smith College in Northampton, and Wellesley College, near Boston, were both opened. And in February, 1879, Harvard College offered to women a separate course of study similar to that prescribed for the young men. It is said that the first United States colleges contain 18,000 women students.

Elizabeth Steward Phelps is at work upon a woman suffrage novel, they say.

Miss Alice E. Freeman is announced to read a paper on "Colleges for Women" before the National Educational Association in Chicago in July.

WOMEN AGAINST WAR.

Madame Gréiss-Traut, of Paris, vice-president of the Association for the Improvement of the Condition of Women, is circulating a "Declaration of Women against War," as follows:

"We, the women of all lands, who constitute the half of mankind, but are systematically excluded from the councils of the men, hereby declare our abhorrence of the barbarous and cruel wars."

"We, from whom war takes all that unites us in life—fathers, sons, and hearth—we cannot see any real distinction between the murderer and the wholesale slaughterers who are crowned by society with glory and honor."

"We cannot shut our ears to the voice which says, 'Thou shalt not kill.'

"We who are held competent by society to undertake and carry out the most responsible obligations, have the special mission of teaching reconciliation, peace, and resignation."

"Our long silence on this matter of war makes us accomplices in this abominable contempt for human life, and in the destruction of brotherly love."

"We, therefore, solemnly protest against war as a detestable misuse of power, and in favor of the blissful and pacific mode of International Arbitration."

"We protest in the name of humanity, whose entire rights are violated, and of the fatherland which is bereft of its sons."

"We address this appeal to the law-makers, that they may provide measures, whereby the teachers of youth shall inculcate these principles, leading our sons to abhor war, bloodshed, and fratricide."

The above declaration has been addressed to the members of both chambers of the French Legislature.

Miss Octavia Hill, who has done so much to improve the condition of the London slums, purposes to erect a kind of palace of entertainment in Southwark for the poor people of that district.

"The last lot of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is nearly gone, and you had better make us another shipment of twenty-five gross. We have never sold any cough preparation so given such universal satisfaction as Adamson's, and the demand is constantly increasing. Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., New England Patent Medicine Warehouse, 36 and 38 Hanover Street, Boston."

The highest steeples in the world are those on the Cologne cathedral, and are 511 feet high. This cathedral is the largest piece of Gothic architecture in the world.

HUMIDITY OF THE AIR.

Its Effect on Physique in Summer and Winter—Sudden Changes.

The amount of aqueous vapor that the atmosphere is capable of holding varies with the temperature, when the air is warm, greater in summer than in winter, and greater in a warm than a cold climate. The relative humidity exercises a powerful influence upon animal and vegetable life. It is a well known fact that the inhabitants of a dry climate are, as a rule, thin and sallow, while those living in a humid climate have well developed figures and robust complexions. It is to the greater dryness of this country that we owe the peculiar physique of our people, which is so different from that of our English ancestors.

The stratum called jet rock is found mostly at Whitby, in a sort of shale, which is easily split, and yields ten gallons of oil a ton. The rock is thin, and the amount exhalated depends in a great measure upon the hygroscopic condition of atmosphere, it becomes apparent that even a slight change of only 1 per cent, in the relative humidity exercises a marked influence upon the cutaneous and respiratory excretions produces a corresponding change in the urine, respiration, and not infrequently in that of the intestinal canal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate, or to one of considerable elevation, and exhibits itself in a certain degree of restlessness, pain, and change in the percentage of relative humidity, operate very sensitively in a diseased organism, their first effects being a sudden increase or diminution in the blood pressure. Hence high altitudes, owing to diminished atmospheric pressure, even when combined with a high percentage of relative humidity, is similar in its effects to a dry climate with lower elevation.—New York Medical Journal.

"Dry climates by diminishing the water in the blood act as a powerful stimulant to the nervous system, increasing its functional activity, causing excitement and sleeplessness, and even slight climates, although admirably adapted for the treatment of pulmonary diseases, are contraindicated in many nervous affections. This effect is observed even in healthy persons on their removal to a dry climate

THE WOBURN JOURNAL.

George A. Hobbs, Publisher. Office at 204 Main Street. $2.00 a Year. Single Copies 5 Cents.

VOL. XXXVII.

WOBURN, MASS., FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1887.

NO. 25.

SPRING MEDICINES.

Hill's Sarsaparilla.
Compound Elixir Bark and Iron, etc.

W.M. W. HILL, Registered Pharmacist,

OPP. THE COMMON.

BOSTON & LOWELL RAILROAD.

FEB. 21, 1887.

Passenger Service from Woburn.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.
Engineers, Clarence Littlefield, Chief; John C. Loring, Engineer; Rufus F. Poole, Richard Garry.
Steamer No. 1, House on Woburn street.
D. P. Winslow Hose Co., No. 1, Winn street.
Vidette Hose Co., No. 2, Main street, North Woburn.
John Cummings Hose Co., No. 3, Willow street, Cummingsville.
Charles P. Winslow Co., No. 4, Thorn Street, East Woburn.
Highland Hose Co., No. 5, Corner Green and Prospect street.
Clinton Hose Co., No. 6, Clinton street, Central Square.
Gilesford & Laddier Co., No. 7, Main street, North Woburn.

ACCIDENT

FOR BOSTON, 7:26, 9:23, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M., 7:09, 10:00, P. M.; SUNDAY, 9:34, A. M., 12:24, 1:15 P. M.; RAILROAD, 7:25, 8:00, 10:00, A. M., 12:24, 1:15 P. M., 2:00, 3:45, 4:45, 5:35, 5:50, 6:15, 6:45, 7:30, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, A. M., 12:00, 1:30, 4:05, 6:05, 9:20, P. M.; SUNDAY, 8:55 A. M., 12:45 P. M.

FOR LOWELL, 7:26, 9:23, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M., 7:09, 10:00, P. M.; SUNDAY, 9:28 A. M., 12:24, 1:15 P. M., 2:25, 3:55, 5:15 P. M.

FOR MONTREAL, 7:26, 9:23, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M., 7:09, 10:00, P. M.

FOR WARREN, FRADWELL, SUNAPEE, NEW PORT, N. H., and CLAREMONT, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR PENACOOK, FRANKLIN, LEBANON and WHITER RIVER JUNCTION, 7:26, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR NASHUA, MANCHESTER, CONCORD, N. H., 7:26, 11:24 A. M., 2:24, 6:45 P. M.

FOR GREENFIELD, PETERBORO, HILLSBORO and KEENE, N. H., 7:26 A. M., 3:21 P. M.

FOR ANDOVER and WILTON N. H., 7:26, 11:24 P. M.

FOR WARREN, BRADFORD, SUNAPEE, NEW PORT, N. H., and CLAREMONT, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR PELTON, L. C. MERRILL, MEREDITH, ASHLAND and LACONIA, 9:23, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR stations north of Plymouth and stations on the Passumpsic R. R., at 7:26, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR MONTEAL, 7:26, 9:23, 11:24 A. M., 2:24 P. M.

FOR W. STORER, Asst. Gen'l Passenger Agent C. S. MILLER, Gen'l Sup't.

Business Cards.

MOSES BANCROFT, SEWING MACHINES AND FINDINGS,

14 MAIN ST., WOBURN, SOLE'S BLOCK

CENTRAL HOUSE

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable, RAED HAY & STRAW, For Sale,

12 MAIN ST., WOBURN.

A choice assortment of Harnesses, Baskets, Whips, etc., constantly on hand and for sale.

19 G. F. JONES, Proprietor.

FOR

Chapped Hands and Face

— USE —

Leeds's Glycerine Lotion,

THE BEST THING OUT.

WILLIAM WINN & CO.,

AUCTIONEERS.

Sale of Real Estate and Personal Property atted to on reasonable terms.

60 Main St., WOBURN BARGAIN STORE,

60 Main St., will receive prompt attention.

W. WINN, E. PHILLIPS.

L. THOMPSON,

HARDWARE!

Farming Tools and Seeds, Painters' Supplies, Stores and Kitchen Ware.

No. 23 Main Street, WOBURN.

DEALER, REPAIRER.

121 Main St., Allen's Block.

DAVID RONCO,

Shaving and Hair-Dressing

Rooms, 178 Main Street.

SHAVING, 10 CENTS

GEORGE P. BROWN,

DEALER IN —

Drugs and Medicines, and Druggists' Sundries.

WINCHESTER, MASS.

Physician's prescriptions carefully compounded, and orders answered with care and dispatch. The public will find our stock of medicines complete warranted genuine, and of the best quality.

THOMAS H. HILL,

Insurance, Notary Public,

and Justice of Peace.

Agent ALLAN S. S. LI NE

DRAWER J. WOBURN.

J. R. CARTER & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Coal, Wood, Lumber,

Lime, Cement, Etc.

105 Main St., WOBURN.

Old stand of J. J. Munroe, Agt.

J. M. ELLIS & CO.,

Stone Masons and Contractors

Office and Stable, Park St., Woburn, Mass.

ROOFING and CONCRETING done to order.

DERRICKS to let and for sale.

ALL KINDS OF PRINTING AT THE JOURNAL OFFICE.

Curtis's Mammoth Bazaar!

154 MAIN STREET. Opp. the Common.

SOME OF OUR LEADERS!

Ten piece Toilet Set—a beauty—only $3.25. Children's Garden Tools of all kinds. Express Wagons and Wheelbarrows for boys, all sizes and prices. Colored Glass Water Sets with Brass Trays, only $1.25. Colored Glass Tumblers, only 5 cents each.

A COMPLETE LINE OF Balls, Bats, Polo Sticks, Hoops, &c., AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

J. C. DAVIS
OLD SOAP

MURPHY & CO. LTD.

"My Golli! Dat's de bather Soap. I febber seed. 'Paint nuff' tall to scrub dis yore floor when I uses dem J. C. Davis Old Soap. It's de best, sure nuff. I be tellin' ye. You hear me, chil."

"LEADS

THE WORLD."

As the most powerful detergent of the age.

HEALTHFUL, CLEANSING, LABOR SAVING.

The Purest, Cleanest and Sweetest SOAP in the market.

Science and Chemistry can produce nothing finer. Its worth is attested by thousands who are using it.

Munificent presents for all who use it.

Send us the CENTRE SQUARES cut from twenty-five boxes of J. C. DAVIS OLD SOAP wrappers, and receive a present from Frank P. Murphy, 100 Main Street, Boston, or the Wall Pocket. Send centre square of wrappers only, to avoid expense of postage. These are the handsomest gifts offered by any soap concern. Do not confound them with cheap chums.

J. C. DAVIS & SON, 3 CHATHAM STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

ESTABLISHED SINCE 1810.

Insurance!

Employees Liability,

For six years JOHN H. FOX, has been doing an Accident Insurance business among the WORKMEN of WOBURN and vicinity. How HONESTLY THAT BUSINESS has been conducted is known to all who have had Policies. Having increased his business and secured the leaving the shop brushed past him. It must be confessed the situation was a trouble-some one, and sitting in the library the next day, Dora thought over her plans rather anxiously.

Mrs. Carmichael was, or fancied herself an invalid, and rarely showed up before lunch (and not always then), though ready enough for her "social duties" later in the day, so her daughter was at full liberty to arrange matters as she pleased. Accordingly she told the butler that if Mr. Lorimer called, he was at once to be shown to her in her library, and that if Lord Liscarral should call in the meantime, he was to be told she would soon be disengaged, and be requested to await her in the drawing room. So far so good.

But a ring at the door bell startled her from her reverie, and she waited expecting to see Lorimer ushered in. Instead of that, the visitor was ushered up stairs, and the butler announced "Capt. Haselrig." The blow almost staggered her, but pulling herself together, she went into the drawing room, and the next moment was clasped in Haselrig's arms. A few words sufficed to explain his presence. The death of an old uncle, his godfather, had made him master of a rather valuable property, and on the strength of this improvement in his position the young man had at once rushed back from India, and, as he fondly hoped, successfully to plead his suit. "Why ever heart she possessed—it was little enough—belonged to Haselrig, and she had felt genuine sorrow when her father was so evidently declined his proposals; for a moment she wondered if, after all, Haselrig's love might not be worth a sacrifice. "O Lorimer she did not think for one second, but she did remember Liscarral, and this dampened her ardor. Haselrig was handsome and fairily rich now, but so was Lord Liscarral, and if her love for him was not so great as for Haselrig, she adored his coronet. So the old story was once more related, and by its means she induced Capt. Haselrig to forget his purpose of seeing her father until she herself should give him leave to speak; and at last, to her great relief, she sent him off, if not satisfied, yet certainly more in love than ever.

During her conversation with Capt. Haselrig Dora's sharp ears had caught the sound of the door bell, so she was fully prepared to hear that Mr. Lorimer was in the library, and went to him at once. But what she did not know, and in her hurry would not give the butler time to tell her, was that Lord Liscarral had also arrived, and was at the moment in the morning room. Now, Lord Liscarral was not a particularly impudent man, but he had bad ample time to get extremely tired of waiting, and, having exhausted the paper, was beginning his leisure by staring out of the window, when he caught sight of Haselrig leaving the house.

"By jove! there's Haselrig!" he ejaculated. "Why, I thought he was in India! I must hunt the dear old fellow up. How well he's looking to-day! Hullo! what's up now, I wonder?" Voices loud, not so angry, but he had so come to expect dear papa had not met with "you." This, said with the sweetest timidity and a bashful look, had the full effect intended.

"But now, Dora?"

"I do, but now I must make the poor fellow understand it is impossible—give him his come, in fact, so decided; that even self satisfied as he is, can make no mistake, and then coax papa as best I can."

Still Liscarral insisted.

"But, don't you see, Lord Liscarral—well, Arthur, then—that if you go to papa directly I have sent off Mr.

Lorimer, he will suspect what has occurred, and will not hesitate to treat you in the same way?" For do what I will, I cannot help his considering me engaged to that horrid man."

"Well, when will you give Lorimer his come?"

"To-morrow morning. He is coming about some botanical tickets, and I will speak to him then."

"Very well, dearest; and I may look in to hear the result, may I not?"

Leaving a message that an appointment unfortunately prevented his waiting longer just then, but had arranged for the pleasure of seeing Miss Carmichael later in the day, Lord Liscarral left the house.

Ten minutes later, stopping to look at a jeweler's window, a gentleman on the room accidentally, for with the same look of shame it walked slowly to one of the windows where it lay down, with its nose pointing to a letter bitten and torn into shreds. On a third occasion, it showed me where it had strown a number of little tickets about the floor, for doing which it had been reprimed previously. I cannot account for these facts, except by supposing the dog must have a conscience.—Spectator.

"Lord Liscarral?"

"O, don't go into heroics, man!

Look here;" and in a moment he produced a daintily embroidered letter case from his breast pocket, and taking out a photograph and several letters, flung them down before the astonished soldier.

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1887.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1887.

The JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 195 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 186 Main Street, John Cummings, 2d, Cummingsville, Samson E. Wymans, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.

Last Wednesday the bill to submit to the people the question of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages in this State by voting an amendment to that effect to the constitution was overwhelmingly defeated in the House. Previous to that the resolution had been voted by the Senate and it was believed, at least hoped, that the action of the House would be equally favorable but such was not the case. The majority against the proposition was very large. Why such reluctance on the part of the Legislature of this State to allow the people an opportunity to express an opinion on questions of vital consequence to their interests is inexplicable. As we have said before, it is the inferior overriding the superior, the tail wagging the dog. The whole business is wrong, and it is the people stand it much longer when it may be so easily remedied at the ballot-box they have less sense than they have generally had credit for.

Mr. Wadlin, the Republican Representative from this district, and an able man by the way, had the rights of it when he said in closing debate on this measure on Wednesday afternoon: "It is honest for all Republicans and proper and patriotic for all who could vote to allow the people a chance to vote on this question." The Republican party incorporated constitutional prohibition in their platform last fall and in all honesty the Republicans of the House should have passed the bill; and then again, on grounds of common popular right the proposition to submit the question to the people ought to have prevailed. But then Legislatures are queer sometimes.

The appointment by Gov. Ames of Major George S. Merrill of Lawrence to be Insurance Commissioner to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Commissioner Tarbox gives great satisfaction all over the State. From all accounts he seems to be the right man for the place and it is evident that the Governor's selection of him was one of the best that could have been made. Besides being postmaster of Lawrence from 1861 to 1885 Major Merrill has filled many responsible stations and in all of them proved to be a faithful and competent officer.

There was a report a few days ago that some of the railroad companies think seriously of bringing suit for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the inter-state commerce law, which, if true, indicates that the law will prove beneficial to the people at large if strictly enforced. It has been settled that the appointment of the Commissioners was legal and as that was one of the points proposed to be raised in the suits perhaps the railroad companies will abandon their purpose and let the law work out its own salvation, and the people's too, if it can.

Both branches of our Legislature have agreed on a bill that takes all the vital out of our code of whole-some "Sunday laws," so called, and by others, drowsily, "blue laws," and now the same will pass on to the Executive for his approval. It grants about everything the most "liberal" have asked for, and might as well give up the rest to them. Christian people will deplore the change.

There is a stir in and around the State House which indicates that an adjournment is contemplated at some time, probably within a month or so. They will stay there until the full half year of session is rounded out most likely, which will be about July 1, then vote an addition of $250 apiece to their salary and go home. On the whole it has been a busy session.

President and Mrs. Cleveland have left their fishing in the northern N. Y. woods and started for Washington. It is reported that they have enjoyed their vacation quite well and have had fair success.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

W. H. A. W.—To Let.
T. H. Cahill—Record.
S. K. Clegg—W. H. A. W.
Lincoln Ass'y—Meeting.
Dr. Alderman—Notice.
J. W. Allen—Notice.
C. T. Quigley—Horse-shoer.
Mrs. M. C. Payne—Barbers.
T. H. Cahill & Co.—Notice.
Geo. P. Howell & Co.—Mix ad.
Baptist Church—Notice.
Lyceum Hall Association—Meeting.
A. P. Ordway & Co.—Superior Bitters.
Town of Woburn—No. 100 St. B. Notice.

The Lyceum Hall Association advertise a special meeting in this paper.

The trustees of the W. H. F. A. W. advertise a stable to let in this paper.

Read what Mr. Amos Cummings has to say about millinery and dry goods.

We have had a plenty of hot weather this week and some not so much so.

Charlie A. Jones is making improvements on his Pleasant street purchase.

It is a wonder that the Legislature hasn't long before this made circus-day a legal holiday.

Yeoman Allen bought a seythe-saw the other day and is otherwise preparing for haying.

C. A. Smith & Son's new card appears under the appropriate head, and to it we call special attention.

Mr. William H. Smith was appointed an auctioneer at the last meeting of the Board of Selectmen.

Rev. John W. Day, pastor of the Channing Memorial church at Newport, visited his family here a few days ago.

Mrs. C. A. Pierce has a communication in this paper which must prove very interesting to the ladies of Woburn. Please read it.

Good progress is being made by Mr. J. M. Ellis and his force of men and horses on the cellar and foundation of the Dow Block.

The customary big crowd came to town last Wednesday to see the circus. It was a good day for it and everybody enjoyed themselves.

Mr. L. B. Russell left his home in Lynn late last week for a business trip and visit to Tennessee and other southwestern States.

Considerable time will elapse before rain becomes so greatly needed as it was before the late long-continued and soaking storms.

Mr. William B. Harris has been confined to his house for more than a week with sickness, but will probably get around again in a few days.

An entertainment will be given by the Tuesday Night Circle at the Baptist church vestry on Thursday evening, June 23, Admission 10 cents.—2.

Tyng's Island in the Merrimac river just above Lowell is the beautiful spot on which the St. Charles C. T. A. Society will hold their picnic this year.

Rev. G. H. Perkins of Winchester will officiate at All Saints Chapel next Sunday at 3 P. M. A cordial invitation is extended to the Public.

C. M. Munroe informs the public of some facts respecting his clothing and furnishing house in this issue of the Journal which ought not to be overlooked.

The Woburn Coal Co. are expending a good deal of money on their chutes, damps, elevators, yards and sheds, and all to accommodate their customers.

Mrs. W. N. Titus and her children are down in Waldo County, Maine, for a month's visit at the old home. At last accounts they were enjoying life.

Mrs. Winn, wife of pastor D. D. Winn of the Baptist church, sailed from New York for her old home in Germany last week. She will be away two or three months.

No meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade was held last Tuesday evening. A 4th of July celebration absorbs public interest at the present hour.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mentzer, who have resided at Northboro, State, since their marriage, have left there and come here to live. Mrs. M. is a native of Woburn.

John G. Maguire, Esq., will soon commence on the construction of a residence on the site he recently purchased on Montvale Avenue. It is said he intends to build a fine one.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the parlor of the Methodist church on Saturday, June 11, at 3:30 o'clock.

Last Saturday the W. H. S. Jr.'s played a Pickled Team at home and beat them 26 to 18. Perhaps Woburn baseballists would like to tackle our High School boys, eh?

The Woburn public schools will be down the long summer vacation on June 30. It is expected that the High School graduation ceremonies will take place on Wednesday, the 29th.

It is reported that the 4th of July canvassing committee of which Mr. Charles W. Bryant is the energetic and efficient chairman, are meeting with excellent success in getting subscriptions.

There are some new manufacturing schemes in embryo for this town concerning which more will be found in these columns at an early day. In fact we are preparing some disclosures.

Woburn boasts of a population of 12,070. A city sure.—Stoneham News.

You talk, 12,070! Hadn't you just as soon put on 690 more and call it 12,760? Yes, Sirree, "city sure!"

At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Pharmaceutical Society held at Holyoke this week Mr. William W. Hill of this place was elected a member of the Society's Executive Committee.

It never looked more lovely and inviting about Horn Pond than it does now. The banks are all soft and smooth, the foliage of the trees is thick and green, the waters are clear, and what else could there be to make it beautiful and enticing?

The next meeting of Lincoln Assembly, No. 99, Royal Society of Good Fellows, will be held in Fraternity Hall, No. 121 Main street, on Wednesday evening, June 15, at 7:30. Per order Committee.

Last Monday Dr. March attended the funeral of a child three months old, and an hour after he attended the funeral of a man 82 years old—representatives of very nearly the extremes of mortal existence.

Mr. Peter Kenney has bought the 50-foot lot on Wm street that was the Warren property of Mr. Marcellus Littlefield. It is next beyond Mr. Martin Ellis's property and desirable for residence or business.

One week from to-day will occur the 50th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. It will be duly observed by this office in the usual way, that is to say, by keeping right on pegging away, as the lamented Lincoln used to put it. At any rate this establishment will be wide open for the receipt of money in liquidation of demands due it from morning till night of the 17th instant.

The Lyceum Hall Association advertise a special meeting in this paper.

The trustees of the W. H. F. A. W. advertise a stable to let in this paper.

Read what Mr. Amos Cummings has to say about millinery and dry goods.

We have had a plenty of hot weather this week and some not so much so.

Charlie A. Jones is making improvements on his Pleasant street purchase.

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1887.

Insure your Property in Solid Companies!

S. B. GODDARD,

General Insurance and Real Estate Agency,

186 1/2 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Assets of Companies represented over Thirty Millions.

Losses promptly adjusted and paid at this office.

Hammond's Clothing House.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT.

We are now offering Unapproachable Bargains in BOYS' KNEE PANT SUITS.

BOYS' LONG PANT SUITS.
ODD PANTS.

EXAMINE OUR

"KNOCK-A-BOUT"

Knee Pant Suits, sizes 4 to 14 years. Made with the celebrated "cavalry" knee.

PRICE, $5.00.

BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

All prices from 25 cents upward. Our finest "Star" waists, carried from last season, reduced to 75 cents. Come quick and secure first choice.

ONE LOW PRICE TO ALL:

Hammond's Clothing House,

181 Main St., Lyceum Building, Woburn.

Open evenings except Wednesdays and Fridays.

Latest Styles in Millinery.

We can give you until July 1st, TRIMMED HATS and BONNETS at greatly reduced prices.

Large assortment of RIBBONS and FLOWERS.

MRS. J. H. PARKER,

Salem Street, Woburn.

MONEY TO LOAN.

On Furniture, Musical Instruments, Farming Tools, Cattle, or any good security. My rates are very low and I make no charge for examining property. No Puffiness. Correspondence solicited.

W. E. PIETTEE,

33 SCHOOL STREET, BOSTON.

and establish the boundary and settle the whole business. Certainly no blame.

A special meeting of the Board of Selectmen was held on May 29, at which all the members were present except Cottle, Golden and Kimball.

James Gilligan and Sherman Converse were drawn as jurors.

On complaint of Rufus Pickering for violation of Sunday laws, the Clerk of the Board was instructed to notify the Chief of Police that such laws must be enforced in all cases.

Communication of A. A. Clement respecting sidewalkers referred to Highway Committee.

Com. of C. A. Marcotte was referred to same committee to examine and report to Board.

Nathaniel Jenkins was appointed special policeman without pay.

Pet. of Patrick Curran for street light referred to Com. on Street Lights.

The matter of setting down the Lyceum Hall for election purposes was referred to Chairman Skinner with full powers.

Voted to adopt the Rules and Regulations of last year's Board of Health for the present year.

A special meeting of the Board of Selectmen was held on May 31, at which all were present except Cottle and Kimball.

Pet. of East Middle St. Ry. for permission to locate turnouts on their line referred to Com. on Highways.

Pet. of James L. Hanson and others was referred to Highway Committee.

A regular monthly meeting with Kimball absent of the Board of Selectmen for receiving reports, allowing bills, etc., was held at Municipal Building on Tuesday afternoon, June 7, when the following business was transacted:

Reports of Chief of Police, Collector of Taxes, Inspector of Milk and Vinegar received, accepted and ordered placed on file.

The bond of J. M. Maguire, Esq., Collector of Taxes, for $30,000 was approved and ordered filed and recorded.

On pet. of N. W. St. Ry. Co., for permit to put in curved track at the N. E. corner of the Common. Voted to advertise for a hearing of the parties on June 25, at 4 o'clock.

P. M.—Applications of E. Prior and Charles R. Brown for permission to keep and sell fireworks on July 1, 2 and 4, referred to Com. on Police.

Application of W. A. Grandfield for druggist, or 6th class license, referred to Committee on Police.

Cottle, Grammer and Salmon appointed a committee to confer with the School Board in reference to Warren Academy.

Thomas Mulkeen was appointed to look after neglected children.

Com. on claims reported favorably on Kerrigan claim, and the Board voted to adopt the report and authorize the Town Treasurer to pay $426.22 in full satisfaction of said claim.

Voted that Edward Simonds, Ex-tax Collector, be notified to appear before the Board at such time as the Chairman may direct and report the condition of unfinished taxes, the prospect of collecting the same, etc.—Bills for May examined and allowed.

The Eleventh Regiment.

The veterans of the 11th Mass. Regiment with their families and friends celebrate their annual re-union at Melville Garden, Downer Landing, Wednesday June 29, 1887.

Tickets may be obtained by the committee (at excursion rates) who will be at the wharf in season for the 9 o'clock boat.

We believe this grand old town has not lost its patriotic devotion to the defenders of one Republic and it is hoped that the gates of this new-born city of Woburn may open for the next re-union of the old Eleventh.—C. T. Wood.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and much the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease.

The peculiar composition and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar and curative

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sale receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*SPECIAL BARGAINS

IN

HOMESPUN SUITS,*$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at the

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilson, Vileet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

WINCHESTER.

Mr. Wetherell who is away in search of health is said to be getting better.

Miss Mariella Metcalf has got back from the South very much improved in health.

The doctors and others think Postmaster Gardon's eyesight will be saved and that he will come out all right in due time.

Mr. Maxwell has not yet begun work on rebuilding his tannery at No. Winchester but expects to do so after a little, if business should warrant it.

Gen. Benj. Butler has warm friends and followers in this town. The other day a Butler Club was organized in Boston and Mr. R. W. Swan of Winchester was elected a member of its Executive Committee.

The pupils in the Warren Street Chapel Sunday School in Boston will give an operetta in the Unitarian church on Saturday afternoon at the close of which they and the home children will join together and have a picnic in some hand-give by.

Capt. Charles H. Dunham of this town was elected 4th Sergeant of Artillery of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company at its 24th annual election last Monday. Several of our citizens have been at one time and another members of the Ancient and Honorable—a thing always and everywhere to be proud of.

Nature hereabouts is in a smiling mood. All out doors never looked more inviting than at the present time. The weather all the spring has been just the checker for grass, foliage, and all that sort of truck, and never in June did things of this sort look more lovely. Winchester Nature left it choice and fine, and don't you forget it.

Ex-treasurer John T. Manni appreciates the set of complimentary resolutions passed by the town in acknowledgment of his long term of valuable services rendered as treasurer, as any man might well do. The resolutions are handsomely framed and have been conspicuously hung by Mr. Manni who will preserve and cherish them as a token of the towns appreciation of the services he rendered it.

The Globe of Monday contained a cut of our new town House to be, accompanied by a brief description which was generally correct, your correspondent being unable to discover more than about a dozen errors. The cut gave a very good idea of what the building will look like when completed, as it was taken from the drawings of the architect. When completed, or nearly so, I will give the readers of the Journal a full and accurate description of our new Town House which everyone says will be an ornament to the town and a credit to the building committee.This town owes a debt of gratitude to Abijah Thompson, Esq., for the interest he has taken and takes in gathering up the history of the place as to Woburn and later Winchester, and his liberality in procuring the publication of the Winchester Record, the organ of the Winchester Historical and Genealogical Society, which is published quarterly at large expense and contains the historical gatherings and contributions of the officers and others of the Society. Mr. Thompson has spent a great deal of money in this good cause—indeed The Record would never have seen daylight and would not now be continued but for his liberality—and our people ought, and no doubt do, feel very grateful to him for it.

The regular meeting of the School Board was held last Saturday afternoon. All the members present. Several petitions for positions as teachers were received and placed on file. All the teachers were re-elected and their salaries fixed for the ensuing year, except the principal of the High school. The visitation days of the several schools will occur as follows, viz., Mystic, June 14; Highland, June 15; Gifford, June 19; Hill, June 20; Wyman, June 20; Runford, June 21.

Cure Yourself.

Don't pay large doctor's bills. The best medical book published, 160 pages, elegant colored plates, will be sent to you on receipt of three 2 cent stamps to pay postage. Address A. P. Ordway &amp; Co., Boston, Mass.

The season has been very backward in England, being cold and stormy, delaying agricultural operations and putting farmers to much expense in feeding their stock.

Public benefactors are not alone confined to England and America. Indeed but few have done more for the welfare of the working masses than James Pyle through the introduction of his labor-saving Pearline.

The flavor of the strawberry shortcake now pervades the land, but soon the perfume of clam-chowder will show that summer is here.

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Beautiful lot of "Hair Line" Dress Goods at greatly reduced prices.

Wash Dress Fabrics in great variety.

A large lot of desirable 25 ct. Dress Goods at the Old and Reliable Millinery Stand.

Fourth of July Meeting.

A meeting of a hundred or so of prominent citizens was held at the rooms of Board of Trade on last Monday evening on a notice issued by President E. E. Thompson and Secretary Will F. Kenney of the Permanent Committee, to canvass the subject of celebrating in true and loyal shape the rapidly approaching Independence Day, talk the matter over, decide on something, and take steps to carry it out. The spirit of the assembly was unmistakably and rankly in favor of a celebration, and if the rest of the town comes anywhere near sharing this spirit equally with the meeting we are bound to have a celebration of the very largest dimensions and one that will answer for a good subject to talk about in years to come.

The gathering was called to order by Secretary Kenney in the absence of President Thompson who was in attendance on a bank meeting and therefore unable to be present. On motion, Mr. Frederic H. Lewis was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Will F. Kenney was chosen Secretary. On calling the meeting to order Mr. Kenney stated his object, as Chairman Lewis did on taking the Chair. The ball was thus opened and the subject taken up for debate. It was thoroughly and intelligently discussed by Messrs. Mark Allen, David F. Moreland, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Charles W. Bryant, Thomas H. Hill, John Meekan, William N. Titus, W. F. Kenney, Capt. John P. Crane, and others, all of whom expressed themselves decidedly and warmly in favor of a celebration. Patriotism and loyalty to "the day we celebrate" were apparent on every countenance.

Messrs. S. Frank Trull, Thomas H. Hill and D. F. Moreland were appointed a committee to nominate a committee to canvass the town for funds with which to defray the expenses of a celebration that no Woburnite need be ashamed of.

This committee retired, deliberated and returned with the following list of names to compose a canvassing committee: Charles W. Bryant, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Capt. John P. Crane, Patrick McGowan, Henry E. Smith, John C. Meekan, W. N. Titus, George Buchanan, William A. Colgate, E. E. Thompson, D. F. Moreland, John O. Ray, Ed. F. Cassidy, Francis P. Curran, John S. True. The next meeting was adopted and the above named gentleman constitute a committee to raise funds to pay for the glorious occasion. It is a good committee, because individually or collectively the members are abundantly able to foot all the bills for a celebration, and if the people are backward about contributing we expect the committee will go down deep into their own personal pockets and pay the score.

The committee subsequently on the same evening, met in council and after mature thought and considerable talk as to the best plan to be pursued to raise money agreed to divide the town into districts and have them thoroughly canvassed. This being settled the committee separated with determination and such word as fall written across their foreheads, to meet by adjournment at the same place to-morrow evening and compare notes. We should be greatly pleased in our duty as a reporter if we were able to express entire confidence in the ability of the committee to raise an abundance of cash, and to assure the public that the prospect for a big celebration in this town on the 4th prox. is brilliant.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. of Woburn held its regular meeting Monday, June 6, in the parlor of the Congregational Church. After devotional exercises a report of the service recently held at the Almshouse under the auspices of the society and the reading of two or three business communications the president introduced Mrs. Allen of Boston, State Sup't of work among RR men. In opening the speaker very modestly alluded to herself as one of the "lesser lights," comparing the great speakers to electric lights and saying that, from those down, there were many varieties even to the tallow dip which did something toward lighting up the dark places. She compared the great evil of drink to slavery and told of a temperance address she once gave before little colored boys, using the same line of argument, when a black hand was raised and one little boy said: "Missus, das was slavery ob de body, das is an slavery ob de soul!" She spoke strongly of the good done by the Slave Mission and urged the ladies not to feel that they weren't accomplishing anything because they didn't see great results. "It is the little things that tell." The RR. department has been established a comparatively short time and when it first taken up many people were asking what could be accomplished by it. The attempt has been made and much good is already being done. Mrs. Allen said that in the State there are 400,000 RR employees without Sabbath rest, or Sabbath privileges, and told of gospel meetings that had been held for them in the different cities and towns. She urged the distribution of good literature among them as one of the best means of help. After the address many questions were asked and suggestions offered as to the best way of carrying on this work in our own town. The meeting was well attended, about forty being present.

The completion of the famous James Lick telescope has been retarded by the recent breaking of the lens, which was to be used for photography, while it was being figured by Alvan Clark &amp; Sons, Cambridge. Now it is a problem if ever another photographic lens can be obtained, as the manufacturer, Charles T. Quigley, has died, and possibly with him the necessary skill and secrets of manufacture.

The popular purifying and building up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla make it the very best medicine to take at this season.

Rev. C. F. Staples will preach in the Chapel in this village next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The popular purifying and building up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla make it the very best medicine to take at this season.

Woman's Club.

The last regular meeting of the Woburn Club was held at the usual hour, Friday afternoon, June 3, in the vestry of the Unitarian church. The speaker was Rev. George Willis Cooke, whose lectures on the literary work of the world in England since the reign of Elizabeth, have received, during the past season, so favorable mention from city and suburban press. "George Eliot and the Literary Women of Today" was the caption of the address but attention was drawn rather to recent educational conditions and their resultant evolution than to personal sketches of lives and publications. "George Eliot," "Dinah Mulock Craik, Margaret Oliphant, and Amelia Edwards were accorded niches of peculiar honor having won desirable reputations in departments of intellectual labor additional to that of novel-writing. Especial attention was called to the present poet accomplishment and great lyric promise of Mary F. Robinson, Mrs. Cooke in closing made a powerful plea against the restrictions of sex in the opportunities for generous intellectual culture and emphasized his judgment that the limits of the sphere of woman's mental activity cannot be rightly apprehended till at least three (3) generations of mothers shall have inherited the educational advantages long since extended to men.

The gathering was called to order by Secretary Kenney in the absence of President Thompson who was in attendance on a bank meeting and therefore unable to be present. On motion, Mr. Frederic H. Lewis was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Will F. Kenney was chosen Secretary.

On calling the meeting to order Mr. Kenney stated his object, as Chairman Lewis did on taking the Chair.

The ball was thus opened and the subject taken up for debate. It was thoroughly and intelligently discussed by Messrs. Mark Allen, David F. Moreland, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Charles W. Bryant, Thomas H. Hill, John Meekan, William N. Titus, W. F. Kenney, Capt. John P. Crane, Patrick McGowan, Henry E. Smith, John C. Meekan, W. N. Titus, George Buchanan, William A. Colgate, E. E. Thompson, D. F. Moreland, John O. Ray, Ed. F. Cassidy, Francis P. Curran, John S. True.

The next meeting of the Club, June 16, will be for the purpose of visiting Concord, Mass., the original idea of a Club picnic or lawn party about home having developed into an excursion to this doubly interesting locality.

For children's parties many quaint devices in confectionery are manufactured. Among other kinds are ice cream pyramids in white, red, green and chocolate, or molded into small forms of elephants, tigers, goats, cattle, pigs, tomatoes, oranges, lemons, pears, cucumbers, pickles, etc.; the baskets of lady's fingers, dominoes made of cake heavily frosted and marked in dots with soft chocolate; the littered lozenges, upon which a wooden type dipped in red piping has impressed soft expressions; the bowers of French mottos in colored tissue paper, under which they play until it breaks and the competition to obtain the mottos causes a scene of indescribable confusion; the pyramid of macaroons, frosted in the centre, and the orange quarters on a framework of lemon candy.

The following is a list of the principal articles of interest in the Woburn Club: The last regular meeting of the Woburn Club was held at the usual hour, Friday afternoon, June 3, in the vestry of the Unitarian church. The speaker was Rev. George Willis Cooke, whose lectures on the literary work of the world in England since the reign of Elizabeth, have received, during the past season, so favorable mention from city and suburban press. "George Eliot and the Literary Women of Today" was the caption of the address but attention was drawn rather to recent educational conditions and their resultant evolution than to personal sketches of lives and publications. "George Eliot," "Dinah Mulock Craik, Margaret Oliphant, and Amelia Edwards were accorded niches of peculiar honor having won desirable reputations in departments of intellectual labor additional to that of novel-writing. Especial attention was called to the present poet accomplishment and great lyric promise of Mary F. Robinson, Mrs. Cooke in closing made a powerful plea against the restrictions of sex in the opportunities for generous intellectual culture and emphasized his judgment that the limits of the sphere of woman's mental activity cannot be rightly apprehended till at least three (3) generations of mothers shall have inherited the educational advantages long since extended to men.

The gathering was called to order by Secretary Kenney in the absence of President Thompson who was in attendance on a bank meeting and therefore unable to be present. On motion, Mr. Frederic H. Lewis was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Will F. Kenney was chosen Secretary.

On calling the meeting to order Mr. Kenney stated his object, as Chairman Lewis did on taking the Chair.

The ball was thus opened and the subject taken up for debate. It was thoroughly and intelligently discussed by Messrs. Mark Allen, David F. Moreland, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Charles W. Bryant, Thomas H. Hill, John Meekan, William N. Titus, W. F. Kenney, Capt. John P. Crane, Patrick McGowan, Henry E. Smith, John C. Meekan, W. N. Titus, George Buchanan, William A. Colgate, E. E. Thompson, D. F. Moreland, John O. Ray, Ed. F. Cassidy, Francis P. Curran, John S. True.

The next meeting of the Club, June 16, will be for the purpose of visiting Concord, Mass., the original idea of a Club picnic or lawn party about home having developed into an excursion to this doubly interesting locality.

For children's parties many quaint devices in confectionery are manufactured. Among other kinds are ice cream pyramids in white, red, green and chocolate, or molded into small forms of elephants, tigers, goats, cattle, pigs, tomatoes, oranges, lemons, pears, cucumbers, pickles, etc.; the baskets of lady's fingers, dominoes made of cake heavily frosted and marked in dots with soft chocolate; the littered lozenges, upon which a wooden type dipped in red piping has impressed soft expressions; the bowers of French mottos in colored tissue paper, under which they play until it breaks and the competition to obtain the mottos causes a scene of indescribable confusion; the pyramid of macaroons, frosted in the centre, and the orange quarters on a framework of lemon candy.

The following is a list of the principal articles of interest in the Woburn Club: The last regular meeting of the Woburn Club was held at the usual hour, Friday afternoon, June 3, in the vestry of the Unitarian church. The speaker was Rev. George Willis Cooke, whose lectures on the literary work of the world in England since the reign of Elizabeth, have received, during the past season, so favorable mention from city and suburban press. "George Eliot and the Literary Women of Today" was the caption of the address but attention was drawn rather to recent educational conditions and their resultant evolution than to personal sketches of lives and publications. "George Eliot," "Dinah Mulock Craik, Margaret Oliphant, and Amelia Edwards were accorded niches of peculiar honor having won desirable reputations in departments of intellectual labor additional to that of novel-writing. Especial attention was called to the present poet accomplishment and great lyric promise of Mary F. Robinson, Mrs. Cooke in closing made a powerful plea against the restrictions of sex in the opportunities for generous intellectual culture and emphasized his judgment that the limits of the sphere of woman's mental activity cannot be rightly apprehended till at least three (3) generations of mothers shall have inherited the educational advantages long since extended to men.

The gathering was called to order by Secretary Kenney in the absence of President Thompson who was in attendance on a bank meeting and therefore unable to be present. On motion, Mr. Frederic H. Lewis was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Will F. Kenney was chosen Secretary.

On calling the meeting to order Mr. Kenney stated his object, as Chairman Lewis did on taking the Chair.

The ball was thus opened and the subject taken up for debate. It was thoroughly and intelligently discussed by Messrs. Mark Allen, David F. Moreland, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Charles W. Bryant, Thomas H. Hill, John Meekan, William N. Titus, W. F. Kenney, Capt. John P. Crane, Patrick McGowan, Henry E. Smith, John C. Meekan, W. N. Titus, George Buchanan, William A. Colgate, E. E. Thompson, D. F. Moreland, John O. Ray, Ed. F. Cassidy, Francis P. Curran, John S. True.

The next meeting of the Club, June 16, will be for the purpose of visiting Concord, Mass., the original idea of a Club picnic or lawn party about home having developed into an excursion to this doubly interesting locality.

For children's parties many quaint devices in confectionery are manufactured. Among other kinds are ice cream pyramids in white, red, green and chocolate, or molded into small forms of elephants, tigers, goats, cattle, pigs, tomatoes, oranges, lemons, pears, cucumbers, pickles, etc.; the baskets of lady's fingers, dominoes made of cake heavily frosted and marked in dots with soft chocolate; the littered lozenges, upon which a wooden type dipped in red piping has impressed soft expressions; the bowers of French mottos in colored tissue paper, under which they play until it breaks and the competition to obtain the mottos causes a scene of indescribable confusion; the pyramid of macaroons, frosted in the centre, and the orange quarters on a framework of lemon candy.

The following is a list of the principal articles of interest in the Woburn Club: The last regular meeting of the Woburn Club was held at the usual hour, Friday afternoon, June 3, in the vestry of the Unitarian church. The speaker was Rev. George Willis Cooke, whose lectures on the literary work of the world in England since the reign of Elizabeth, have received, during the past season, so favorable mention from city and suburban press. "George Eliot and the Literary Women of Today" was the caption of the address but attention was drawn rather to recent educational conditions and their resultant evolution than to personal sketches of lives and publications. "George Eliot," "Dinah Mulock Craik, Margaret Oliphant, and Amelia Edwards were accorded niches of peculiar honor having won desirable reputations in departments of intellectual labor additional to that of novel-writing. Especial attention was called to the present poet accomplishment and great lyric promise of Mary F. Robinson, Mrs. Cooke in closing made a powerful plea against the restrictions of sex in the opportunities for generous intellectual culture and emphasized his judgment that the limits of the sphere of woman's mental activity cannot be rightly apprehended till at least three (3) generations of mothers shall have inherited the educational advantages long since extended to men.

The gathering was called to order by Secretary Kenney in the absence of President Thompson who was in attendance on a bank meeting and therefore unable to be present. On motion, Mr. Frederic H. Lewis was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and Mr. Will F. Kenney was chosen Secretary.

On calling the meeting to order Mr. Kenney stated his object, as Chairman Lewis did on taking the Chair.

The ball was thus opened and the subject taken up for debate. It was thoroughly and intelligently discussed by Messrs. Mark Allen, David F. Moreland, Capt. Ed. F. Wyer, Charles W. Bryant, Thomas H. Hill, John Meekan, William N. Titus, W. F. Kenney, Capt. John P. Crane, Patrick McGowan, Henry E. Smith, John C. Meekan, W. N. Titus, George Buchanan, William A. Colgate, E. E

Woman's Column.

Literary Notices.

"A community without woman's equal social action, a church without her equal ecclesiastical action, and a state without her equal political action, is very much what a house would be without a mother, wife, sister or friend."

Among the speakers and subjects announced for the Duxfield Summer School of History and Romance are Miss Alice C. Fletcher of the department of the interior of national reputation as an earnest and accomplished worker in the cause of the Indian, and a deep student in the marvellous mysteries of Indian legends, upon "The Indian Folk-Lore of America." Four papers upon music (illustrated by board and charts), by Miss Mary W. Lincoln of Boston; 1. "Musical Myths and Primitive Method" (origin of music; the first notation); 2. "Monks and Minstrels" (the birth of harmony; Huelde of Flanders; Guide of Arezzo; the troubadours); 3. "Music as it is" (natural tones; keys and intervals; chords and discords; cadence and modulation); 4. The Story of the Sonata (whence it came, what it has been, and what it is). Four papers on "The Cycle of Arthurian Romance," by Miss Ethel L. Chase of Boston; 1. "Two Epochs of English History" (the historic King Arthur; the series of struggles which produced the Englishman's gradual development of chivalry, which finds voice in the Arthurian and similar romances); 2. "The Growth of the Legend" (ancient origin of the story; first appearance in Geoffrey of Monmouth, enlarged in "The Brut"; acceptions from many sources explain the want of continuity in the Morte d'Arthur); 3. "The Romances of the Round Table." Showing the chivalrous element; The coming of Arthur, Blyn and Merlin; the round table; the adventures of Sir Lancelot; "the piteous death of Arthur"; 4. "The Romances of the Holy Grail." Showing the religious element.

Miss Mary Childers, a pretty school teacher of Trenton, Ga., heard some time ago that John Magors had been circulating slanderous report about her. She rode across Lookout mountain, a distance of 15 miles, and at the muzzle of a shot gun forced the traducer to apologize. Then she published Magors as an "infamous scoundrel" and a bad man generally, and Magors sent her a challenge to fight. The little woman went to the spot to meet him, but he didn't show up, and at last accounts Miss Childers was hunting for him with a revolver.

Have you read Helen Campbell's "Prisoners of Poverty?" Since the publication of this book the author has received hundreds of letters from women offering to extend practical aid to their bond-sisters of over-work and under-pay. Mrs. Campbell is going to London to study the conditions of the working women of the East and of that great metropolis, it is said.

Women are the State librarians of Michigan, Iowa, Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

An English paper says: "It is well known to all who have studied the subject that the United States of America are far behind the United Kingdom as regards the electoral rights of women."

Adeline Patti has been singing a Cradle Song written by a young Pennsylvania girl.

The town councils of twenty Scotch towns have this year petitioned Parliament to grant suffrage to women. Edinburgh is among the number.

The women of Iceland will henceforth be permitted to study in the chief classes and pass the higher examinations of the College at Reikjavik.

The editor of the Magazine of American History is Mrs. Martha J. Lamb. She is a member of thirteen learned societies, a life-member of the American Historical Society, and a Fellow of The Clarence Historical Society of Edinburgh.

Florence Nightingale has published an appeal to the women of England to help in providing a central home and adequate organization for the Woman's Protective and Provident League.

The New York Mail says: It is true enough in a way that the range of women's industries is broadening. Business circles, in the city, at least, recognize very little distinction nowadays between what is properly women's work and men's work, except the all-important dividing line of pay. Go into any large manufacture, whether of wearing apparel, household furnishings or articles connected distinctly with men's labor, and somewhere about the building, working with needle or brush, tending a machine, keeping books or manipulating a typewriter, you will find a woman at work. On the other hand start any new industry, I care not how specially adapted to woman's nimble fingers or keen eyesight or insight, and if there is "money in it" the woman comes into immediate competition with a man. The art of earning a living for man or woman either is one that involves a good deal of thought and study, more of each with every year that goes by.

Taken collectively, the difference between men and women—and it is an infinite difference—is comprehended in five syllables, organization. What is a nation, a state, a city, a church, the public school system, any modern institution whatever? A corporation of men in which women are disconnected units. What are business firms and industrial concerns of every description? Organizations of two or more men with rarely a woman partner among them.

Women have done much, but it is as well not to exploit their successes too loudly till they have done more. They need a business education in business principles, regular hours of work, the same thoroughness that a New England housekeeper puts into baking and cleaning, that a society girl devotes to dressing and her mother throws into keeping up the round of calls. They need above everything else faith in themselves and business courage.

It is a Curious Fact.

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do the most good. It is a wonderful medicine for purifying and softening the blood, creating an appetite, and giving a healthy tone to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

HOW CODFISH ARE CAUGHT.

HOW CODFISH ARE CAUGHT.—
Where the Finest Fish Are Found—Forers runners of the Coming Catch.

COTTAGE HEARTH for June is a bright, fresh number as its thousands of readers will conclude after an examination of its contents. The fashion plates and descriptions are numerous and of the latest cut, in which particular feature this magazine has no superior; the illustrations are good, and the literary contents firstclass. We furnish the JOURNAL and COTTAGE HEARTH for $2 per year in advance—the price of the JOURNAL alone.

LITTEL'S LIVING AGE. The numbers of THE LIVING AGE for May 28th and June 4th contain: St. Francis of Assisi, London Quarterly; The Rainy and Arranged, Nineteenth Century; A Visit to Japan, Fortnightly; The Earthquake in London, Macmillan's; Memories of Undergraduate Life at Trinity, Forty Years Ago, Temple Bar; Lord Derby on the Stand, The Wealth of the London Jews, The Colonial Policy of Italy, and Literature and Action, Spectator; Central Asian Asparagus, Saturday Review; Greek and Turk in Asia Minor, St. James' Homeric Astronomy, and Christmas Island Nature; The Queen's Coronation, Chambers' Rider Haggard and his Critics, Tales with Installments; A Secret Inheritance, Major and Minor, Richard Cable and Major Lawrence and poetry.

For fifty-two numbers of sixty four large pages each—more than 3,300 pages in all—$10.00; the subscription ($8.00) is low, while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies with THE LIVING AGE for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

We have just received from the Royal Society of London a copy of Conklin's Handy Manual of Useful Information. Of the many books we have seen that claim to be "useful," we have yet to find any so complete as this. Books are cheap, perhaps cheaper than ever before; but even now it is a matter of surprise to find so much information contained in so low-priced a volume as in the case of this one. We find it to be filled with just that mass of information that intelligent people have always desired to lay their hands upon, but could heretofore find it in no book. It supplies what many of the best libraries of the country could supply no better. It is neat and convenient in size, systematically arranged, full of valuable facts of practical utility, and more comprehensive than any other work of its kind. You may carefully search many volumes and not find a title of the facts and figures appearing in its neatly printed pages. In it you have the fruits of the labors of many scholars who have devoted years to gathering the information it contains. It is a handsome volume of 316 pages, bound in English silk cloth with red edges, and will be mailed to any address on receipt of 50 cents, by Geo. W. Oglevie, publisher, 216 Lake street, Chicago, Ill. Agents can make money selling it.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippins, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold and every bottle used will cure you of all your ills."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

John W. and wife, of Waukegan, Ill., write: "We have had a good many cases of Electric Bitters, and they are all cured."

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1887.

THE JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Norton, 195 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John Cummings, 2d, Cummingsville, Sam E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

A REPUBLICAN CLUB.

It is the fashion now in this State to organize Republican clubs and a very good fashion it is. The Central Committee recommend it highly and urge the formation of them in every place where Republicans exist. The reason given is that such clubs as are recommended can be made more serviceable in a political campaign, prove more efficient, and secure better results, than the usual style of organization.

The first steps towards forming a Republican Club in Woburn have been taken. A good committee was raised last Monday evening and invested with full powers to set the ball a rolling. The necessity of a club is felt by all who have an interest in the success of the Republican party, and the opinion prevails that one cannot be put in motion too soon. Early in the fall work for such a club usually begins, therefore the committee ought to get into running order as early as August, if not before.

18 It is evident that the Legislature is on its last legs and in the course of a day or two the place that has known it ever since the first of January last will know it no more forever. The term will fill a little short of the usual six months but not much, and full as much work has been done as by any previous session in modern times. It is a way people and papers have of abusing Legislatures, but the one now about to close its existence has given as little reason for such treatment as any that can now readily be called to mind. In fact, it has proved itself by good works to have been a decent sort of a body of men, fair workers, not any more inclined to go astray than others before it, and to have been the authors of a number of very good laws. What more ought we to ask?

19 Last Tuesday Hon. William E. Chandler, ex-Secretary of the Navy, was elected United States Senator by the New Hampshire Legislature for the short term. Gen. Marston of Exeter and some of his unwise friends threatened to kick up a muss but it amounted nothing, and Mr. Chandler received every Republican vote in both branches. His election ought to be in the highest degree gratifying to every Republican in the country, for he is a stalwart of the true-blue stripe, the ablest statesman in New Hampshire and the peer of the best of them in New England.

20 Our much esteemed contemporary, the Lynn Bee, appeared out one day last week in a brand-new suit in which it looked as sweet as a June rose.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
F. H. Lewis—Advertiser.
L. D. Tabor—Advertiser.
N. Z. Tabor—Advertiser.
D. G. Converse—To Let.
H. H. Simonds—Advertiser.
Simonds & Boutwell—Advertiser.

— William Andrew Woodward graduated from Tufts College last week.

— Buy the "New Crown" Oil Stove if you want the best. Sold by C. M. Strout.

— Mrs. L. A. Birry offers the residence corner of Salem and Beach Sts. to rent.

— One half of Mr. D. G. Converse's fine house on Church Avenue is for rent. See card.

— Buy the "New Tariff" Range if you want the best, sold by C. M. Strout.

— C. M. Strout says now is the time to have your furnaces and stoves put in repair for winter.

— Burgess advertises big special bargains for to-day and to-morrow. Read his list of prices.

— Simonds and Boutwell have a dissolution notice, business announcement, etc., in this paper.

— To-day the S. Charles Baseball Club went over to Wakefield to give the ratton fel lows a hiding.

— Mishawum Lodge, A. O. U. W., initiated two last week, and received other applications for membership.

— Attention is called to the professional card of Mr. F. H. Lewis. More will be said about it next week.

— Dr. Reynolds was elected a member of the State Dental Society at its annual meeting in Boston last week.

— Several handsome open summer cars for the N. W. St. R. Y. were received here yesterday by Superintendent Jones.

— The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the Unitarian church parlor, on Monday, June 20, at 3 P. M.

— Mr. J. B. McDonald recently bought some more real estate at No. 100 Woburn for the accommodation of his coal yard.

— The Inuiton Canoe Club hold regular meetings fortnightly. We hope an exhibition of their agility before the summer is over and gone.

— There is to be a teachers railroad excursion from Boston and vicinity to Chicago about the middle of July with the fare for the round trip $22.

— There are two or three applicants for admission to the W. H. for A. Women whose eligibility is being examined by the Home authorities.

— An entertainment will be given by the Tuesday Night Circle at the Baptist church vestry on Thursday evening, June 23. Admission 10 cents.—2.

— Attention is called to the conspicuous card of Walbridge Brothers in this paper. We can recommend them as genuine, true-blue, honest dealers.

— If sufficient encouragement is given Mr. Fred Leeds's Saratoga excursion will come off in July. He will not start it with less than 25 excursionists.

— The contractors are making good progress on the E. M. St. R. Y. and the idea prevails that not a great many weeks will elapse before the job is finished.

— The National Band Association will give their annual picnic in Hiawatha Grove on next 4th of July, for which the committee are making active preparations.

— Union street is kept well sprinkled every night by the residents, and if the street was repaired, it would be in good condition, as it should be, it would be a nice one to live on.

— Edward Heath, Esq., Ex-Mayor of the City of New Orleans, La., and Mr. Charles Heath were the guests of Mr. Geo. W. Jenkins at his residence on Franklin street last Sunday.

— As administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary Gilman, deceased, Mr. James Skinner will shortly sell the desirable residence on Montvale Avenue occupied by Mr. John D. Gilman.

— A good many people are looking for houses up Montvale Avenue. If the Dow farm could only be opened up for building purposes it would make the finest part of the town for residence.

— Mr. Alonzo T. Young and family left yesterday for Strawberry Hill for the summer. They will remain at that charming seaside resort until September and then return to their pleasant Woburn home.

— Some merchants complain that trade has been dull this spring, everyone of whom would be surprised on looking over last spring's business to find that they have sold more goods for more money during the months of April and May last past than in the corresponding months 1886. The most of them will find that to be the fact of the case. They will find they have done more business this spring than last and yet they unblushingly affirm that trade was never so dull since Adam.

— There ought to be a large meeting of Republicans at the Headquarters next Wednesday evening at which time the committee on organizing a Republican Club will report, and probably a club will be formed.

— On Thursday evening, June 23, the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will give an entertainment and supper in the church. The admission will be free, and tickets to supper and entertainment together 25 cents apiece.

— The National Band Association is building a new parsonage on the lot now occupied by their dwelling for the pastor. The idea is to pull the present to the west end of the lot and on the abandoned site, or quite near it, erect a fine parsonage house to cost some $5000 or $6000. After moving it the old house will be fitted up in good shape and rented. A parish meeting to act on this matter was held last Monday evening, but it being discovered that a satisfactory notice of it had not been given it was adjourned for a week or so.

— Tabor talks about 4th of July salmon and other good things in the line of fish in the JOURNAL this week. He keeps a complete stock of every thing in the shape of fish—a first class market in every respect—and salts cheap. Get a lot of salmon for the 4th.

— L. H. Chadbourne sells a $2.50 low-cut shoe which is a great bargain, also the "Pilgrim" shoe at the same price, which is another. The red flag that floats before his store on Saturday evenings does not mean anarchy, or an auction, but real bargains in boots and shoes.

— Mrs. Cheever, whose millinery rooms are on Montvale Avenue, Dodge Block, respectfully informs the ladies of Woburn and vicinity that, for the next 30 days, she will, for all purchasers of hats and bonnets to the value of $3 and upwards, trim the same free of expense to them. This is a very generous offer.

— The Unitarian Sunday School will give a basket picnic at Lincoln Pond in Lincoln on Saturday, June 25. The School and its friends will go over in barges, at a cost to the former of 25 cents each, and to the latter 50 cents each. It is a delightful drive from here to the Pond and those who go will enjoy it highly.

— Mr. Charles H. Gooding has connected a domestic bakery with his confectionary and icecream rooms which is a handy arrangement. Nice home-made bread, cakes, pies, doughnuts, etc., are kept for sale fresh and good and find heaps of customers. It is a cozy place too to stop in for a glass of cool milk and a bun when in the mood for such things.

— An item recently appeared in these columns, referring to one Thomas Surprise, a converted Indian. This man who is a native of New York, belonging to the Oneida tribe, is a preacher, and for years a missionary to his own people. By a special arrangement he will give his experience at the Methodist church next Sunday morning with various information respecting Indian life.

— We made a visit last week of Dr. March attending the funeral of a child 6 months old, and on the same day the funeral of a man 82 years old. The error was in the case of the latter. It was a woman's funeral instead of a man's, and she was 34 instead of 82 years old. She was the grandmother of Mr. Cutler, of the firm of Andrews, Cutler & Co., of this town.

— Representatives of the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Haverhill, Malden, Melrose, Maplewood, Somerville, Jamaica Plain, Woburn, Boston, Allston, Brighton, Lynn, Charlestown, North Weymouth and Bedford visited the institutions on Deer Island, Boston, Harbor, last Tuesday and were shown through the various departments by courtesy of the superintendent.

— The Inuiton Canoe Club hold regular meetings fortnightly. We hope an exhibition of their agility before the summer is over and gone.

— There is to be a teachers railroad excursion from Boston and vicinity to Chicago about the middle of July with the fare for the round trip $22.

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1887.

INSURE YOUR PROPERTY IN SOLID COMPANIES?

S. B. GODDARD,

General Insurance and Real Estate Agency,

186 1/2 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Assets of Companies represented over Thirty Millions.

Losses promptly adjusted and paid at this office.

LAWRENCE READE

SEXTON.

Funeral and Furnishing Undertaker,

AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR,

77 Main St., Woburn, Mass.

COPPERS, CASKETS, ROBES, and every necessary article constantly on hand for the burial of the dead. Hearse, Carriages and Flowers furnished.

Orders by Telephone, Telegraph, or Express prompt attention to Night or Day.

Particular attention given to care of lots in Woburn and Winchester Cemetery. Funeral services conducted in the State. All orders for the opening of graves, burials, and interments with the cemetery, address

LAWRENCE READE,

77 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Machine Forgings.

We have lately added to our works a FORGING ROOM and are now prepared to do all kinds of machine forgings, bolts, &c. Gas and Water Piping a specialty. Manufacturing Houses with the LATEST IMPROVED BOILERS.

J. T. FREEMAN & CO.

H. A. SMITH,

Horse Shoer and Jobber,

WALNUT STREET,

Opp. Wade's Stable, WOBURN, MASS.

Overhauling, Interferring and Tender Footed Horses a specialty. Prices Moderate and Satisfaction guaranteed.

Piano-Forte Tuning,

Repairing and Polishing.

STEPHEN GROVER,

Practical Piano-Forte Maker.

Orders left at Woburn Bookstore, or sent to his address, East Boston, will be attended to promptly.

SPECIAL

BARGAINS!

Lace Buttins, all shades, 5c.

Crinkley Seersuckers, 6c.

White Shawls, $1.25.

Hamburg Edgings, very fine.

Lace Mitts, 25c.

Misses' Gauze Vests, long and short sleeves.

Ladies' Gauze Vests, long and short sleeves, 25c.

Silk Ties, 25c.

Ribbons, 5c.

Leather Belts, 15c.

Ladies' Wrappers, 87c.

Ladies' Dressing Sacques, 50c.

Call and get the bargains at

F. S. BURGESS.

SUMMER

Dry Goods!

Latest Styles in Millinery.

We can give you until July 1st, TRIMMED HATS and BONNETS at greatly reduced prices.

Large assortment of RIBBONS and FLOWERS.

MRS. J. H. PARKER.

Salem Street, Woburn.

MONEY TO LOAN.

On Furniture, Musical Instruments, Farming Tools, Cattle, or any good security. My rates are very low and I make no charge for examining property. No publicity. Correspondence solicited.

W. E. PETTEE,

33 SCHOOL STREET. BOSTON.

MID-SUMMER TERM AT THE

LEWIS MUSIC SCHOOL,

(COURT STREET.)

Begins Monday, June 27, 1887. Reception hours, 10 to 12 A. M., and 6 to 7 P. M.

F. H. LEWIS, Principal.

hear him tell about it. At Charles town, as usual, the anniversary is being celebrated in good style, but here and elsewhere not much note is taken of the day although one of the most important and memorable in the history of America.

— Last Wednesday afternoon and evening class exhibitions in music were given at High School Hall by pupils selected from the various departments which went off in a highly satisfactory manner. In the afternoon the exhibition, or more properly, class exercises, were by representatives of the primary schools, and in the evening a regular free concert was given by pupils from the upper departments. It had been, is now, and always will be probably a question in the minds of many people whether teaching music in public schools amounts to anything or not. No small portion of them think it costs more than it comes in. Others do not approve of the practice because it piles too much on the already overloaded shoulders of children and taxes their young minds too severely and sometimes dangerously; while a few think music as taught in our public schools amounts to but little at the best. But these exhibitions under the excellent management of Mr. Marshall, the teacher, ought to have had a tendency to correct some of these bad notions and did, most likely. The pupils acquitted themselves splendidly both from the primary and grammar departments, and the music they have learned to play is a credit to the school.

— Last Wednesday afternoon and evening class exhibitions in music were given at High School Hall by pupils selected from the various departments which went off in a highly satisfactory manner. In the afternoon the exhibition, or more properly, class exercises, were by representatives of the primary schools, and in the evening a regular free concert was given by pupils from the upper departments. It had been, is now, and always will be probably a question in the minds of many people whether teaching music in public schools amounts to anything or not. No small portion of them think it costs more than it comes in. Others do not approve of the practice because it piles too

BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*Star Creamery Butter,

Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.

THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

BUCKMAN &amp; WHITE,

No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.

Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER.*BUTTER.*SPECIAL BARGAINS

—IN—

HOMESPUN SUITS,*$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at the

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.THE QUALITY*OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the dealer and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

Is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

Of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut. Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.*WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

WINCHESTER.

The Waldmeyer Hose Co., and Huse "hookeys" have bought new uniforms.

H. W. Hight and Sumner Richardson went to Court last Monday as traverse jurors.

Next Sunday will be "Children's Day" at some of the churches in town and so observed.

The fire department has replaced the old 15-foot ladders with the Boston 40-foot ladder, the best made or used in the United States.

Ellis &amp; Co. have finished the foundation of the new Town House and good judges say it is the best piece of stone masonry work ever done in Winchester.

Next Sunday evening Rev. J. Minot Savage of Boston will preach at the Unitarian church at 7 o'clock. He will probably have a very large audience.

That bit of park in embryo at the corner of Main and Washington streets, recently bought by the town, is a repulsive looking piece of real estate at the present time.

Catalan Club has received a cordial invitation from John B. Rhodes to make him a visit next week at his summer residence at Marblehead Neck and go fishing with him. They talk now of going next Thursday.

Last week Rev. Mr. Seymour, pastor of the Congregational church here, Mrs. Clara Parker, Mr. H. Parker and wife and several other citizens attended the great meeting of the American Home Missionary Society held at Saratoga.

Bedford Springs, a popular health and pleasure resort at Bedford, this country, has a fine hotel connected with it which Mr. Adams of this place will have the management of this summer. The hotel, grounds, etc., are the property of a company.

The following order for visiting the schools of the town has been made and duly promulgated: Mystic, June 14; Highland, June 14; Highland, June 15; Gifford, June 16; Hill, June 20; Wyman, June 20; Rumford, June 21; Washington, June 21; Center Grammar, June 22; Chapin, June 23; High, June 24. These visitations except the High will occur in the forenoon.

Last week Rev. Joshua Coit and lady, Mr. and Mrs. Conant, and other good Wincheste people attended the 61st anniversary of the American Home Missionary Society which was held at Saratoga, where the annual meeting has been held for several years and where it was voted to hold it next year notwithstanding the efforts made to secure some central point further west.

Architect Adams has been paid $1000 for his plans of a new Town House which were accepted by the first building committee and subsequently rejected by the present committee. I hear that the town paid him $1000 for a full release of his claim against the committee, or in satisfaction of the same, which was a small remuneration, but better than an endless and pocket-expending lawsuit.

The Bethany Society located at the Highlands recently held an election of officers which resulted as follows: Clerk, J. Winslow Richardson; treasurer, Henry Smalley; standing committee, E. Lawrence Barnard, Luther Richardson, Dr. John E. Rice, A. C. Bell, Mrs. Luther Richardson, Mrs. John E. Rice, Miss Grace Lawrence. One hundred dollars was appropriated for grading the grounds.

Chief of Police J. Winslow Richardson has made the following report of his department for the last quarter: Arrests, 12; as follows: drunks, 4; larceny, 1; non-support, 1; violation of liquor law, 1; assault, 1; peddling, 1; cruelty to animals, 1; malicious mischief, 1. Disposition—House of Correction, 5; delivered to other officers, 2; paid fines and costs, 3; on file, 1; appealed, 2; liquor search warrant served, 8; disturbances suppressed, 5; cases investigated, 22; buildings found open, 5; lodgers entertained, 144.

Why is it that not more of the streets are watered during the very dusty period. Is the centre of the town the only part that is entitled to receive it?—Cor. of Advertiser. There she blows! I thought it about time for somebody to lift up his voice and rail at the street-sprinkler. I've been looking for it for a month. Is the CENTRE to have the earth while the outskirts droop and perish by the wayside? Never! The Centre always gets the lion's share whether entitled to it or not, and now let us wait and see what effect the howl of the Advertiser reporter will have on wetting down our streets.

Samuel James Elder, Esq., is the best tennis player in Winchester, and I should not be bit afraid to pit him against the best they have anywhere around here, although they say Arlington has some neat players. Mr. Elder likes the game, although increasing age ought to warn him to eschew all such childish sports, and plays it for all it is worth. While spending his vacation a summer or two ago at York Beach (vide "College Songs"), he fairly astonished the natives and awed the hearts of foreigners by his skillful playing and endurance, for he was at it from morning to night, day in and day out. He will play in Woburn some time this season.

The Trustees of the Library have given notice that that institution will be opened for the delivery of books during July and August only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, from 4 to 6 o'clock, p.m. on the first named days, and from 4 to 8:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

That is a sort of curious idea. At the season of the year when work and business are dullest and people have the most leisure on hand and need books the most to help while away the leaden-footed hours the Library is closed up nearly all the time. Naturally, I should say, book-takers from the Library would be more numerous during the summer or vacation months, because comparatively speaking only a few persons leave town and the balance of them have more time to read and therefore need more books. But, then, of course the Trustees know best.

BURLINGTON.

Mr. T. S. Curtis opened a new store, in the centre of the town, last Saturday. He has a full line of groceries, fruit and confectionery.

Some mischievous party or parties unknown visited the premises of Mr. George Goodwin, Sunday night, and did considerable damage.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY.

In the morning at the church the pastor, Rev. Charles Anderson spoke to the children, on the subject of "Duty." At the close of the exercises, Miss Lizzie W. Foster, in the pastor's Sunday School, gave the pastor and the superintendent each a beautiful basket of roses. The gifts were entirely unexpected and both recipients were deeply affected with surprise. In the evening, an interesting concert was given by the school. The different parts were promptly "Thed to Life," as well rendered by seven young ladies. The solo singing and recitations were also given in a satisfactory manner. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns, and mosses.

"We Dig

Our graves with our teeth?" is a trite but true saying. CHIRPEN'S PILLS relieve indigestion and cure contending disorders, such as sick headache, biliousness, etc. They are purely vegetable, mild and pleasant in their action. For sale by all druggists.

The shipment of California vegetables to Eastern markets is becoming a business of great magnitude. In 1883 the shipments amounted to 5,147,370 pounds, in 1884 to 5,509,880 pounds, and during the first half 1885 to 7,410,510 pounds. A special train of eighteen car loads of potatoes was dispatched from Sacramento June 1.

Importing of the blood often cause great annoyance at this season; Foulds' Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and cures all such afflictions.

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

150 &amp; 151 MAIN STREET.

Beautiful lot of "Hair Line" Dress Goods at greatly reduced prices.

Wash Dress Fabrics in great variety.

A large lot of desirable 25 ct. Dress Goods at the Old and Reliable Millinery Stand.

Children's Day.

Just how long ago the fashion for setting apart the second Sunday in June by the evangelical churches of the country for the use and benefit of the little ones and calling it Children's Day cannot now be definitely determined. Indeed, the habit it is believed did not bloom out all at once and full grown, but the day became such by a not very rapid growth from small beginnings, or an individual practice of some perhaps obscure church and afterwards finding favor in other eyes it was copied with beneficial results, and after while it became general and Children's Day was fully and firmly established. The Day does not belong to any particular kind of a jubilee too! Last Wednesday evening the committee reported to a meeting of citizens held in the Board of Trade Room and so encouraging was everything they had to say about it and so generously had the people given of their worldly substance that a vote to celebrate went through like a Nebraska cyclone and the thing was fixed. Capt. Ed. Wyer was chairman of the meeting and Mr. Charles W. Bryant was elected secretary of it. Both gentlemen were just plum full of 4th of July patriotism and enthusiasm, and so was everybody else there.

Messrs. Mark Allen, J. G. Pollard, John S. True, William F. Kenney, Griffin Place, Bryan McSweeney and Francis B. Curran were appointed a committee to retire and bring in the names of 25 persons to constitute a Committee of Arrangements, and they presented the following admirable list of go-ahead, working, patriotic gentlemen to constitute such general committee:

Charles W. Bryant, F. H. Lewis, Mark Allen, William F. Kenney, Lawrence Reade, Thomas H. Hill, E. Thompson, E. F. Wyer, F. S. Burgess, George Buchanan, Edw. F. Cassidy, F. A. Buckman, John S. True, J. G. Pollard, Fred J. Brown, H. E. Smith, B. McSweeney, H. M. Aldrich, D. W. Bond, F. F. Curran, C. E. Tripp, J. P. Crane, Milton Moore, Sewell D. Samson, Walter A. Hanson, Jacob M. Ellis.

The idea of everybody was to have a tip-rope of a celebration and that everything be gotten up regardless.

There will be a plenty of money to do it with and some to spare, providing every loyal citizen does his duty in the shape of cash contributions. At any rate we are to have a celebration on a big scale.

At the First Congregational church the 69th anniversary of the organization of the Sunday School was celebrated. The attendance was quite large and the exercises interesting, only they were too long for the comfort of participants and spectators. The singing by a selected choir of some 40 or 50 voices superintended by organic Buck, was the most enjoyable feature of the evening. The Sunday School contributions were by the juveniles directed by Mr. Lyford, Superintendent of the Primary department. The singing, recitations, declamations, songs, etc., by the little ones were pleasing and showed good training by their teachers. The church was trimmed with flowers, ferns and plants and while not gaudy at all it made a good appearance. If the celebration had not been strung out to such an unseasonable length it would have been much better enjoyed. It was good anyhow. The following was the

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

Prayer—From East and West." Scripture Reading and Prayer." Children's Day Exercise.

Solo—"Alleluia, Thanksgiving." Solo—"Amen." Mrs. W. O. Bacon, Song—"The Old Folks at Home." Song—"The Children's Saviour."

Superintendent's Report." Song—"Jesus is our Shepherd."

Address—John Herbert, Esq.

Song—"Shepherd of Tender Youth."

Address by the Pastor.

Chorus—"Unter the Gospel Banner."

Beneficiation.

Woburn Milk.

The products of this ancient and honorable town both natural and artificial are without exception of the best quality. We don't take a back seat for anybody on anything, but when it comes to farm and dairy products and leather we stand at the head of the class. Take the article of milk for example. Our milkmen are honest and they keep honest cows, and the result is always good and children and adults thrive on it. What does the learned and competent analyst of the State Board of Health say about Woburn milk? To reply to that question we give the following letter received a few days ago by Mr. Fred B. Leads, Milk Inspector of Woburn:

Office of State Board of Health, 34 Beacon Street, Boston.

DEAR SIR: As it may be a matter of interest to you to know the results of a recent inspection of Woburn Milk by our analyst I send you a copy of the result.

This is one of the best collections we have made this season, above the May and June standard and an average of 13.36. Respectfully yours, S. W. Abbott, Secretary.

F. B. Leads, Milk Inspector, Woburn Mass.

**...

Woman's Column.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "One of the most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, have all been greatly relieved." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup and every affection of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Trial bottles Free at W. W. Hill's Drug Store. Large Size 50c and $1.00.

One of two men in Lake View, Oregon, who have been courting the same girl in Warner's Valley, forty miles away, recently procured a license and started for the prospective bride. The other did not learn of this till the next day, when he started on the same errand accompanied by a minister and a friend of his. Another minister soon started out in behalf of the first man, and the townspeople have sent an Indian after the party with a license for the friend accompanying the second man. No news has yet been heard of the seat of war, but bets are made on the first lover.

Cream and Cold Weather.

What a luxury is a bath in summer, surely, out a greater luxury is a clear head in winter; just when the weather is inclement and ending with a cold in the head, and what is better it cures the worst cases of chronic catarrh and hay fever. Not a cold, not a snuff. Pleasant to use. Quick relief. Radish cure.

"Suppose" said the railroad Superintendent who was examining an applicant for a place as engineer, "that you were out on the road and discovered that you were carrying fifty pounds more steam than you should, what would you do?" "I'd have the fireman hang on to the safety valve till we go to town and then let off through the whistle." "That's right—I guess you understand your business."

An experienced sportsman says, the hardest things to shoot are bats. They are quick, make sharp turns in all directions, and are difficult to kill. Shot holes through their wings will not bring them down, and a story is told of one bat which flew away with twenty holes in its wings.

An Important Element.

Of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The familiar heading "100 Dose, One Dollar," is stolen from no one, and is given to the manufacturer of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proven by anyone who desires to test the matter. For real economy, buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists.

Two Three Score and Ten.

A writer in the Journal of Man, published in New York, says: "The calamities of human longevity are generally underrated by the medical profession and by popular opinion. Instead of the Scriptural limit of three score and ten," he says, "I would estimate twice that amount, or 140 years as the ideal age of longevity, when mankind shall have been born and trained with the knowledge of the laws of health, expended on horses and cattle. Of the present scrub race, a very large number ought never to have been born, and ought not to be allowed to transmit their physical and moral deficiencies to posterity. The average age of man is said to be 40 years, but the number of persons living to the age of 140 found in Italy under a census by one of the Roman emperors. It is added, moreover, by the number of persons in this country who have passed the century limit.—Detroit Free Press.

The Professional Eater.

These articles are not so common as they used to be. They used to be popular down south where big negroes were hired to eat against each other. A professional eater (I don't believe there are any now) will train on certain foods and go right through his job on time at an average rate of 1000 to 1200 words per hour. When it comes to eating, that is a different thing, all depending on the make up of the man. One man could drink a quart of whisky at a swallow, while another would drop dead. A man can accustom himself to eat of eating, but he must naturally have a capacity for drinking.—Jack Farrelly in Globe Democrat.

What Makes Paper Turn Yellow.

A recent writer has shown that the yellowing of paper is due to the oxidation of paper by light, and especially the more recent light. The paper is oxidized more rapidly in wood paper than in rag paper, and more rapid in moist than in dry air. Two practical results of this study are, first, to keep libraries as dry as possible, and secondly, that the electric light is far inferior to gas or oil, as the refrangible rays for so large a proportion of light.

The Chances in Tossing.

Professor Proctor, in his new book on "Chance and Luck," undertakes to tell the chances of getting heads or tails in tossing a coin. If you toss an hour, you will get heads or tails in a ratio of 50 to 50; "heads" in a greater ratio than 21 to 29. If you toss for a day the inequality will not be greater than 101 to 100.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Cautious Woman.

"Is this your fifth marriage?" she asked, in a loud voice, of an old woman on the car. "Yes, I suppose. Where are you?" "At aキンソン & Co. Oh yes; they are at 827 Washington street, Boston. I'm going to look at their stock myself."

Brooklyn has achieved a place among the cities of sweets. Eight hundred thousand dollars is annually expended in that city by candy eaters, and $160,000 of this sum is for caramels, which if placed in a line would reach from Brooklyn to Boston.

Expect, for suspect.

First-rate, as an adverb.

Nice, indiscriminately. (Real nice may be doubly fault.)

Had rather, for would rather.

Had better, for would better.

Right away, for immediately.

Party for person.

Promise for assure.

Posted, for informed.

Post-graduate, for graduate.

Depot, for station.

Stopping, for staying.

Try and do, for try to do.

Try and go, for try to go.

Cunning, for small, dainty.

Cute, for acute.

Funny, for odd or unusual.

Above, for foregoing, more than, or beyond.

Does it look good enough, for well enough.

Somebody else's, for somebody's else.

Like I am, for as I do.

Not as good as, for not so good as.

Feel badly, for feel bad.

Feel good, for feel well.

Between seven, for among seven.

Seldom or ever, for seldom if ever, or seldom or never.

Taste and smell of when used transively.

More than you think for, for more than you think.

These kind, for this kind.

Nicely, in response to an inquiry for health.

Healthy, for wholesome.

Just as soon, for just as lief.

Kind of, to indicate a moderate de-

The matter of, for the matter with-

The need of merit for promoting personal usefulness due to J. C. Ayer & Co., whose Hair Vines is a universal beautifier of the hair. Hairless, effective, and agreeable, it ranks among the indispensable toilet articles.

A new trade for women in Albany is that of "neighborhood darning." The woman who follows it has for her customers a dozen or twenty households, each of which she visits weekly, and spends a few hours in doing up the family darning and mending.

Very rich gold mines have been discovered in a hitherto unexplored district of Siberia. The region is declared to rival California in the greatest days of its gold diggings.

A youth at Pittsburg imitates a team so perfectly that the hands in one of the factories quit work at 11:30 o'clock the other day when they heard him practicing. They thought it was noon.

James Pyle's

PEARLINE

MAKES

Short Hours

For Women.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR

ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS, LIBRARY AND READING ROOM, AND ON THE FOURTH THERE WILL BE AN AUDITORIUM SEATING AT LEAST 2000 PEOPLE.

ALREADY ABOUT TWO-THIRDS OF THE BUILDING HAVE BEEN ENAGED AT A TOTAL OF $7000.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ARE BUILDING

A LABOR TEMPLE

AT MINNEAPOLIS,

IN WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD

ITS MEETINGS.

THE FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS

WILL BE DEVOTED TO BUSINESS PURPOSES,

THE THIRD WILL CONTAIN SEVERAL SMALL HOTELS AND ANTI-ROOMS

THE WOBURN JOURNAL, FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1887.

The Woburn Journal

FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1887.

The JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horan, 195 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 156 Main Street, John Cummings, 24, Cummingsville, Samson E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

General Butler, in a speech which he made at the Butler banquet in Boston last week, hit the nail on the head about square in regard to Cleve- land's ordering the rebel flags taken in battle by the Union soldiers to be returned to the States to which they belonged before their capture. Of all the foolish and unpopular things Cleve- land has been guilty of during his term in the President's office this last order for the return of the flags was the weakest and meanest. But a protest went up instantly from the "boys in blue" in every section of the Union which compelled him to drop the flag business like a hot potato and wish most devoutly and earnestly that he never had had anything to do with it. He could not have done a more unwise or more unpopular thing if he had studied ever so hard over it. But giving up the captured rebel flags was in complete accordance with his feelings for everyone knows that the veterans who helped save the Nation have next to no hold at all on Cleve- land's gratitude or respect. He has never allowed an opportunity to give the old soldiers a slap in the face to pass by un-approved—he don't like "the boys" at all, and there is no love lost between him and them. This is how General Butler puts it:

"We have sent back to the South pretty much all that we got from them. We have given them back all that we took from them in cotton under the laws. I do not complain of that at all. There is no sentiment, but we must stop somewhere in this giving up of everything that belongs to the war, for if we return our flags captured from them I think the next thing they will ask that we will return the slaves captured from them, and I propose to stop at flags here and now."

A large and enthusiastic meeting of anti-saloon Republicans was held in New York City last week. It was attended and participated in by many of the best and most prominent members of the Republican party in the State. The movement was begun in a small way some time ago and has become by a steady growth an important element in the politics of the country. The Republican party is by the character of its composition and naturally a temperance and anti-saloon party, but there have always been men enough in it of sufficient influence and weight of standing to keep it from doing its best for the cause of sobriety and carrying out its convictions as to the part the anti-saloon principle should have in its policy. But the party will be driven into taking a firm and decided stand in favor of temperance and against the saloons before a great while if it would maintain itself with the people of the country. The best and strongest men in it favor a bold front and active operations against the influences and abuses of the rum-shops now, and their ranks are being filled up and strengthened every day. It will not be long before temperance or anti-saloonism will be a cardinal tenet in the platform of the Republican party, and the sooner it comes to be so the better.

Somewhat unexpectedly the Leg- islature adjourned without day or Thursday evening of last week. Failing to put through the salary grab bill the members concluded they couldn't get away from the State House any too soon and so packed their carpetbags and hastily departed that evening. The general opinion is that it was a pretty cheap Legislature.

The Robert E. Lee camp of Confederate veterans left Boston last Sunday afternoon for home after a splendid three days reception and entertainment by Post 16, G. A. R., of Boston, with which they were delighted. Post 16 were the guests of Robert E. Lee Camp at Richmond last fall and this was the return visit. It was a grand affair all the way through.

LOCAL NEWS.

Advertisers.
S. H. Niles—Wanted.
O. S. Knapp—Station.
W. N. T. —Red Men.
J. A. —Station.
W. E. —Station.
W. G. A. —Station.
Longfellow—Station.
Five Cents Savings Bank—Notice.
Fourth of July Committee—Notice.

Read Mr. Jenks's notice of "Safe Investments."

Not very bad—hammocks at Jenkins's for 75 cents—is it?

The Five Cents Savings Bank has an interesting notice in this issue of the JOURNAL.

The Daughters of Rebekah pic- nicked at the Willows, Salem, last Wednesday.

There was a thunder storm on Wednesday evening with a good deal of much needed rain.

The Selectmen have ordered a Town Meeting held to consider the charter business. Good!

The lady who will deliver the principal address at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the Baptist church next Sunday evening is said to be one of the best and most entertaining platform orators in the State.

Rev. D. Richards of Somerville will officiate at All Saints Chapel next Sunday afternoon at 2:45 P. M. Seats free.

Copeland & Bowser have a "Special Notice" in the JOURNAL this week which deserves to be carefully read.

The child was the grandchild of Mr. William T. Kendall, and instead of being 6 months it was 15 months old. Now it is right.

It will be rather a dry, lonely and disconsolate 4th of July to anybody who hasn't some of Taber's beautiful Penobscot salmon for dinner.

At Police Station No. 1 is a shawd found on Mt. Pleasant street, which the owner can get by calling there, proving property, etc.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2nd and 4th of July. Examine his big stock.

Prior has filled the Woburn Bargain Store full of fireworks which will sell on the 1st, 2

BUTTER. BUTTER.
Star Creamery Butter,
 Manufactured at Belvidere, Illinois.
 THE BEST BUTTER IN THE MARKET. EVERY POUND WARRANTED.
BUCKMAN & WHITE,
 No. 209 Main Street, Woburn, Mass.
 Sole receivers of the STAR CREAMERY BUTTER in Woburn.

BUTTER. BUTTER.
SPECIAL BARGAINS
 IN

HOMESPUN SUITS,
$10, $12, $14.

Also, a large variety of Children's Shirt Waists, at

Boston Clothing Co.'s,
 148 MAIN STREET, WOBURN, MASS.

THE QUALITY
 OF GOODS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN PURCHASING,

But unfortunately low prices without any regard to durability appear to catch the public. A long experience in business proves to us that first-class goods pay both the receiver and purchasers.

OUR SPRING STOCK

is now complete and we are offering

FIRST-CLASS GOODS

of the leading manufacturers at prices lower than ever before.

A choice stock of Parlor, Library, Chamber and Dining-room Furniture in Mahogany, Antique Oak, Cherry and Black Walnut.

Wilton, Velvet, Brussels, Tapestry and Woolen Carpets, Oil Cloths and Straw Matting, Art Squares, Rugs and Mats.

CASH OR PARTIAL PAYMENTS.

WALBRIDGE BROS.,

23 Washington and 87 Friend Streets, BOSTON.

WINCHESTER.

The RR. Co. have raised the Swanton street bridge to the legal or regulation height.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale will preach at the Unitarian Church next Sunday.

Rum sellers find that "Jordan is a hard road to travel" in this town. If we don't believe it ask Tom Lynch of Swanton street.

There is to be a strawberry festival at the Unitarian church next Monday evening at which the Ruggles Street Quartet will sing.

The german given in Rangely Hall by Madame Shattuck and Cutler for the pleasure of the young people was very enjoyed.

The No. Wo. St. Ry. Co. are changing the grade of their track at Swanton-Main street and lowering the same nearly two feet I should set it.

The Star says errors in the town By-laws saved a lad from the Reform School the other day. Name the lawyer who framed the By-laws.

The Star man thinks the Symmes Corner people "will have to tramp to the Centre for a while longer" for all the street railway can do for them.

The prospect for a big pear crop here was never better than at the present time. If nothing happens there will be dead loads of them in this place and neighborhood.

Mr. John R. Newman will visit London, Eng., with the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston of which he is a member. They expect to get there on July 2.

Charles L. White, recently graduated from Brown University, sailed for Europe yesterday with a fellow-student. On Oct. 1, he will enter Regent Park Theological Seminary, London, and study there a year.

When the Sun Electric of Woburn came down last week and beat our own Winchesters 4 to 3 our own Winchesters were not in good trim for No 1 work, or not in good trim enough to win the game. We have our sweet revenge on the "Suns" before the summer is out.

My idea is that the most of our people who like 4th of July celebrations will go to Woburn a week from next Monday and have a good time. There will be nothing to speak of here, at least I have heard no talk about a home celebration, and there is to be none. Therefore our citizens will scatter probably.

At the annual convention of the Mass. Association of Congregational churches held at Brockton this week, Rev. Joshua Coit, D. D., was elected Secretary of the Association, and Mr. Edwin B. Palmer, Treasurer, both of this place. Rev. C. R. Seymour, pastor of the Winchester Congregational church, made an able address before the convention on "Church Work."

BURLINGTON.

There is to be a town meeting, Saturday night. The main business of the evening will be to fix a definite location for the new school house in the north part of the town.

The Burlington boys were defeated by the North Woburn club, Friday, and, in their turn, defeated the Burlingtonians.

The pickers are busy. Mr. Edward Foster, the famous strawberry raiser in this region, has a large crop, and others are marketing their berries in smaller quantities.

Buckley's Arica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Cracked Heels, Skin Diseases, etc. post. Glycerine Piles, or any part required, is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by W. H. Hill.

Distress after eating, heartburn, sick headache, and indigestion and sick headache are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates a good appetite.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

(A man has asked in a neighboring city.)

A Person going down Walnut Street Eating Chestnuts

ON

A Person going down Chestnut Street Eating Walnuts?

WE ANSWER

In going down Walnut Street eating chestnuts there is great liability of going into a store where old and undesirable goods are sold.

In going down Chestnut Street eating walnuts the great attraction will be at the

DRY GOODS HOUSE OF A. CUMMINGS,

Where the finest display of new and desirable DRESS GOODS are found at remarkably low prices.

The Glorious Fourth.

The business is settled! The Woburn celebration on the 4th of July is to be made a big affair—the most extensive, patriotic and attractive since 1876.

The critical point is passed, the danger of a slip-up has vanished, the committee have reached that point where they are able and do announce to the public a living-kno— instead of guesswork. The celebration is a sure thing and will come off per programme, wind and weather permitting, and this community may govern itself accordingly.

The Committee of Arrangements held a meeting in the rooms of the Board of Trade last Saturday evening to block out a programme of the exercises to be held on the grand and glorious day which duty was attended to in the very best shape. J. G. Pollard was chosen permanent Chairman of the Committee and Charles W. Bryant was chosen its permanent Secretary and Treasurer. It was a very enthusiastic meeting indeed. The Committee were out in full force and everyone of them was ready for business. The report of the Soliciting Committee was in the highest degree favorable and removed all doubts about the celebration. Contributions of the sumes of war had come in on a liberal scale all round so that the question of finance gave no body any trouble. It was all plain sailing.

W. F. Kenney, F. H. Lewis, Mark Allen, E. F. Wyer were appointed a committee to retire, agree on and fetch in for the consideration of the whole committee the skeleton of a programme for the sports and exercises of the 4th, which duty these gentlemen promptly attended. They cut and arranged in groups, doing ample justice to the good things that came forth from the baskets.

After luncheon, we soon started off for no valuable time could be lost. The Public Library was first visited. It is a beautiful building and contains many interesting things, but one seemed ready to exchange it for our own Library. From this point we separated and went in various directions, some visiting the old burying grounds and others the "Battle Ground" or the "Old Manse" near by, which was for years the principal house in the town. But the "Battle Ground" was the greatest attraction of all. On the side where the British fought stands a plain granite shaft, while on the opposite side of the river, where the Americans fought, we see the statue of the "Minute Man," sculptured by Mr. G. French of Concord. After taking our places in the barges again, we were driven to Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, where we visited the graves of Hawthorne, Thoreau and Emerson. The first two are marked by plain headstones, while the monument of the latter consists of an immense block of various kinds of quartz, just as it came from the quarry, with no inscription to distinguish it. Once more seated in the barges, we left them no more till we reached home, tired perhaps, but feeling that we had gained a great deal and that we had gained a great deal and that our Social Meeting had been a grand success.—X.

The programme which they laid out for a great celebration was (1) a grand military, civic and firemen's procession to be preceded by the "Ancients and Horribles," bands, police escort, drum corps, and followed by the unclassified crowd.

The sum of $150 was appropriated for the Antiques. The committee having charge of this division are: Henry M. Aldrich, H. Eastgate Smith, F. H. Lewis, Mark Allen, Thomas H. Hill.

This will be followed (2) by field, athletic, aquatic and other sports, for which a handsome appropriation was made. These exhibitions of brawn and patriotism will be given in different sections of the town, mainly on Salem street. The committee are: William G. Pollard, Edward E. Thompson, Capt. John P. Crane, C. E. Tripp, and A. Hanson, Sewell D. Samson.

In the afternoon there will be a grand display of fireworks (5) for which a generous appropriation of money was made. This will be under the management of Fred J. Brown, George M. Buchanan, E. F. Wyer, James M. Ellis, W. F. Kenney.

The committee will provide music (6) for the celebration on C. W. Bryant, Milton Moore, John S. True, Walter A. Hanson, Sewell D. Samson.

It was voted to invite the Board of Selectmen to co-operate with the Committee of Arrangements in carrying out the above order of exercises set forth in skeleton. The details of each department will be determined on and given to the public in due season. At the adjourned meeting of the C. of A. on last Wednesday evening plans were further matured and features added to the programme. The various sub-committees are as busy as bees and report progress satisfactory to everybody.

The 4th of July is going to be a big day here in Woburn!

And don't you forget it!

Woman's Club.

The last meeting of the season before the long vacation was a social meeting, held June 16. About seventy ladies, members of the Club and their friends, met at the Unitarian Church at eight o'clock in the morning and three large barges were soon filled and on the way to Concord, where we were to spend the day. It was a perfect June day and we all enjoyed the ride along the beautiful country roads.

As we neared Concord, we were on the alert to see everything of interest and the next we came to was the home of Hawthorne, called "The Wayside," which is now occupied as a summer residence by Daniel Lothrop, Esq., the well known Boston publisher. Next we came to the "Orchard House," noted as the home of the Alcott family for many years and now the residence of Dr. W. T. Harris, who is at the head of the celebrated Concord School of Philosophy. The Chapel, a very small unpretending structure in which the School is now held, stands on the hill west of the "Orchard House." Soon on the left, we saw Emerson's home, a plain, wooden house standing in a grove of pine trees. Passing through the town, we noticed various interesting points, as the First Church, Wright's Tavern, the present summer position and give correct judgment of they act so quickly. They are not so easily caught than the others.

This is the reason why they are the bane of thousands who have suffered from the variety of stomach Troubles caused by

DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION.

and have given no relief to those who have been plagued by them.

Dr. Mark B. Woodbury's DYSPEPSIA KILLERS.

will prevent Heartburn, or any disorders of the stomach, and cure DYSPEPSIA and Indigestion. "Take a D. R. and B. D. K." has become almost a world-wide maxim, and is sold in every druggist's shop for 25 cents, and will be sent to any to any part of the U. S. on receipt of price, by Dousie & Smith, 24 and 26 Tremont St., Boston.

For further information apply to

FRANCIS P. CURRAN, ESQ., 181 Main street.

Per order of

COMMITTEE ON PROCESSION.

For further information apply to

JOHN CUMMINGS, President.

E. E. THOMPSON, Treasurer.

Jacob Brown, Samuel Cook, G. R. Gage, Vice Presidents.

For further information apply to

JOSEPH PHARACH.

when he entered Egyptian wheat, but Foulds scored a

WHEAT GERM MEAL.

Now, ladies, the weather

is growing hot, and if you use the Foulds' GERM

MEAL, you'll save

money, time and trouble.

When you are in your children will thrive on it, and you will be surprised to see how kindly obscured the sun for a time

the golden umpire would kindly emerge from the shadow of a tree to take his proper position and give correct judgment of they act so quickly. They are not so easily caught than the others.

This is the reason why they are the bane of thousands who have suffered from the variety of stomach Troubles caused by

DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION.

and have given no relief to those who have been plagued by them.

Dr. Mark B. Woodbury's DYSPEPSIA KILLERS.

will prevent Heartburn, or any disorders of the stomach, and cure DYSPEPSIA and Indigestion. "Take a D. R. and B. D. K." has become almost a world-wide maxim, and is sold in every druggist's shop for 25 cents, and will be sent to any to any part of the U. S. on receipt of price, by Dousie & Smith, 24 and 26 Tremont St., Boston.

For further information apply to

JOSEPH PHARACH.

when he entered Egyptian wheat, but Foulds scored a

WHEAT GERM MEAL.

Now, ladies, the weather

is growing hot, and if you

use the Foulds' GERM

MEAL, you'll save

money, time and trouble.

When you are in your children will thrive on it, and you will be surprised to see how kindly obscured the sun for a time

the golden umpire would kindly emerge from the shadow of a tree to take his proper position and give correct judgment of they act so quickly. They are not so easily caught than the others.

This is the reason why they are the bane of thousands who have suffered from the variety of stomach Troubles caused by

DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION.

